The twofold coming of Christ

We do not preach only one coming of Christ, but a second as well, much more glorious than the first. The first coming was marked by patience; the second will bring the crown of a divine kingdom.

In general, whatever relates to our Lord Jesus Christ has two aspects. There is a birth from God before the ages, and a birth from a virgin at the fullness of time. There is a hidden coming, like that of rain on fleece, and a coming before all eyes, still in the future.

At the first coming he was wrapped in swaddling clothes in a manger. At his second coming he will be clothed in light as in a garment. In the first coming he endured the cross, despising the shame; in the second coming he will be in glory, escorted by an army of angels.

We look then beyond the first coming and await the second. At the first coming we said: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. At the second we shall say it again; we shall go out with the angels to meet the Lord and cry out in adoration: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

The Savior will not come to be judged again, but to judge those by whom he was judged. At his own judgment he was silent; then he will address those who committed the outrages against him when they crucified him and will remind them: You did these things, and I was silent.

His first coming was to fulfill his plan of love, to teach men by gentle persuasion. This time, whether men like it or not, they will be subjects of his kingdom by necessity.

The prophet Malachi speaks of the two comings. And the Lord whom you seek will come suddenly to his temple: that is one coming.

Again, he says of another coming: Look, the Lord almighty will come, and who will endure the day of his entry, or who will stand in his sight? Because he comes like a refiner's fire, a fuller's herb, and he will sit refining and cleansing.

These two comings are also referred to by Paul in writing to Titus: The grace of God the Savior has appeared to all men, instructing us to put aside impiety and worldly desires and live temperately, uprightly, and religiously in this present age, waiting for the joyful hope, the appearance of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ. Notice how he speaks of a first coming for which he gives thanks, and a second, the one we still await.

That is why the faith we profess has been handed on to you in these words: He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

Our Lord Jesus Christ will therefore come from heaven. He will come at the end of the world, in glory, at the last day. For there will be an end to this world, and the created world will be made new.

From the Instructions to Catechumens by St Cyril of Jerusalem

THE 2ND COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND WILL BE FOR OUR CHURCH CAPITAL FUND.
THE 2ND COLLECTION NEXT WEEKEND WILL BE FOR OUR PARISH SCHOOL.

Please contact the parish office if you need prayers or want to have prayers said for a relative or friend. Several times a year when the list gets long, we will begin again with a new list after a notice in the bulletin; at that time simply let the parish office know if you still require prayers. Our new office emails are: carolyn@stmarysalton.com and marci@stmarysalton.com

1ST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Isaiah 63:16b-17, 19b; 64:2-7 ~ 1 Corinthians 1:3-9
Mark 13:33-37

FOCUS: We must be active in our hope for Christ's return.

Hope is a theological virtue: "We desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as our happiness, placing our trust in Christ's promises and relying not on our own strength, but on the help of the grace of the Holy Spirit" (CCC 1817). Hope is an active state of being, not passive. During this Advent season we must be fully alive and fully engaged. We must be committed in our pursuit of the Lord; we must be people of hope!

Isaiah laments that the people have wandered from the ways of the Lord and pleads that God rend the heavens and come down. Paul gives thanks for the gifts Christ has bestowed while the Corinthians wait for the revelation of Jesus. In the Gospel, Jesus exhorts His disciples to be watchful like servants waiting for the return of the lord of the house.

CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH PART ONE - THE PROFESSION OF FAITH

SECTION TWO – THE CREEDS THE WORLD WAS CREATED FOR THE GLORY OF GOD MAN

362 The human person, created in the image of God, is a being at once corporeal and spiritual. The biblical account expresses this reality in symbolic language when it affirms that "then the LORD God formed man of dust from the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being."<sup>229</sup> Man, whole and entire, is therefore willed by God.

We welcome her as the newest member baptized into our Catholic Faith. May God bless her as she grows in His love.

ADVENT MISSION:

Fill the Void: Mary, Mercy, and the Eucharist

The Season of Advent is a time to "Begin Again." Liturgically, Advent marks the beginning of a new calendar year in the life of the Church. Spiritually, Advent is period of preparation as we patiently await the birth of Jesus Christ. Hence, as we both prepare and wait, the Season of Advent reminds us that as men and women, we have a longing, a void for Jesus. For three nights, I invite you to make both time and space so that Christ can fill your void with three of the greatest gifts God has given to humanity: Mary, Mercy, and the Eucharist. Please join us each evening from December 12 - 14 beginning at 7:00pm in the church. -Fr. Paul Kallal, OMV

Tuesday, December 12: Mary

Wednesday, December 13: Mercy (Confessions after talk)

Thursday, December 14: Eucharist

Special Collection For Retired Religious

Bishop Paprocki has asked us to contribute to the 2023 Collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious. This annual appeal assists nearly 25,000 elderly sisters, brothers, and religious order priests nationwide. Your generous donations to the Retirement Fund for Religious provide vital financial support, enabling religious communities to care for their aging members. Please keep them in your prayers. This special collection will be taken up at Masses the weekend of December 9/10.

DID YOU MISS THE EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS?

Watch the talks from the Eucharistic Congress speakers!

- Everyone loved the speakers at the diocesan Eucharistic Congress Oct. 28 in Springfield! Now you can watch their inspiring, funny, thought provoking, and uplifting talks. Go to dio.org/catholictimes and click on videos. While you're there, you can check out a recap video of the historic day and watch the Mass. Note, Dr. Scott Hahn's talk is not able to be published due to contract stipulations.

NOW THROUGH DEC. 8 - ONLY A FEW DAYS LEFT!

Visit the Cathedral in Springfield or Ss. Peter and Paul Church in Alton, receive an indulgence! – The diocesan-wide Year of the Eucharist going on now has a heavenly treasure of our Catholic faith attached to it. Bishop Thomas John Paprocki received permission from the Holy See, granting a plenary indulgence to those who make a pilgrimage to the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Springfield or Ss. Peter and Paul Church in Alton (the "Old Cathedral") now through Dec. 8. One must also partake in the other usual conditions to receive this indulgence by going to Confession, receiving the Eucharist, and saying prayers for the intention of the Pope. These acts "may be carried out several days preceding or following the performance of the prescribed works. But it is more fitting that communion and the prayer for the pope's intentions take place on the day the work is performed" (Handbook of Indulgences, Norms for Indulgences, 23.3). An indulgence is a gift and grace that remits the temporal punishment due to a sin.

Venerable Bruno Lanteri

"Be aware that after a fall the evil spirit makes it seem difficult to return to ask God for forgiveness and almost impossible to correct the fault; on the contrary, the good spirit reduces the difficulty, makes it easy to obtain forgiveness, gives us energy, and encourages us, persuading us at the same time that we cannot be without faults, but that by means of these we must humble ourselves the more, and seek forgiveness from God."

PRAYER CORNER

Prayer for the 1st Sunday of Advent

God of light and life,
give us hope as we wait
for your coming again.

When we are tempted to be grateful to have found you while others are lost,
send us out into the darkness
in search of those who need you most. Amen.

rites of acceptance & welcoming

For the past thirteen weeks Inquirers have been attending weekly sessions which instruct them about the Catholic way of life and encourage them to ask questions. This Sunday at the 9:30 Mass they will take the first liturgical step on the journey which can lead them to become members of the Catholic Church. This first step is called The Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens & the Rite of Welcoming of Candidates. During this celebration, the Inquirers express and the Church accepts their intention to respond to God's call to follow the way of Christ. After this ceremony, the unbaptized of these persons will be called "Catechumens" and those who are already baptized will be called "Candidates". These Catechumens and Candidates will continue to receive their weekly instruction and, in addition, will attend the 9:30 Mass together. After the homily each week, they will be led downstairs where their catechists will further their instruction on the readings of the Mass and about the Mass itself. We congratulate our Inquirers for entering the next stage of their formation process, the "Catechumenate". May God bless all them on their continuing journey.

Parishioners, Please keep these Catechumens, Candidates and their catechists in your daily prayers and welcome them into our parish family and activities! Thank you.

Fr. Leland celebrating a special home Mass

We have celebrated many special "home Masses". At your winter family gatherings, please consider this unique and beautiful way to bless your family and/or bless a special celebration in your family. If you are interested in a home Mass, please contact one of the priests here at St. Mary's and we will arrange it.
