THE FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT

Laetare Sunday

The Fourth Sunday of Lent, also known as Laetare Sunday, is a day of celebration within the more austere period of Lent. While violet is the penitential color of Lent, on this day, the vestments worn by the priest are rose colored, to remind us to rejoice. Laetare Sunday gets its name from the first words of the Introit (traditional Latin entrance) for the Mass of the day, taken from Isaiah 66:10:

*Laetare Jerusalem: et conventum facite omnes qui diligitis eam:
gaudete cum laetitia, qui in tristitia fuistis:
ut exsultetis, et satiemini ab uberibus consolationis vestrae.
(Psalm) Laetatus sum in his, quae dicta sunt mihi:
in domum Domini ibimus. Gloria Patri.*

*Rejoice, O Jerusalem: and come together all you that love her:
rejoice with joy, you that have been in sorrow:
that you may exult, and be filled from the breasts of your consolation.
(Psalm) I rejoiced at the things that were said to me:
we shall go into the house of the Lord. Glory be to the Father.*

MAN IN PARADISE

376 By the radiance of this grace all dimensions of man's life were confirmed. As long as he remained in the divine intimacy, man would not have to suffer or die.<sup>252</sup> The inner harmony of the human person, the harmony between man and woman,<sup>253</sup> and finally the harmony between the first couple and all creation, comprised the state called "original justice".

4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

2 Chronicles 36:14-16,19-23 ~ Ephesians 2:4-10 ~ John 3:14-21

FOCUS: Offer gifts of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving out of love and gratitude to our merciful God.

We offer our humble gifts of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving to God out of gratitude. We recognize that all is gift. God has poured out his grace upon us. We joyfully draw near to the giver of all good gifts in the spiritual practices we take up in this season.

The first reading chronicles the fall of Jerusalem because of the people's unfaithfulness, and the fulfillment of the prophecies through Cyrus, king of Persia. In his Letter to the Ephesians, Paul speaks of the richness of God's mercy and the immeasurable riches of his grace. The Gospel tells of Jesus' conversation with Nicodemus and the immense love God has for us.

At 9:30 Mass only, Year A readings will be used to coincide with the RCIA Scrutiny.

LENTEN STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

March 10, 2024 - 4th Sunday of Lent

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son..."

- John 3:16

Of all the wonderful gifts that God has given to us, the gift of His own Son is truly the greatest. How can we ever thank God for a gift like that? God does not ask us to sacrifice our own precious firstborn, but He does ask that we are grateful and generous with our God-given gifts. That we nurture and develop our gifts, and in gratitude, generously give back with increase our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to support the mission and ministry of our parish and greater Church. help to prune our vices and to grow in virtue.

LENTEN ALMSGIVING

Merciful God,

You show your love in many ways, but one of the most important is through the helping hands and understanding hearts that we have for our neighbors who are in need. Please continue to be our guide as we work to be worthy of the countless gifts You have given us. Amen.

St. Mary's Charitable Outreach Society - as covid assistance is no longer available in our area, we have seen a dramatic uptick in our calls for assistance, mainly utility assistance. The amount of assistance we can offer is based completely on the amount of donations that we receive from you. Won't you please drop a coin in the Poor Box (located at entrances to the church)? Thank you in advance for your generosity and help.

The Scrutinies

During the 3rd, 4th and 5th Sundays of Lent our Elect, who are preparing to receive the Easter sacraments of baptism, confirmation and Eucharist, celebrate the Scrutinies.

This Sunday, in the 2nd Scrutiny, our attention is drawn to recognize Christ as the light of the world. During the ceremony the celebrant asks that the elect be freed from the effects of sin and from the power of Satan. By this prayer the Elect receive new strength in the midst of the spiritual journey and open their hearts to receive the gifts of the Savior.

The whole community is not there just to observe. This is a great opportunity for all of us to take a deep look into our own lives. The prayers of the Elect should become everyone's prayers. The purifying of the Elect should become the purifying of the whole community.

Please continue to pray for our Elect and Candidates.
