If you prefer to receive holy Communion under “both kinds” — that is, the Body and Blood — it is important to note that “since Christ is sacramentally present under each of the species, communion under the species of bread alone makes it possible to receive all the fruit of Eucharistic grace” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1390). It is also worth noting that, in the United States, Communion in the hand is allowed by permission of Pope Paul VI, but the decision on which way to receive (in the hand or on the tongue) ultimately is left up to the faithful, not the extraordinary minister or the pastor. However, the Code of Canon law states that, in view of the common good, “ecclesiastical authority can direct the exercise of rights which are proper to the Christian faithful,” which means that, for reasons of the common good, the bishop may request and urge the faithful to receive holy Communion in the hand (cf. canon 223). Finally, reception of Communion is not a requirement for those attending Mass. Indeed, the sacraments are gifts generously bestowed upon us by our creator, and sometimes we find reason that we should forego the gift for a time. The tradition of the Church has long held that the faithful unable or unwilling to receive the Body and Blood of Christ at Mass might instead participate in a “spiritual Communion” — what St. Thomas Aquinas described as “an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament and in lovingly embracing Him.”

In the Gospel today, Jesus says “...whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these, because I am going to the Father.”

Through your almsgiving you are performing a good work; far greater than you think. The coins placed in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box bring Christ love and compassion to the poor.

CHANGE OF MIND AND HEART FROM NOW ON

During Lent, we participate in penitential practices and focused on prayer, fasting, and almsgiving in order to turn our lives more fully to the Lord. However, the fruit of our Lenten practices is not supposed to end on Good Friday or Easter Sunday. Lent is our annual time to embrace spiritual renewal, which is intended to last. The change of mind and heart that we embrace in the weeks preceding Easter are to be our spiritual foundation, shaping our lives now and into the future. Pause for a moment and ask yourself what difference Lent made for you this year. If you can point to some particular change of mind, heart, or behavior, promise yourself that you will continue to live in this new way in the months and years to come. If Lent did not have a special impact on your life this year, now is the time to invite the Lord to show you the way to more meaningful and faith-filled living in the future.

Please bless our Mothers with the unmistakable gift of Your love, O Lord. May each of them feel Your love in their hearts, Your peace in their minds, and Your joy in their spirits this day.

Through the intercession of our Blessed Mother Mary, we ask: You to refresh our Mothers and fill them again with Your Holy Spirit. May their families surround them and may their children rise up and call them blessed. In Jesus' name, Amen

Pascua

*Feliz Día
de las Madres*

SANTOS FELIPE Y SANTIAGO (Siglo I)

Durante la Cuaresma participamos en ritos penitenciales, la oración, el ayuno y las obras de caridad para que nuestras vidas se dirijan completamente hacia el Señor. Sin embargo, el fruto de nuestras prácticas cuaresmales no termina el Viernes Santo o el Domingo de Pascua. La Cuaresma es nuestro tiempo anual para incluir una renovación espiritual, con la intención de que perdure. El cambio de mente y corazón que incluimos en las semanas anteriores a la Pascua deben ser nuestro fundamento espiritual, formando nuestras vidas ahora y en el futuro. Haz una pausa por un momento y preguntante que diferencia tuvo la Cuaresma para ti este año. Si puedes indicar algún cambio específico de mente, corazón, comportamiento, prométete que continuaras viviendo en este nuevo cambio en los próximos meses y años. Si la Cuaresma no tuvo un impacto en particular en tu vida este año, ahora es el tiempo de que invites al Señor a que te muestre el camino hacia una vida más significativa y llena de fe en tu futuro.

Psalm — Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you (Psalm 33).

Second Reading — We, like living stones, let ourselves be built into a spiritual house (1 Peter 2:4-9).
