SAINT FRANCES XAVIER CABRINI (1850-1917) November 13

Burly longshoremen glared at the woman in widow's dress who interrupted their drinking to beg money, in broken English, for her orphanage. The bar exploded in laughter as one man responded by spitting in her face. "That was for me," the woman smiled. "Do you have anything for the children?" Given today's national debate, could it be as much God's sense of humor as God's will for our sanctification that our first American saint should be an immigrant and naturalized citizen? Frances Cabrini, adopting the name Xavier, confided to Pope Leo XIII her longing to follow her Jesuit patron to Asia. But the Pope replied, "Not East—West!" So she and her Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart exchanged exotic dreams of China for the impoverished reality of Italian ghettos across the United States and Central and South America. Before her death, Frances had founded seventy educational, health care, child, and family service institutions. Today, from Siberia to Ethiopia, in sixteen countries, Mother Cabrini's sisters and lay associates embody her practical spirituality: "Let's get to work! We'll have eternity to rest!"

EVANGELIZATION

I will go anywhere and do anything in order to communicate the love of Jesus to those who do not know him or have forgotten him.

—St. Frances Xavier Cabrini

Seek refuge in the name of the Lord

In today's Gospel Jesus challenges us to "stay awake" by taking time to seriously look at ourselves, the priorities of our lives, and how we are growing spiritually.

Ask yourself "What would Jesus Christ do?" and then put your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul poor box so that those who are suffering will be able to celebrate Thanksgiving.

At the end of today's Gospel, the groom answers the pleas of the foolish virgins not with a question, "Why weren't you ready?" but with the statement, "I don't know you" (Mt 25:12). Now that sounds kind of odd, if the bridegroom represents the Lord, because God knows everything and everybody. But here in Matthew's Gospel, this phrase seems to imply that "because you made no effort to know me, I don't know you."

So what am I doing to get to know Jesus? One way to know someone is to act like them. Actors who portray a real person try to watch videos of that person to see how they talk, walk, relate to people, etc. We can act like Jesus by following his example of care for the poor and the sick, forgiving people who have done wrong, feeding the hungry, and giving God the credit for what we do.

Another way to get to know someone is to talk to them. The more we pray, the more we get close to Jesus. We can praise God for Creation, we can thank God for all the giving (and forgiving!) We can ask for help for those we love and for God's strength in our weakness (2 Cor 12:9). But we don't get to know someone if we do all the talking. Our prayer can include time to be quiet and listen to the Lord. We also listen to God by reading God's words in the Bible. Hopefully, we can all find ways of getting to know the Lord, so that God can "recognize" us as friends. Tom Schmidt, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

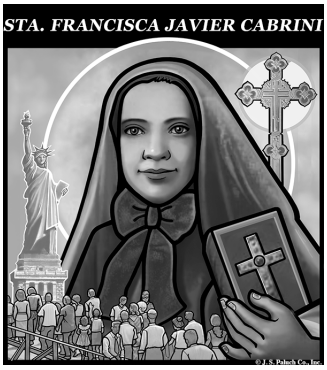
SANTA FRANCISCA JAVIER CABRINI (1850-1917)

13 DE NOVIEMBRE



Frances nació en el Norte de Italia en una familia de campo, donde había mucha fe. Su vocación misionera nació al escuchar las historias de los grandes misioneros que su padre le contaba. Aunque fue rechazada en algunas comunidades religiosas debido a su estado de salud, se graduó como maestra y se dedicó a la educación. Ahí, por pedido de un obispo, fundó un instituto para educar a las novicias, mismo que pasó a ser el Instituto de las Hermanas Misioneras del Sagrado Corazón. Una vez en la comunidad religiosa, asumió el nombre de Javier, pues admiraba mucho a san Francisco Javier y por pedido de Juan Bautista Scalabrini vino a los Estados Unidos a servir a los italianos, quienes experimentaban malos tratos, explotación y discriminación. Junto con seis hermanas llegó a Nueva York en 1898, para atender a emigrantes italianos en cuestiones de educación, salud, oficios y catequesis. En sólo 35 años fundó más de 70 instituciones para emigrantes hasta que murió en una de ellas, Columbus Hospital, en Chicago. Fue la primera ciudadana estadounidense en ser canonizada.
