FEASTS OF FAITH

The Psalms in the Liturgy

The book of Psalms is a prayer book, hymnal, and anthology of verse all rolled into one. It contains one hundred fifty ancient songs—poem-prayers that express the joys and sorrows of the Hebrew people and their longing for God. The psalms are incredibly varied in tone. Some are solemn anthems of praise that once accompanied processions of great multitudes to the temple; others record the lonely cries of a faithful soul who feels abandoned by God.

This ancient prayer book of the Hebrew people is our principal prayer book as well. The psalms are everywhere in the liturgy—in the antiphons and acclamations of the Mass, and most particularly in the responsorial psalm that follows the first reading. The psalm that is sung at Mass usually echoes the themes of the first reading, and sometimes even comments on it. On this Third Sunday of Lent, we listen to the Exodus account of the stubbornness of God's people in the desert, and then the psalm comes to remind us: "If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts" (Psalm 95:8). In their wonderful variety, the psalms teach us how to pray.

LA MESA DE LA PALABRA

De la mesa de la palabra vamos a la mesa eucarística. La Constitución sobre la Sagrada Liturgia tuvo eso en mente de forma muy clara al pedir que: "A fin de que la mesa de la palabra de Dios se prepare con más abundancia para los fieles ábranse con mayor amplitud los tesoros de la Biblia, de modo que, en un período determinado de años, se lean al pueblo las partes más significativas de la Sagrada Escritura". Fue de esta manera que no sólo se reorganizó un nuevo Leccionario para la Iglesia Católica, sino que se le dio una importancia aún mayor a la lectura de la Biblia, no sólo en el contexto de la liturgia, sino en toda la vida de la Iglesia. Esta reforma litúrgica hizo posible que la comunidad de creyentes conociera los evangelios de Mateo, los de Marcos, Lucas y Juan. En números claros, antes del Concilio Vaticano II sólo se proclamaba el 5% del Evangelio de Marcos y, del Antiguo Testamento, sólo se proclamaban 258 versículos, de los 25,044 versículos que lo componen, es decir, sólo el 1%. Un gran paso, sin duda.
