Protection of Unborn Children

RESPECT FOR LIFE PRAYER

O God,
our eyes behold the beauty of your creation, and our ears catch the sounds of your power.
We hold our lives sacred because they are your gift.
Bring us to greater awareness of the sanctity of human life and to sorrow for the times we have ignored or offended it.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Dear St. Mark Parishioners,

All Things New is bringing about excitement as well as concern. I encourage you to read Archbishop Rozanski's St. Louis Review column from Jan 12 <https://www.archstl.org/st-louis-review>.

He acknowledges the excitement of the unknown and new possibilities, but also the sadness and trepidation that we may feel at the possibility of change. He encourages us, regardless of what we're feeling, to be rooted in Christ. We consider other changes in our lives, such as graduation or moving to a new house or having a child, and how the feelings we experience must be rooted in Christ. In all things and at all times, we must have the utmost faith in Him, trusting that He will always be present among us in our joy and our fear to lead us to something greater.

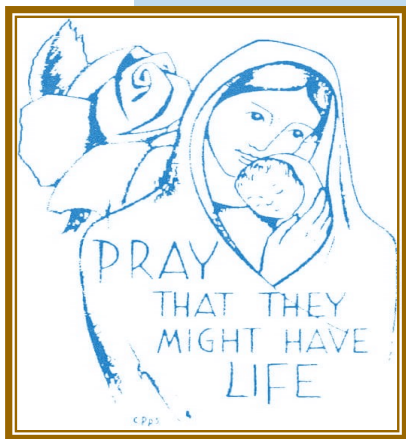

Please join us for a Pro-Life Holy Hour this Wednesday, Jan 25, from 6-7pm. We'll have exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, pray the Rosary together, and then have Benediction. Despite the victories the Pro-Life Movement has had in the past year, we must continue our efforts to protect human life at the most vulnerable stage. Please be sure to pick up the booklet "Why We are Pro-Life" in the vestibules to help us better understand why the Catholic Church works so hard to protect babies in the womb.

If you haven't already, be sure to pick up and read "20 Answers: The Eucharist," by Trent Horn. This book is available in the vestibules, and if we run out, we can get more. These answers can help us as we continue to revive our understanding and love of the Eucharist, which is the Source and Summit of our Faith.

We need additional help to bring communion to parishioners who are homebound. If anyone would like to help in this important ministry, please talk to me and I'll get you started.

God bless you and have a good week.

Fr. Hecktor

The power of intercessory prayer is miraculous. It is the presence of God embodied in the care and concern of our faith community.

To leave a request for prayer, or volunteer to pray for others, call Jean Malone at 314.544.3572.

CALLED TO COMMUNITY

Today's Gospel from Matthew sketches the initial movements of Jesus' public ministry. The arrest of John the Baptist signals that Jesus' time has come. His first actions include the call of his first disciples, and proclaiming the reign, or kingdom, of heaven. Jesus first gathers a community, which he can gradually form to become living evidence of this coming reign. His preaching, which begins just a few verses later in the Sermon on the Mount, is not just essential guidance for each individual life, but for life within a community of his followers.

It can be very challenging for most of us, who live in a highly individualized society, to hear this story of being summoned into community, committed to learning together and from each other. Our parishes and Christian communities need to be safe places so that we can open our hearts to each other, learning the Way of Jesus, and sharing this Way with others.
