THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

"This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever." - Jn 6:57-58

Dear St. Mark Parishioners,

Fr. Burkemper is already hard at work planning to lead a larger St. Mark Parish. He is aware of what the parish went through 20 years ago and repeatedly mentioned the word “compassion” in all that he will do to bring parishes together. While our church here at St. Mark will be the church of the parish with the majority of Masses and liturgies being here, Fr. Burkemper is working on a Mass schedule that will initially include one Sunday Mass at each of the other four churches as well. He, Fr. Schilli, and Fr. Boedeker are aware of the challenges they face, but they are very hopeful and looking forward to being at their new parish. Please pray for them and for ourselves as we face changes across the Archdiocese and go forward in hope for All Things New.

I will be on retreat this week at Conception Abbey. There will be no 8am Mass Monday June 12-Saturday June 17. Sorry for any inconvenience this may cause. Fr. Vitali will still have 6:30am Mass Monday-Friday. On Saturday, St. Martin of Tours has an 8am Mass and St. Simon has a 7am Mass. We will still have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on Tuesday June 13 from 9am-9pm. There will be no 8-9pm Confessions on Tuesday June 13.

As part of the Archdiocesan Missionary Plan of Cooperation, next weekend we will welcome a missionary speaker from the Daughters of Divine Love. Sr. Pamela Ekah will be with us at all the Masses to tell us about her Order and their ministry.

Thank you for giving so generously to the Annual Catholic Appeal, or for just returning your pledge cards if you are unable to give. The Appeal continues and you can still make your pledge using the envelopes sent to you by mail, or by going online to aca.archstl.org. As of June 2, we have surpassed our goal with a total pledged of $49,480! Now we strive for our challenge goal of $61,190. About 23% of the parish has participated so far, and we are striving for 30% participation. Thank you for helping those in need across the Archdiocese!

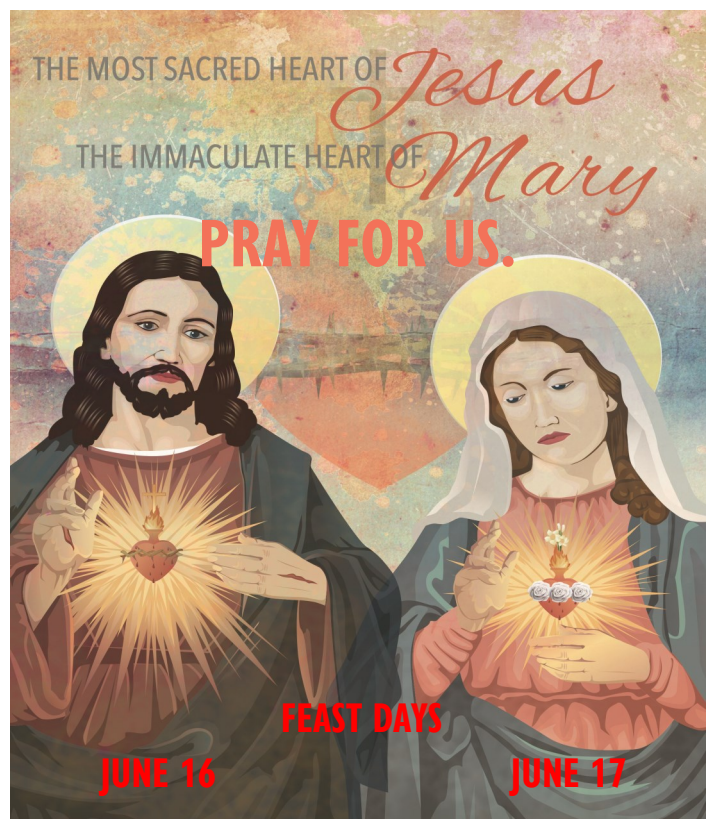

In the month of June, we are bombarded with messages and advertisements of “pride.” Especially during this time, out of authentic love and genuine concern for souls, we must know and be able to defend what the Church teaches on homosexuality and transgenderism. The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches, “Homosexual acts are intrinsically disordered. They are contrary to the natural law. They close the sexual act to the gift of life. They do not proceed from a genuine affective and sexual complementarity. Under no circumstances can they be approved (CCC 2357).” It also says, “[Men and women with homosexual tendencies] must be accepted with respect, compassion, and sensitivity. Every sign of unjust discrimination in their regard should be avoided. These persons are called to fulfill God’s will in their lives and, if they are Christians, to unite to the sacrifice of the Lord’s Cross the difficulties they may encounter from their condition (CCC 2357).” This means that while we are always called to be compassionate and kind toward all persons, we cannot support certain actions. Persons of homosexual orientation, as well as persons experiencing gender dysphoria, are called to chastity (which is not the same as celibacy) just as everyone else. Chastity is the use of our sexuality in a way that is in accord with nature (the end being unity and procreation) and does not abuse our sexuality.

There is a group called Courage International (www.couragerc.org) that seeks to support persons with same-sex attraction and help them live lives of chastity. Let us pray for anyone who struggles with this, and pray for ourselves as well, that we may always grow in virtue and live in accord with how God made us, and trust that great happiness will come from this.

I’ll be praying for you while on retreat this week.

God bless you.

Fr. Hecktor

The Archdiocese of St. Louis Respect Life Apostolate is co-sponsoring the national Pro-Life Women's Conference at the St. Charles Convention Center, June 23-25. The conference takes place during the one-year anniversary of the Dobbs v. Jackson decision which overturned legalized abortion in Missouri and other states.

Educating, affirming, empowering, and activating women to build a Culture of Life in their community and beyond, the conference features inspiring presentations by some of the most well-known women leaders in the country. They include pro-life author and advocate Abby Johnson, Lauren Muzyka (Sidewalk Advocates for Life), Angela Minter (Sisters for Life, Inc.), and more.

The conference also offers opportunities for prayer, fellowship, and friendship for women by women in the pro-life movement that promises to be unrivaled and unforgettable. On Saturday of the conference, Most Rev. Mark S. Rivituso, Auxiliary Bishop of St. Louis, will celebrate Holy Mass and priests of the Archdiocese will be available for the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

FAITH IN ACTION

Next weekend (June 17 and 18), please warmly welcome SR. PAMELA EKAH, from the DAUGHTERS OF DIVINE LOVE, who will be with us at all the Masses to tell us about her Order and their ministry.

The Daughters of Divine Love Congregation is an international Order of Religious Women, founded in Nigeria in July 1969 by Late Bishop Godfrey Mary Paul Okoye, C.S.Sp. The congregation is of Pontifical Right and has over 900 professed members. Our Formation house is blessed with many vocations: Aspirants, Postulants and Novices.

The Sisters are engaged in variety of apostolate in different parts of the world, including United States of America, Cuba, Jamaica, Haiti, Germany, England, Italy, Switzerland, Australia, France, Belgium, Nigeria, Chad, Gabon, Cameroon, Mali and Kenya. We minister in all walks of life where manifestation of God's love is needed.

Our apostolates include:

- Working among the very poor of our society: the rejected, the homeless, challenged children and adults in homes and in the streets, homes for battered women and children, babies affected by drugs.
- School work: as Principals, Teachers, Teacher-aids, Counselors and Caretakers.
- Hospital work: as Doctors, Nurses, Administrators, Pharmacists, Chaplains and Caring services.
- Parish Apostolate: Pastor-assistants, Director of Religious Education, Eucharistic ministers, CCD and RCIA teachers.
- Youth ministries in parishes and schools.

Other programs:

- Building Houses for the homeless
- Providing food and clothes,
- Portable drinking water,
- Generators for electricity and
- Hospital equipment

Our source of income is very limited to stipends, donations and appeal fund. We really need your help in order to continue these apostolates, especially in Cuba, Jamaica, Haiti and African countries. We also need funds to enable us: Maintain and train the novices and postulants in our formation houses in preparation for active apostolate.

- To embark on a self-help farm project for the novices, to enable them to produce some of the food they need and for the poor around them.
- Give adequate training and education to our sisters to prepare them for these apostolates.
- We do great works in different places but it wouldn't be possible without help from God's people around us. Their generous gifts enable us to continue sowing the seed of Divine Love all over the world, among all God's children.
- Be assured of our prayers for you, your ministry and all your loved ones.

For more Information please visit our Website: ddldev.org or our Facebook page: Daughters of Divine Love Development Ministry.

ALL THINGS NEW

STEADFAST IN FAITH • FORWARD IN HOPE

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In our worship this weekend we celebrate the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the early Church, the Spirit which strengthened the Apostles to give bold and courageous witness to the Lord Jesus after the resurrection. The Acts of the Apostles tells us that the Spirit prompted them to live in a conspicuously different way from the prevailing culture of the Roman Empire. So compelling was their witness – especially through their charitable love for the widow, the orphan, and all whom society ignored – that thousands at a time chose to be baptized and to live the way that Jesus had taught.

This same Spirit, whose outpouring we celebrate this weekend, was breathed into us on the day of our Baptism and sealed in us on the day we were Confirmed. St. Paul tells us that this Spirit of God is no cowardly spirit but One who makes us strong, loving, and wise.

I invite all of us this Pentecost to reach deeply into our souls where that same Spirit dwells and to allow the fruits of the Spirit – particularly peace, patience, gentleness, faithfulness, and love – to fill our minds and our hearts as we embrace a time of transition together in the implementation of All Things New. Each of us, and I in particular, am mindful that this transition which we embrace together will be more difficult for some of our brothers and sisters than it may be for others. Please, let us lift one another up in prayer asking the Spirit to draw from His storehouse of manifold gifts what each of us needs at this moment in the life of our family of faith here in our archdiocese.

Having received, studied, and prayed over all the input and feedback that has been submitted by pastors, by key parish leaders, by you yourselves, and by our archdiocesan Presbyteral Council, I have discerned the following decisions regarding the future footprint of the Archdiocese of St. Louis:

- Moving forward, the Archdiocese of St. Louis will be reshaped from 178 individual parishes into 134 parishes. These parishes will be overseen by close to 90 diocesan pastors and 17 religious order pastors. These modifications include the merging of 35 parishes that will be subsumed into neighboring parishes and 15 parishes being merged to create 5 new parishes. There will also be a new personal parish for the Spanish-speaking community in St. Charles County.
- Even in parishes where there is no change to the pastor or parish structure, all of our communities are asked to re-evaluate their current pastoral care, social outreach and evangelization efforts to see if they can be streamlined, refined or re-invented. Our new Vicariate structure will support this.
- Over the next several months our priests will be discerning with their people what the best use of our facilities should be to provide the Sacraments and necessary pastoral care to all who live in their boundaries and begin to reimagine what a vibrant, evangelizing parish ought to look like.
- Implementation of these plans will begin in summer/fall of 2023 and may continue through 2026. The newly formed Office of Parish Mission and Vitality will also begin developing new plans for evangelization and social outreach to build upon the strength of our new archdiocesan footprint.

Details can be found at allthingsnew.archstl.org. Anyone who is a parishioner and who considers themselves to be aggrieved by my decision has the right to appeal my decision to me in writing concerning the way that their parish is being altered. Per Canon law, the request must be made in writing, postmarked no later than June 12, 2023, and addressed to the Archbishop at 20 Archbishop May Dr, St. Louis, MO 63119. We cannot accept emails or phone calls as a request for appeal.

May the Holy Spirit embolden each of us to follow the example of the early Church and do our very best to go, make disciples of all nations and to reach out in loving service to those around us in need. May the Spirit make our efforts bear much fruit!

Sincerely in Christ,
Most Reverend Mitchell T. Rozanski
Archbishop of St. Louis
