PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE

A Blessed God's Day!

This greeting may sound odd to you, but today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity — the feast which reminds us of the awesome mystery of God's complete self-revelation.

How often in daily life do we slip into a pattern of speech and action that betrays a shelving of our faith in God?

This festival calls for our reflection on the great way we have come to know, by God's self-gift, the supernatural communion of persons, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit who is God, that we are to mirror in our interactions with one another.

A Blessed Fathers' Day!

This too, is a distinctive salutation for today's national observance of Father's Day-- perhaps a chance to recall annually the dignity of the many forms of paternity (natural, adoptive, or spiritual) embodied in the natural communion of life in the human family.

The Almighty Father sacrificially gifts the world with his loving Son and life-giving Spirit offering us a share in the wondrous, love which is shared among the Divine Three-In-One.

Today our prayers reflect a linkage between the Mystery of God which inspires a deeper sense of selfless love that is the center of the Mystery of Sacramental Marriage.

Let us all make our heartfelt prayers of praise and thanks to the Most Holy Trinity, One God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

May we also intercede for all our own Fathers, living or deceased, that they may more and more understand the Divine Love enveloping them in their noble vocation!

CATHOLIC YOUNG ADULTS

Matthew 5:13-16

We are a community of young adults who are passionate for the friendship with Jesus and, in Him, with each other.

We live by His instruction to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world (Matthew 5:13-16) – salt, in that our lives are flavored by the Gospel, and light, in that we are called to offer to all people the Christian witness of warmth of charity and the radiance of truth.

If you are a young adult in your 20's or 30's, you belong!

No matter where you find yourself in your journey of faith, come to grow in friendship with people earnestly seeking to live the Gospel as faithful disciples of Jesus Christ.

I, along with my brother priests, would love to accompany you on your journey to greater holiness and peace.

Stay close to Jesus today!
