Gospel Reflection

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time — July 31st

Luke 12:13-21

- ♥ As so often happens, Jesus tells a parable because someone has asked him a question. A man wants him to settle a squabble about an inheritance, but Jesus will have no part of it.

Concern about money prevents people from focusing on the reign of God. The parable of the rich farmer shows how foolish it is to keep piling up possessions. Right when the greedy man is gorging himself on food and drink, he dies. Death prevents any chance of reform.

- ♥ How important is making money? Jesus knows that we all need enough to live on. Each person's need will be a little bit different. Each family's needs will be a little bit different. But Jesus warns here against piling up money and ignoring what really makes us rich...love of God and love of others.

Kid's Mass Kit Bags

Help us find the missing bags!

We are down to 5 bags remaining. That means 7 bags have left church and not returned. Please check your cars and homes and see if one has accidentally gone home with you.

We would love to have these bags to offer our young children to keep them occupied during Mass. If you are willing to help us create more please contact Vicki Ford at 503-774-1428x123.

OUTREACH & SOCIAL JUSTICE

This was the first true Christmas in July experience I had. The past couple of years I donated blood, and although it is giving yourself (quite literally), there wasn't the direct contact with the recipient that I was looking for. I too often take the shy, indirect road when giving, which is based both on modesty but also on fear.

This year, I volunteered to serve at the Blanchet House because no one had signed up yet for the particular time slot. Even though I was the only one signed up and was nervous about being in a group of all "strangers", I did it anyway. It was awesome.

I knew so little about what actually went on at the Blanchet House. I was shocked at the organization of the process and impressed by the facilities. I was stationed to plate food, and therefore did not have contact with the homeless being served but getting to know the men that live and work at the house was just as important. The Blanchet House serves recovering addicts, and those people feed the homeless as an exchange for room and board.

I also had a chance to chat with some young people from our parish. It was enlightening to hear their experiences and perceptions of serving the needy.

I, too often, get caught up in the "busy-ness" of my life, and think I couldn't possibly fit one more thing in. But, God shows me over and over that when I feel like I have the least, that is when I need to give. It is a beautiful mystery of Grace - giving what you don't think you can spare yields a replenishment beyond quantification.

Lastly, I want to say that one of the best things about Christmas in July is its organization - Holy Family parishioners get to take advantage of a calendar of events that is already scheduled!! I can't recommend participation enough. It's easy and fun, but most of all it is spiritually enriching. Do yourself a favor, and plan to participate!

Katie DeNooyer

Our family always enjoys our service time at The Oregon Food Bank. It is something that we can all do together and allows us to see, in a measurable way, how we are helping others. During this visit, we were given the job of sorting and bagging onions and cherries. We got to see the generosity of farmers in providing food for the poor, and also have a new appreciation for the "pretty" produce we are fortunate enough to be able to enjoy from the grocery store! We highly recommend this as a family service opportunity!

Richelle Olson

It is always great fun to team up with fellow parishioners, Fr. Rodel & Bert to do a 1/2 day of yard work to beautify our church and school grounds. Beautification, fellowship, good workout, fun and laughs.... Who can go wrong with that?

Gene Dieringer

This year our family was able to participate in several "Christmas in July" opportunities. I was glad we made the time to do so. I know our family is fortunate to have the basics that so many other families are not able to have.

It's very important to Jeff and I that our kids know this is not true for everyone. Lily and I volunteered at St. Francis Dining Hall. Lily is an animal lover and one of the gentleman asked us if we wanted to meet his dog, Bebe. We went outside and met Bebe, and it certainly made me feel better knowing he had Bebe as his companion. He has had her since she was 2, and Bebe is now 12, and the bond between them was evident.

After the experience, Lily and my Mom said they were going to commit to volunteering at St. Francis once a month, and join up with my Dad who has been volunteering there for a few months.

I believe if we all could carve out a small amount of time to help those in need, it would benefit both the volunteer and the person in need. Giving of ourselves really is the best gift, and it inevitably always seems to come back to us.

Carolyn Scherler

My family and I always appreciate having the opportunity to volunteer during the Christmas in July events. Having the opportunities available for ready sign-up makes it so easy to volunteer and our kids are always happy to get into the spirit of service. Madalena and I went to the Oregon Food Bank and helped to sort and bag onions. That was a daunting task! Giant crates filled with onions disappeared within two hours because there were numerous volunteers helping that day, including ten from Holy Family. We also signed up to help out with our own St. Vincent de Paul in stocking one day, and it is always nice to work with the volunteers who so faithfully keep our food pantry going! Summer is such a great time to be in the spirit of giving, and we're so thankful for Vicki and Desi's work in making all these opportunities available to us.
