COME JOIN OUR BIBLE

Discussion

Bible discussion sessions will reconvene on Friday, Sept 9, at 9:00am in the Parish Center Conference Room.

Our first topic will be the "Letters from Prison" - from St Paul, which will run 10 weeks. I will be ordering the study materials on Aug 22, so need to know if you plan on attending. You can e-mail Dave Bergman at (zebrabeav@yahoo.com) or call me (503 784-3272) to let me know your plans. The price for the study set is $15, and can be paid once we meet.

The focus of Bible Discussion is to involve adult parishioners in learning about the scriptural basis of our faith. We have weekly sessions in which we discuss a given biblical topic using study materials for New as well as Old Testament, or occasionally a current author or teacher.

Our meetings are casual, with personal sharing encouraged. Each participant's background is different, so discussion is lively and often leads to new perspectives about our faith. All parishioners are welcome to join us, and no long term commitment is needed or expected.

GROWING IN FAITH

RCIA: Journey of Faith An invitation to join the Church Please "Come and See"

September will bring the beginning of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) program, which culminates with the sacraments of initiation at the Easter Vigil.

Every year the Catholic Church welcomes thousands of new members through this journey known as RCIA. The letters stand for Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, and through the RCIA, interested men, women and children come to know the presence of God in their lives.

The RCIA process allows us as a parish community to welcome new "family members" into our community. During the weeks of instruction and preparation that are part of the RCIA journey, the parish family supports their entry into the Church, prays for them, and helps them understand Catholic prayer, worship, beliefs and activities.

- ♦ If you have never been baptized
- ♦ If you've been baptized in another Christian faith
- ♦ Or, perhaps you have been baptized in the Catholic faith but have never received the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation.

PLEASE CONSIDER THIS INVITATION.

If you feel this invitation may be intended for you (or you know someone), ask us about how to respond .

Call Vicki Ford at 503-774-1428 x. 123 or email vicki451@comcast.net or more information OR talk to Father Rodel, Cam Hanemann, or Winnie Smidt.

Our RCIA team will host an informational session at 7:00 p.m. on Wed., September 28, at the Parish Office. Anyone interested can also call the parish office for more information.

Life is filled with invitations! Sometimes these can lead us to totally unexpected experiences. So we offer you this invitation that might lead you to a life of peace, faith and hope!

Please Pray for...

The benefits to the mother of immediate breastfeeding are innumerable, not the least of which after the weariness of labor and birth is the emotional gratification, the feeling of strength, the composure, and the sense of fulfillment that comes with the handling and suckling of the baby.

Gospel Reflection

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time — August 21st

Luke 13:22-30

In this gospel passage from Luke, Jesus is asked – 'will only a few people be saved'? Jewish people assumed they were the 'few' and sinners, unclean people, unbelievers were the 'many' who would not be saved. Jesus does not answer the question but gives an image – a crowd is trying to get into a house but all must go through a narrow 'door'. There will come a time when the door will be closed and people left outside.

- ♥ Jewish people understood they had a special status of 'chosen' by God. They presumed this also meant they had a special entry permit 'through the door'. 'We ate and drank with you, you taught us!' They are absolutely surprised with the possibility that other people, 'sinners', could get into heaven before them. 'But I have listened to the Gospel stories on Sunday and have shared in the Eucharist' could be a modern Catholic response. It is not enough to 'be there' on Sunday, we are called to 'do something' on Monday... to be a 'sign' of God's forgiveness, welcome, shaping the world into becoming one family.
- ♥ It is one thing you can do this week to be the Living Word of God?
