The Mission of Holy Family Catholic Parish is to be a welcoming faith community grounded in Gospel values and dedicated to making God known to our members and all who enter our doors. We foster positive relationships with God and one another through active participation in the ministries of worship, education, celebration, and service to all.

From the Pastor's Desk

We have invited you to watch the program "Who am I to Judge?" series for our Faith Formation as a community. It is an eight-session series that shows us a way of how to respond to the widespread relativism happening in our society today. We live in a society that supports the opinion that each person should make up his or her own morality—that there is no moral truth that applies to everyone. Maybe some of us wonder whether there really is an absolute right and wrong for everyone. Or maybe we accept that there is a moral standard for all, but we don't know how to explain our moral convictions in a convincing way. Maybe some of us are afraid of saying something is immoral because we're afraid of offending others or of being labeled intolerant. How do we talk about morality in a relativistic world?" These questions are what the series are going to answer for us.

Session 1 is entitled: "Don't Impose Your Morality On Me!" In this session, it defined relativism as a philosophy that there is no truth, that each person determines his/her personal truth. To respond to this worldview, we cannot only use logical arguments but we must answer it with both love and logic. Morality is not limited to "moral moments" in our lives where we ask: "Is this right or wrong?" It is about who we want to become and how do we get there. Imagine that it's your funeral. What would you want your friends and family say about you? For most people, we would like people to say something about our relationships (he was a great father, she was an amazing friend) or say something about our good qualities or virtues (he was very generous, she is hardworking). This tells us that our moral life is geared towards an ultimate purpose or end.

As such, our moral choices should be guided by who we would like to be, that is, achieving that end or purpose in our life.

This series is found in our FORMED platform and you can watch it there. If you haven't registered yet, I encourage you to do so. It is free and it contains a lot of spiritual resources for us to grow in our faith. More information is in the bulletin.

*Thanks,
Fr. Rodel*

Did you know that this year marks the 70th anniversary of Holy Family Catholic School? All year the school will be celebrating its proud history. On Tuesday, September 18th, students gathered on the field in the shape of the number 70 for an all-school photo. This continues the school's tradition of gathering for an all-school photo to mark each decade since the school's opening. If you know of stories, significant events, or have memories you'd liked published and remembered, please share them with vice principal, Mr. Matt Gregor, via email at: matt.gregor@holyfamilyportland.org

Request a Bequest

In estate planning, we consider our family's needs first. One way to ensure their security and to create a legacy at Holy Family Parish is to consider gifting a percentage of your estate or of an asset. This way, your gifts are proportional to loved ones and to institutions you cherish, like Holy Family. Your bequest can make a big impact.

Gospel Reflection

The 25th Sunday of Ordinary Time
September 23rd—Mark 9:30-37

Mark paints a vivid picture in today's Gospel. Having arrived at Capernaum, Jesus and his disciples enter a house. In this private place, Jesus asks his disciples about the argument they had while they were journeying. Again, the disciples are uncharacteristically silent and afraid to answer. They have been found out. Jesus then summons the Twelve, whom Mark identified earlier in his Gospel as those chosen by Jesus to preach and to drive out demons. To this select group of disciples, Jesus teaches that those who would be first in God's kingdom must be servants of all.

Conversations such as the one described in today's Gospel are common in family life. Perhaps these examples are familiar: "I should get the first piece of cake because I am the youngest;" "I did the dishes yesterday; someone else should do them today." How might we respond if Jesus asked about our family arguments? What would Jesus say to us in reply? All of us need the reminder found in today's Gospel: To be great in God's Kingdom is to be the servant of all.
