GOSPEL REFLECTION

Jn 13:31-33a, 34-35

The essence of God is love and God cannot but transmit love. This farewell address by Jesus instructs us to love one another. We are asked to transmit this love to others, because we have been gifted with a relationship with him. By showing love we are revealing God to the world.

This love is not a sentimental feeling. We witness to this love by who we are, what we do with our lives and how we treat others.

I am invited to reflect and to open my heart to see how I am relating to those around me, with myself and with God?

whatever may come.

And let us consider how we may spur one another meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

We would like to extend our deepest gratitude to longtime Holy Family parishioner

Miki Van Houten

After many years of tireless work coordinating our Red Cross blood drives, Miki is stepping down. We can't begin to express our thanks but Miki, you have been absolutely paramount and inspiring in your continuous awareness of the critical need for blood donors. It is overwhelming to think of the countless hours you have put into coordinating blood drives for the many dedicated blood donors in our community. We know it has not always been easy but we hope you have always felt appreciated for your hard work. You have literally saved countless lives.

“We have all done amazing work in the last 7.5 years. According to the Red Cross we have collected 1,899 units of blood and helped nearly 5,700 patients locally and across the United States. It has been a very rewarding experience for me. How many things can one do that directly affects almost 5,700 people? Good bless you all!”

-Miki Van Houten

We would like to thank Janice Houge for stepping in to help Miki in the last couple of blood drives and for taking the baton moving forward as coordinator of our Red Cross blood drives at Reedwood Friends. We would also like to thank Rebecca Brandt for adding to her numerous volunteer jobs by being the Holy Family representative who will be facilitating scheduling receptionists and placing announcements.

We are grateful for you both!

THANK YOU

HOLY FAMILY COMMUNITY NEWS

FROM THE DESK OF

—————→ Principal Galati ←————

I didn't write last week, so I haven't had the chance to thank the wonderful team who made our Lights! Camera! Auction! So successful. If you didn't have the chance to attend, you really missed out. The room was elegant, the auction items were exciting, and the company was excellent! I had so much fun—

I can't wait until our next big event!

Due to the efforts of Eden Goffredi, Liz Richard, Monika Tuckness, Stephanie Galati, Mary Burtram, Jaimee Hoesly, Bethzaida Yarbrough, Christine Pechette, Janet Pfeifer, Natalie Cahill, Manda Blum and the entire Holy Family Staff—those of us in attendance enjoyed an evening we will along remember AND we raised over $100,000 for our school and our children. I am so grateful for all of their hard work—much of the money they helped raise will go a long way towards opening our school doors to families who may need assistance, restocking our STEM and Art spaces, and further developing our already renowned Special Education program.

If you didn't have a chance to spend the evening with us, I hope you consider joining next year—
I'll be there with bells on!

On another note, this past Monday and Tuesday, our 8th grade class presented their Capstone Projects (formerly ILP Projects). These cumulative projects allowed our students an opportunity to select a topic of their choosing, research it, and present it to their peers, family and Holy Family staff and teachers. Sitting in the Church, I could not be more proud. Their voices were strong, their slides were beautiful, and their topics were powerful. From starting a bakery to general contracting, first aid and CPR to brand marketing—our students truly shone. A huge THANK YOU goes out to Mrs. Dickinson for all of her hard work on these projects. In addition, we would like to thank the other teacher advisors: Mr. Cornell, Mrs. Tuckness, Ms. Manelli, and Mrs. Richard—our students are lucky to have you!
