Shine a Star Campaign Update

Dear Holy Family,

Through your generosity last Christmas, we are continuing to take care of the deferred maintenance of our campus and make sure that our spiritual home is taken care of. I am happy to report to you the update of our Shine a Star Campaign. We have received around $60k in total from our generous donors to resolve the following items:

Cry Room speaker system – we have resolved this issue with minimal expense.

Parking Lot striping – instead of just striping the parking lot, we have partnered with the school to expand this project to repair any damaged areas and sealcoat both the church and school parking lots including the play area. We have availed ourselves of the Archdiocesan Safety-First Grant and we have been approved for it. The parish and school will be paying 50% of the 20k worth project. We have chosen a contractor and their bid has been approved. We are looking to do this project this summer.

Church Lights LED transition and retrofit – in our desire to save and be good stewards of your donations, we have availed ourselves of a program offered by Oregon Energy Trust which will retrofit some of our lighting for free. We are working on bids for retrofitting and repairing the remaining lights. The cost estimate will be $10K or lower. This project will be completed this summer.

Refreshing the Church Entrance/Exit and Eave Repairs – This project turned out to be much larger than anticipated. While investigating what was necessary to make repairs to the water damaged eaves, it came to light that the roof was on its last legs. It is time and is now necessary that the roof to be replaced before any sheetrock repairs & painting are completed. Thanks to the savings that we have from the above-mentioned projects, we have some funds to cover the cost of reroofing the church. The bid currently for the church reroofing is 60K and we are currently looking for funds to fill in the remaining balance of this project. We are planning to have this project done this summer. If you would like to help offset the additional cost of the remaining balance for the roof, please let me or the office know. Thank you.

Here is the breakdown for funding the projects (rounded numbers)

Cry Room:	$1,000
Parking Lot:(parish share for the project)	$2,000
Church Lighting LED Retrofit: (estimate)	$10,000
Total Anticipated Exp to Date:	$13,000
Total Funds Received:	$60,000
Remaining Funds Available for Roof & Exterior Repairs:	$47,000
Estimated Cost for New Roof & Exterior Repairs:	$69,000
Total Project Funds Deficiency:	$22,000

I would like to thank you all for your generosity to our Holy Family. Without your support, we cannot take care of these needs in our church. We do our best to be good stewards of your donations, without compromising the quality of the work and to maximize the results of your donations. By the end of the summer, we can enjoy and appreciate these completed projects. All this would not be possible without the help of our Maintenance Group. I would like to thank them for helping us with their time, effort, and expertise to respond to these needs: Adam Hoesly, Gene Dieringer, Joe Danna, Mike Dominguez, Bruce Wright, Heidi Guite, Sean Lynch, and Joe Galati. Thank you.

Blessings,
Fr. Rodel

Building on the Cornerstone

Before I married my husband, I assumed there were “ugly houses” and “pretty houses,” and that was that. But Matt is an architect, someone who reads books with titles like “A Field Guide to American Houses” for fun and who uses the term vernacular architecture like he knows what it means.

Through him, I’ve come to learn a lot about why certain structures simply don’t have a pleasing look. There is a logic to ugliness, as it turns out. One of the main reasons a building or a home might strike some of us as ugly is because it has undergone a careless renovation. Whether out of laziness or an effort to be cost-effective, additions are made that depart from the architectural style of the original structure. The result is slapdash, confusing — ugly, for lack of a better word.

What is added on later must somewhat resemble the original. If you want to depart dramatically from the original style of a building, it’s better to build a separate structure altogether.

I think of this principle when I consider Christ as the “cornerstone.” We know we are called to model ourselves on Christ, to build on his example. But so often we cherry-pick elements of his message and attempt to build on it with additions that make no sense.

When someone looks at us, at our lives, they should be able to tell after whom that life is patterned. We must resemble the cornerstone, if we do not, it will be apparent, unseemly. You can’t see God the Father without embracing God the Son. You can’t chart the future of a house without any thought for its past.

If Christ is not our inspiration, he will be our contradiction.

“...like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house...to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.” — 1 Peter 2:5

Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Are Catholics obligated to attend Mass each Sunday, or receive Communion each Sunday?

Answer:

The questions about Mass attendance and the reception of Holy Communion are clearly outlined in what are traditionally called the “Precepts” of the Church. These specific teachings are intended to stand alongside the Ten Commandments as fundamental practices for Catholics and are outlined in the Code of Canon Law. The obligations related to Mass attendance and receiving Communion are outlined in the first and third precepts, which we find quoted in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (no. 2042):

The first precept (“You shall attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation and rest from servile labor”) requires the faithful to sanctify the day commemorating the Resurrection of the Lord as well as the principal liturgical feasts honoring the mysteries of the Lord, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the saints; in the first place, by participating in the Eucharistic celebration, in which the Christian community is gathered, and by resting from those works and activities which could impede such a sanctification of these days.

The third precept (“You shall receive the sacrament of the Eucharist at least during the Easter season”) guarantees as a minimum the reception of the Lord’s Body and Blood in connection with the Paschal feasts, the origin and center of the Christian liturgy.

Rather than seeing these as obligations that are simply to be fulfilled out of a sense of duty, Pope Saint John Paul II reminds us of the grace that is made available to us when we gather for Sunday celebrations of the Eucharist: “Sunday is the day which is at the very heart of the Christian life... Time given to Christ is never time lost, but is rather time gained, so that our relationships and indeed our whole life may become more profoundly human” (Dies Domini, no. 7).

THE GREAT MISSOULA FLOODS

By Bob Setterberg of the Oregon Historical Society

Tuesday, May 23rd, 2pm
In the Parish Office Conference Room

About 15,000 years ago, huge floods broke from gigantic ice dams in Montana and raced to the Pacific Ocean with flow rates ten times greater than all of the rivers of the world today. Come learn about these powerful floods and the way they shaped the landscape in much of the Pacific Northwest including the Columbia River Gorge and the Willamette Valley. Bob Setterberg is part of the Community Speakers Bureau, a group of dedicated volunteers from the Oregon Historical Society that give presentations about the history of Oregon. Their talks are interactive, educational and always completely free!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEP- ER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

If you had to summarize the essential core of the Christian life, what would it be? Mercy, truth, or love, perhaps? The readings today suggest another word which may surprise you. That word is priesthood.

St. Peter says to us, "You are a 'chosen race, a royal priesthood...'" To be part of a priesthood is to offer a particular sacrifice in order for the community to survive and thrive. Jesus is the great high priest because he offers the one perfect sacrifice which heals and perfects the entire human race. Peter the Apostle wants us to know that all the baptized share in this priestly ministry. The whole of our lives, including every detail, is meant to become our acceptable offering to God.

The baptized exercise this priesthood in many ways, I'll mention three. At Sunday Mass, in private prayer, and in daily work. At Mass, we offer the sacrifice of our lives with that of the priest, who symbolizes Christ the Priest. In our prayer, a "morning offering" prayer is a great way to offer up all the joys and sufferings of the day to come. In our daily work, we sacrifice our time, comfort, money, and energy to do good for others. All this gives the deepest possible meaning to our lives: we share in the priesthood which saves the world. That's at the core of our faith.
