(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

What Remains

When my grandfather died, my parents, siblings, and I were left with the question: what's to become of the house?

Anyone who has inherited property knows that it's not simply a matter of assuming ownership of a plot of land upon which sits four walls and a roof. Those four walls and a roof usually contain memories and objects — an enormous volume of both, in the case of my grandfather. When they're left to you, you have to sift through them, the memories and the objects, and with each one you have to think: Is it worth it? Do I keep it? Will I need it?

And slowly, painfully, you disassemble the physical existence of the person who lived here. You accept, with a pang, that most of it must be given away or discarded. You cry when you bag up the clothes to take to Goodwill. You can't even bear to look when they break the piano into a hundred pieces and throw it in a dumpster, realizing that no one wants or has a use for something that was once so precious.

But when you come upon a rosary that was used so many times it has begun to fall apart, you don't even think twice before keeping it, and not because you need the rosary. You need what it means. You need what it reminds you of.

When all is said and done, each of us will be called before our master to settle accounts, just as my grandfather was.

"Where are the gifts I gave you? What remains of the fortune to which I entrusted you?" he will ask us. "What have you done with the peace? What have you done with the love? What have you done with the mercy?"

*"You yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night."
1 Thessalonians 5:2*

Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

If it isn't only for people who are dying, when should someone receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick?

Answer:

One of the unfortunate realities in the Church today is that so few people understand the meaning and value of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, largely because so many people still mistakenly think of this sacrament as "Last Rites" or "Extreme Unction."

In his life and ministry, Jesus healed the sick. In this sacrament, the Church continues the healing mission of Jesus and, in hope, prays that God will grant healing to the person who is suffering. But even if there is no physical healing, the sacrament offers spiritual healing through the Holy Spirit's gifts of peace and courage. And so, anyone who is living with serious illness (including emotional or psychological illness) and the elderly are encouraged to celebrate this sacrament when it is needed.

The ritual for Anointing of the Sick does also include special prayers and blessings for those who are facing death, including viaticum (communion given to the dying, trusting that the Lord Jesus will be their companion along the way, as they make their final journey).

CATHOLIC TRIVIA – JUST FOR FUN

Question: Of the apostles, who was the first to be martyred?

A time of *Presents or Presence?
An invitation to be intentional this Advent season!
Facilitated by Val Hornburg

You are invited to spend a prayer-filled Saturday morning getting ready for Advent using a creative and no-fail** process of collaging to deepen your experience of listening to your heart and soul.

During this 2-hour retreat we will explore the notion of
- are you focused on finding presents at this time or
- can you bring YOUR PRESENCE to this sacred and holy season?
- How will you ready yourself for the birth of Christ in our world?

We will create sacred and personal prayer cards to assist and ground us this Advent season.

**No experience is necessary. All materials are provided.

Val Hornburg is a Spiritual Director and Retreat Facilitator who companions people on their journeys. She specializes in bringing the expressive arts to all that she shares with others. She is a trained SoulCollage® Facilitator and Labyrinth Facilitator. She lives in Portland, OR with her husband Bill Zuelke.

Tuesday, November 21st

"Sacraments"

We feel confident that we can proceed on the priorities highlighted during the masterplanning process. We will focus on three major project areas:

- Constructing a new Parish Center and offices located at the west of the church on our vacant field. This will increase accessibility and will add valuable, modern meeting spaces.
- Significantly upgrading the HVAC system in the school to provide the best possible learning environment for our students and teachers.
- Continuing to address important ADA access in our facilities. The new parish center will be ground level and offer unimpeded access unlike our current, older center. In addition, a wheelchair ramp will be added for better access from Celebration Hall into the ground floor of our school and its bathrooms. As the success of our Capital Campaign unfolds, we will add an elevator to our school.

vator to our school.

We pray and hope this vision brings joy to your heart as we plan for our parish future. All of us are key stakeholders to achieve these plans. We look forward to sharing more about our fundraising goals to begin this work in 2024.

Save the Date! ADVENT FESTIVAL

Come join us in making an Advent wreath, activities for the kids, fellowship, food, vendors, and everything you need to kick off your best Advent Season ever!

After all Masses December 2nd and 3rd

Save the Date! Living Nativity

Sunday, December 17th 5-7pm

Our traditional Living Nativity is a great way to celebrate and remember the reason for the season. CHRIST HIMSELF! Keep an eye out for the sign-ups... we're looking for child actors, adult scene volunteers, teen guides, and more!

'Tis nearly the Season.... CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE!

During the season of Advent, it's a great time to think of how you can help families who are in need. As Saint Mother Teresa said, "do small things with great love." This is a way to show love to our brothers and sisters during the holidays.

Look for our Christmas Giving Tree in the back of church or for the QR code in the bulletin and on the website starting next weekend.
