CATHOLIC CHURCH

The Second Sunday in Ordinary Time—January 14, 2024

2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi"—which translated means Teacher—"where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come, and you will see." - Jn 1:38-39a

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

HONORING OUR PAST HOLY FAMILY PARISH BUILDING OUR FUTURE

It is our Capital Campaign Announcement Weekend!

Please pray for the success of our "Honoring Our Past, Building Our Future" campaign efforts. This is the weekend we will ask our Holy Family for help. How can you "lend a hand" and get involved? "Do your part" and make the best gift you possibly can toward this essential effort, so that our church can continue its mission and be the best it can possibly be to those who are our members and those outside of our church community.

Please pray and discern how you can be a part of this great endeavor, then fill out a Volunteer Interest Card!

Holy Family BAKE OFF CHAMPIONSHIP

Do you love to bake? To honor our Capital Campaign Kickoff Weekend, we are hosting a friendly little Bake Off Championship. Bake up some sweet or savory deliciousness to be judged the weekend of January 20-21

Entries should include bite size samples for parishioners and judges to taste ~ approximately 50 1"x1" samples per entry.

Entries can be submitted after the 5:30pm Mass on Saturday, Jan 20th or before the 9:30am Mass Sunday, Jan 21st.

Prizes include People's Choice (with additional tickets available for purchase at $1 each) and Gold, Silver, and Bronze awards of gift cards to Sur la Table and Crate & Barrel

Those Who Seek the Truth

In my work as a freelance writer, I have a regular column in the archdiocesan paper writing profiles of ordinary people in the local church. Laity, religious, and clergy alike — I hound them all to give me an interview, and when I do, the answer is almost always this: “You don’t want to talk to me. There’s nothing special about me.”

I always try to convince them that there is something remarkable about everyone who is searching for the truth. It is easy to think we are not made for holiness because we are ordinary people with ordinary habits, ordinary abilities, and ordinary sins. It is easy (and very convenient) to designate holiness as something belonging to Better People. People like the saints. People like the Disciples.

The Bible gives us next to no personal information about the disciples. There is no archdiocesan newspaper profile on Andrew and Simon that can give us insight into who they were before they became St. Andrew, Inaugural Disciple and Announcer of the Messiah, and St. Peter, First Pope and the Rock-Upon-Which-Christ-Built-His-Church.

Yet I find myself insatiably curious about it. What was their childhood like? What games did they play with each other as the sun set, before their mother called them into bed? What did they think of as they fell asleep at night? What secret jokes did they share to make each other laugh? What were they afraid of? What did they hope for? Who did they want to be?

Before they were towering figures of salvation history, Simon and Andrew were just two men searching for the truth. When they looked at Christ, there was something that made it click. Perhaps they themselves could not identify what it was, but their hearts whispered it nonetheless: There it is. We finally found it.

Isn’t that the best we can all hope for?

“Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, ‘What are you looking for?’” — John 1:38

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Why do we make changes in the Mass?
Some seem so small and unimportant.
Are they really necessary?

Answer:

The celebration of the Eucharist is at the heart of our identity as Catholics. Our purpose as a Church community revolves around the Eucharist. Everything we are and everything we do is measured not only by how well we celebrate, but also by how well we live the sacrament. If that is so, then we as a community will always strive to celebrate the Mass as best we can. The reasons for some changes might seem more obvious than others, but there is a reason behind each one.

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal is the introduction to the Missal that contains all the prayers for the celebration of the Mass. The Order of Mass we use now was issued in 1975 and, as often happens over the course of years, some questions have come up about the proper way of doing some things and whether or not other practices are acceptable. These changes clarify some things and make the celebration of the Mass more meaningful for everyone.

The opportunity is presented to us to better learn and understand each part of the Mass, which in turn should help us deepen our appreciation for its beauty and meaning. We will be a better Church if we have a clearer understanding and knowledge of Who and what we celebrate.

It's a New Year—2024

Facilitated by Patricia Hutchinson

"Rather than set resolutions for the New Year, why don't we explore our deepest longings and what gives us the greatest joy? Working with both Franciscan and Celtic spiritual lenses we can become more aware of who we are and who God is, and follow the cues that can help us to 'be' more of who we are truly called and meant to be in the world."

Please join us for a morning prayer, presentations, reflection and sharing.
