HOLY FAMILY PARISH
BUILDING OUR FUTURE

Thank you!

A big, giant “Thank You!” to the small army of volunteers who made last weekend’s Kick Off Celebration such a success! We especially want to shout out our appreciation for Jim Lombardi and Kathie Robison, and Jon and Jenn Pienovi and all of the hospitality and childcare committee and crew... snow shovelers, servers, cleaner-uppers, all of you who played a part... We appreciate you and all you do to help make our Holy Family such a wonderful community.

If you did not get a chance to see the video presenting our Building our Future Campaign, go to our website, www.parish.holyfamilyportland.org to see it...

Holy Family
BAKE OFF
CHAMPIONSHIP

Another big “Thank You!” to all those who participated in our Holy Family Bake Off Championship! The fruits of your labors were deliciously enjoyed by all!

We are pleased to share with you the top three winners of the contest:

First Place, winning a gift card to Crate & Barrel goes to Lucas Pienovi

Second Place, winning a gift card to Sur la Table goes to Dominic Pienovi

Third Place, winning a gift card to Sur la Table goes to Shawn Cass

CONGRATULATIONS!!!

Top Tier Gifts Needed!

We need both a broad base of support and a few, fairly substantial gifts in order to assure our “Honoring Our Past – Building Our Future” campaign’s success.

Now, not everyone’s in the position to make one of these top tier gifts equal to 1, 5, 10, 15 and 20 percent or more of our goal.

But if you can, please do what others can’t and watch how it inspires similarly generous gifts and will all but assure our campaign’s success!

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

What Have You to Do with Me, Jesus of Nazareth?

Inevitably, when we read the story of the Garden of Eden, my children try to imagine what life would be like if Adam and Eve had not sinned against God.

“Would we have to go to school?” they ask me.

“Would we get sick? Could we eat whatever we want? Would we get older?”

I tell them the only thing I know for sure about a world without sin is that we would be happier. I can see confusion in their faces — Why? How? — but I have none of the concrete answers they want. I don’t know how to describe a happiness untouched by sin.

The moment sin entered the world, a chasm erupted between God and mankind. There is now a space between humanity and the divine, a cavernous and seemingly impassable void into which God calls for us, unendingly. And because we are lost in the dark, and miserable, instead of following his voice when we hear it, instead we reply: “What do you want?”

“What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth?”

Did the unclean spirit know, when he cried out all those thousands of years ago in Capernaum, that he was giving voice to a question which defined the human condition? They are the words of a demon, yes, but they are also my words. Far, far more often than I care to admit, when God is reaching for me, I look upon His hand with contempt and confusion. When I am grappling with a problem or a sin which overwhelms me, again and again I forget that I already know the solution.

The tragedy of original sin is not that we live in a world where we cannot eat what we want, where we age, and where we become sick and die. The tragedy of sin is that we have forgotten how to be happy. We look at happiness and we think: “What do you want with me?”

“If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.”
— Psalm 95:7

Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

I have a friend who receives communion, but who I know for a fact is in a state of mortal sin. Should I tell our priest? Is it my responsibility to say something?

Answer:

While we may always want to do what is best for our friends and family members, we have a responsibility to respect their privacy and their conscience. In its reflections on the Eighth Commandment (“You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor”), the Catechism of the Catholic Church states, “Respect for the reputation of persons forbids every attitude and word likely to cause them unjust injury. [One] becomes guilty: -of rash judgment who, even tacitly, assumes as true, without sufficient foundation, the moral fault of a neighbor; -of detraction who, without objectively valid reason, discloses another’s faults and failings to persons who do not know them; of calumny who, by remarks contrary to the truth, harms the reputation of others and gives occasion for false judgments concerning them” (no. 2477).

We will never truly know what is in a person’s mind, heart, and soul; only God knows those things. We should, of course, take our concerns to God and entrust the person about whom we are concerned to God’s grace and mercy. If we have concerns about the spiritual wellbeing of someone with whom we are close, we should go to the person themselves and talk about our fears and concerns. Unless it is a case of abuse or endangerment (which we have a moral and even legal responsibility to report to the appropriate authorities), we ultimately do not have the freedom to share another’s persons faults or sins, however good we think our intentions might be.
