Top Tier Gifts Needed!

We need both a broad base of support and a few, fairly substantial gifts in order to assure our "Honoring Our Past – Building Our Future" campaign's success.

Now, not everyone's in the position to make one of these top tier gifts equal to 1, 5, 10, 15 and 20 percent or more of our goal.

But if you can, please do what others can't and watch how it inspires similarly generous gifts and will all but assure our campaign's success!

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Purpose and Pride

Father, forgive me. Today's Gospel made me want to fight somebody.

If you want to make me really, really angry, you are sure of doing so if you tell me about an old woman who was sick, but felt a little better, and then her son-in-law and all his buddies showed up, so she cooked them a bunch of food and cleaned up after them.

We all project our own feelings, fears, insecurities, and desires onto the word of God. I certainly do. And most of my feelings, fears, insecurities, and desires spring from my current role as a tired mom of little kids.

I think there is a fear inside many of us of God's purpose for our lives. What if it's not aligned perfectly with what we think we need, or what we imagine we want? Most of the time, I think I need a nap, and I imagine that I want absolutely no one asking me for any kind of help. And here I am, perpetually napless and always being called on to render assistance.

The actions of Peter's mother-in-law were the only actions we would expect of a woman who had just received a miracle. She jumped up, and with bravery and boldness she served the Lord.

But couldn't she rest? Couldn't she serve him later? Couldn't she thank him with a smile and take a nap? Well, I suppose. But is that how you react to a miracle?

I have received my miracle — my family. My purpose. So why am I still lying down?

*"He approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up. Then the fever left her and she waited on them."
— Mark 1:31*

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Is gossip a mortal sin?

Answer:

To really ask this question, we must consider the Eighth Commandment: "You shall not bear false witness."

In its reflections on this commandment, The Catechism of the Catholic Church invites us to not only think about what bearing "false witness" means, but to also consider how we understand the truth and how we communicate more broadly. This is why so much of this section of the Catechism has to do with the gift of language. With this in mind, we will notice that the word "gossip" isn't used by the Catechism. Instead, we find the words "detraction" and "calumny," which are actually two forms that gossip can take, and both can be quite serious.

First, detraction is the of revealing "another's faults and failings to persons who did not know them," without morally valid reasons. Calumny, by extension, is saying something about another person that is untrue, and it is sinful because it "harms the reputation of others and gives occasion for false judgements" (see no. 2477).

In all of our communication, we have to always recognize that we have a moral obligation to the truth and to always work to protect the reputation and honor of our neighbors (see no. 2479).

Gossip can, in fact, prove to be a very serious sin. After all, the Catechism reminds us: "No one is bound to reveal the truth to someone who does not have the right to know it" (no. 2489). When we have gossiped, especially if we are aware we have damaged another person's good name or reputation, we want to make every effort to undo the damage we have done, including seeking the grace and forgiveness offered in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

From the desk of HFCS Teachers...

In Thanksgiving for the students of Holy Family Catholic School: Thank you, God, for our Pre-K students, who are a beacon of light for each other and all the teachers who are blessed to serve them. Please help them to remain passionate and eager to learn every day. Thank you, God, for our kindergarten students, who are so excited to learn new things every day. Please help them to show empathy and compassion to their friends. Thank you, God, for our 1 st graders, who are filled with curiosity and joy. Please help them take care of each other and all of your creation. Thank you, God, for our 2 nd graders, who work so hard and wow me every single day. Please help them focus, learn, and listen to each other. Thank you, God, for our 3 rd graders, who worked so hard and patiently in achieving their goals and responsibilities in completing all their academic work as we all try to catch up after the long unforeseen vacation. Thank you, God, for our 4 th graders, who are filled with love and kindness. Please help them continue to grow and be the amazing children that they are. Thank you, God, for our 5 th graders, who enter school every day excited to be part of our community. Please help them find moments to pause and listen to each other. Thank you, God, for our 6 th graders, who are navigating the storm of middle school with grace and patience. Please help them be confident in themselves and each other as they grow to be leaders of the school. Thank you, God, for our 7 th graders, who are kind and brave and brilliant. Please help them be role models and beacons of light! Thank you, God, for our 8 th graders, who lead our school with energy, tenacity, and brilliance. Please help them be empathetic, respectful, and patient with others. Amen.

Healing Prayer of Surrender

Dear Lord Jesus, it is my will to surrender to you everything that I am and everything that I'm striving to be. I open the deepest recesses of my heart and invite your Holy Spirit to dwell inside of me.

I offer you my life, heart, mind, body, soul, spirit, all my hopes, plans and dreams. I surrender to you my past, present and future problems, habits, character defects, attitudes, livelihood, resources, finances, medical coverage, occupation and all my relationships.

I give you my health, physical appearance, disabilities, family, marriage, children and friendships. I ask you to take Lordship over every aspect of my life. I surrender to you all my hurt, pain, worry, doubt, fear and anxiety, and I ask you to wash me clean.

I release everything into your compassionate care. Please speak to me clearly, Lord. Open my ears to hear your voice. Open my heart to commune with you more deeply. I want to feel your loving embrace. Open the doors that need to be opened and close the doors that need to be closed. Please set my feet upon the straight and narrow road that leads to everlasting life.

Amen.
