CATHOLIC CHURCH

The 6th Sunday in Ordinary Time—February 11, 2024

6TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said to him, "See that you tell no one anything, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses prescribed; that will be proof for them." The man went away and began to publicize the whole matter. He spread the report abroad so that it was impossible for Jesus to enter a town openly.
- Mk 1:44-45b

Congratulations!

We are thrilled to announce the overwhelming success of Holy Family Catholic School's
"Cash for Comfort" fundraiser!

Thanks to the incredible support of students and parents, we not only met - but surpassed our goal, raising a total of $5,002.04 for the Capital Campaign. A special congratulations to the Kindergarten class for securing the top spot, followed by 4th and 5th grades in second and third place, respectively. Beyond the monetary success, the school community's generosity extended to collecting 226 cans of food for St. Vincent de Paul. Additionally, students demonstrated their school spirit by turning in over 2,000 Cardinal Cards! We are truly blown away and immensely proud of the student's collective effort that made this campaign a resounding success!

Sin and Loneliness

When I was in high school, we read “The Metamorphosis” by Franz Kafka. It’s a depressing little novella about a man who (spoiler alert!) turns into a cockroach and dies of neglect, his family gradually ceasing to recognize the creature he has become.

“Never underestimate how badly human beings need touch,” our teacher told us. “Without each other, we curl up and die.”

Our need for communion with each other is written into our biology — breathing and heart rate of newborns regulates when they lie against the skin of their mothers, and we instinctively reach out to embrace someone who has been wounded. But it is also written into our souls. Consider the early days of the pandemic, and the emotional starvation we all experienced, prevented from gathering in groups to worship, to celebrate and to mourn. And when we did encounter other people, we kept a mutual distance. “I feel like a leper,” we grumbled to our families when we returned home, because we finally understood it: the real tragedy of leprosy is not pain and disfigurement. The real tragedy of leprosy is loneliness.

“If you wish, you can make me clean,” begged the leper as he knelt before Christ (Mark 1:40). He wasn’t begging for deliverance from pain and disfigurement. He was begging for deliverance from isolation.

“If you wish, you can make me clean,” we beg God in confession, not because we are physically withering and dying but because we are so desperate to once again be held in His embrace.

*“Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, ‘I do will it. Be made clean.’”
— Mark 1:41*

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

What is the difference between a “Saint” and a “Blessed”?

Answer:

The process of proclaiming someone as a saint in the Catholic Church has evolved over the course of many centuries. In the beginning, those honored as saints were almost exclusively biblical figures or martyrs. However, after the legalization of Christianity in the fourth century, new holy women and men came to be honored as saints, and this was often done by popular acclaim or by the local bishop or abbot.

It was Pope Gregory IX (who was pope from 1227 to 1241) who officially proclaimed that only the pope had the authority to add someone to the official list (the “canon”) of saints. This is the meaning of the word “canonization.”

Today, the saint-making process includes several steps, including detailed studies of the person’s life and a recognition that they died as a martyr or lived a life of “heroic virtue.” Once someone is recognized as a martyr or if a miracle is attributed to their intercession, they will be beatified and honored as “Blessed.” This means that they can be celebrated by Catholics in a particular country or region or by the members of certain religious community. If another miracle occurs and is approved, then the “Blessed” is canonized and honored with the title “Saint,” meaning that they are now officially recognized as a universal model of holiness and an intercessor.

Women's February Morning of Reflection

Tuesday—February 20th
at Holy Family Parish Office
3732 SE Knapp St.
from 10 am—Noon
Facilitated by Bill Zuelke

What's your way of relating to God?
What form does your relationship take?

God loves each of us as unique individuals, and we have a unique relationship with God. In our catholic world over 2000 years, this unique relationship has tended to develop in 6 specific patterns. Our morning will consist of reflecting on these 6 patterns and using them to name and identify our own unique style of relationship with God.

Suggested donation is $20

Please RSVP to vicki451@comcast.net
 If you need to join on ZOOM, please let me know to request the link.

Top Tier Gifts Needed!

We need both a broad base of support and a few, fairly substantial gifts in order to assure our "Honoring Our Past – Building Our Future" campaign's success.

Now, not everyone's in the position to make one of these top tier gifts equal to 1, 5, 10, 15 and 20 percent or more of our goal.

But if you can, please do what others can't and watch how it inspires similarly generous gifts and will all but assure our campaign's success!
