TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

While the first reading from Sirach and the Gospel focus on humility (“Humble yourself . . . and you will find favor with God” [Sirach 3:18] and “go and take the lowest place” [Luke 14:10], with a surprise reversal of the humble being exalted), the reading from Hebrews surprises us in a different way. The author uses apocalyptic imagery to show how much the relationship between God and humanity has changed. He starts with images of fire, storms, and trumpet blasts—images that may remind you of an erupting volcano: something you want to view from very far away. Even God’s words brought fear and trembling. It may not be surprising that God is beyond human comprehension, but Hebrews says no. God doesn’t want to be so far beyond us that we only approach in fear. Using more images from the end-time, the author gives us a picture of the baptized partying with angels and all the just who have died. And of course God is the host. Let’s look at some of those images to see how our relationship with the Lord has grown. The heavenly Jerusalem reminds us that the Church is our home—not just our parish church building but the whole community of faith. How “at home” are you with your fellow parishioners? Do you regularly gather with that family for prayer? A church community can be a place to support those who are sick or jobless or depressed. It is also a place to be supported, to see God’s love in action. The angels in Hebrews may be a symbol of that support. The “firstborn” and “spirits of the just” could remind us of those who went before us and now rest in the Lord. They had their own struggles in life, and now live in glory. They help us to keep our true goal in mind, to remember the real meaning of life, and to look forward to eternal life with hope. Jesus came to show us how much God loves us and how close God can be. When he shed his blood on the cross (the final sign in our reading), he renewed the covenant with God’s people. So we no longer have to accomplish our salvation; it has already been offered to us by Jesus’ death and resurrection. We accept that gift not just by a verbal statement of faith, but by a life lived as Jesus showed us, in love of God and our neighbor.

Tom Schmidt

BULLETIN MAILINGS

Beginning in September, we will no longer be mailing out the Church bulletins. With the rising cost of postage, our annual cost of mailing is approximately $6000. We will continue to publish a weekly bulletin and all bulletins will be available for pick up in the Church.

CANDLES & MASS INTENTIONS

As we all know, the cost of everything has been steadily increasing. That includes EVERYTHING we purchase for the Church, Rectory and Spiritual Life Center. Because of this, as much as we don’t want to, we have no option other than to raise prices to meet the demands of rising costs in order to continue to provide the services needed by our community. Therefore, effective August 1st, the cost of the 5 day candles (larger size) will be $5.00 each and the cost of the 4 hour candles (small ones) will be $1.00 each. Also, though many of you have donated money for your mass intentions, we have not had a set donation amount. Effective August 1st, we will follow the Diocesan standard concerning the cost of the suggested donation of $5.00 per mass intention. Please call us if you have any questions.

NOTICE OF CHANGE IN MASS TIME

Beginning on Monday, September 29th, our mass time for Mondays will change to 8:30 a.m. We will also move Mondays' Adoration to after mass on Tuesdays. The reason for this change is that Fr. Cody would like to be present in our Religious Ed classes on Mondays, which begins at 5:30 p.m., and the existing 6 p.m. mass time makes it difficult for him to be on hand during this class time. Please call the office if you have any questions.

RELIGIOUS ED NEWS

The deadline for Religious Ed registration for grades 1 to 5 is September 8th. Registrations taken after the 8th to the 12th will be charged a $10 late fee. Classes begin on Monday, September 22nd. Class schedules for grades 1-5 can be found at all exits of the Church. Registrations will not be accepted on the starting day of classes.

MARRIAGE ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Couples celebrating 25, 40, 50, 60 and beyond years of marriage from January through December 2025 are invited to join us for a special parish celebration here at Sacred Heart at the 4 p.m. vigil mass on Saturday, October 11th. The Diocesan Office of Worship is inviting all couples to a mass also on Saturday, October 11th at 10 a.m. at St. Francis de Sales in Houma celebrated by Bishop Simon Peter. If you wish to take part in either of these celebrations, please call the rectory office to register before September 19th.
