

COOKING WITH CHEFS OF D' FUTURE, LLC

Chefs of d' Future, LLC is a "Cooking School that Comes to You". Founded, owned and operated by Julie Reilly since 2007. Julie has been teaching cooking to children for 27 years.

We will be preparing sweet and savory dishes. As a rule we do not use nuts in any recipes, however some products are processed in plant that also process nuts.

Our mission: To empower children through cooking, reinforcing math, science, art and cultural awareness through food preparation. Bringing families to the kitchen table, showing them the ease of preparing a wholesome meal and that fast food need not be processed. Finally to help families realize that the power of sitting down to a home cooked meal reaches far beyond the food.
