We plan financially to go on vacation, we plan financially for the education of our children, we make financial plans for our retirement; do we plan financially to support God's work in our parish community? In gratitude for the gifts we receive from God, 33% of our registered families and those visiting made a joyful return to the Lord to assist in the support of God's work in our parish community. Let's increase this participation to 100%.

Twelve Sunday in Ordinary Time

Pastor's Corner

Ecclesiastes III says there is an appointed time for everything under heaven. And so there is. The Lord has blessed me beyond measure in the twenty-eight years since my ordination to the permanent diaconate. It is now time for me and my beloved Julie to move on to the next phase of life. This will be my last weekend as active deacon at St. Matthew parish. Some might question the timing, although the decision was made after extensive prayer and reflection. Wanting to remain active until the time my oldest grandson made his First Communion, and my youngest grandchildren were baptized, the timing seemed right to retire on the anniversary of my ordination.

Others might question why notice was not given in advance. Those who know me personally know that I am a private person who chooses to work and serve the Lord quietly. He is my reward, and that's enough for me.

For those who might want to acknowledge my twenty-plus years at St. Matthew, I might suggest contributions to St. Vincent de Paul or the Burn the Mortgage Campaign.

I have asked Archbishop Gregory the license to maintain my diaconal faculties, and he has graciously consented. I am asking Fr. Exume to change my diaconal status in the parish – from active, to emeritus.

While ministry roles may change, our affection for the St. Matthew parish family remains. We welcome our new direction, and ask only for your prayers and support. Know that our prayers and support remain with you.

Respectfully yours in Christ,
Deacon Tim
