Pentecost Sunday Teach and Remind

I'm not very good at telling jokes. I like them, but after I hear one and laugh at it, I let it go and forget it. I suspect this doesn't just apply to jokes. The Gospel today hints that the disciples may have had the same weakness when Jesus says the Spirit will "teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you" (John 14:26).

Jesus spent three years teaching his disciples about the kingdom of God. While he may have condensed his message to "Love God . . . and love your neighbor as yourself" (Mark 12:30-31), he spent most of his time showing them how much God loves them and how to love their neighbor. He used parables as examples and miracles as signs of the Father's love. He answered their questions and explained things privately. Knowing that this would still not be enough, he promised to send the Spirit after he had risen. He seems to have known that sometimes you just can't learn by listening. You have to experience some things to understand them. Sometimes you have to explain something to someone else before you understand it yourself. And that is what the disciples would do.

When they received the Spirit after Jesus' resurrection, they began to talk about Jesus to anyone who would listen. They also began to do the things Jesus talked about. They fed the poor and healed the sick. Thus they began to experience Jesus in those around them. They would remember what Jesus had taught them and apply it in their lives. They even accepted suffering for their faith.

We too can receive that promise from Jesus to have the Spirit teach and remind us. As we share our faith with others, we begin to experience Jesus in them. Just talking about our faith helps it to grow. As we listen to the Lord in prayer, we are reminded of passages in the Bible that we have read or heard from the altar on Sunday. We begin to understand how they apply in our lives. We may remember things that seemed to be very bad but turned out to be God's plan—maybe losing a job, only to find a better one; or moving away from friends, only to make new friends later. May the Holy Spirit teach and remind us of the signs of God's love.

Domingo de Pentecostés
Enseñar y recordar

No soy muy bueno contando chistes. Me gustan, pero después de escuchar uno y reírme, lo dejo pasar y lo olvido. Me imagino que esto no sólo se aplica a los chistes. El Evangelio de hoy da a entender que los discípulos pueden haber tenido la misma debilidad cuando Jesús dice que el Espíritu “les enseñará todas las cosas y les recordará todo cuanto yo les he dicho” (Juan 14,26).

Jesús pasó tres años enseñando a sus discípulos acerca del Reino de Dios. Si bien puede haber condensado su mensaje a “Ama al Señor tu Dios... ama a tu prójimo como a ti mismo” (Marcos 12,30-31), pasó la mayor parte de su tiempo demostrándoles cuánto Dios los ama y cómo amar al prójimo. Utilizó parábolas como ejemplos y milagros como signos del amor del Padre. Respondió a sus preguntas y explicó las cosas en privado. Sabiendo que esto todavía no sería suficiente, prometió enviar al Espíritu después de haber resucitado. Parece que sabía que a veces no se puede aprender solo por escuchar. Hay que experimentar algunas cosas para entenderlas. A veces hay que explicarle algo a otra persona antes de entenderlo uno mismo. Y eso es lo que hacían los discípulos.

Cuando recibieron el Espíritu después de la resurrección de Jesús, comenzaron a hablar de Jesús a todos los que quisieran escucharlos. También comenzaron a hacer las cosas de las que Jesús hablaba. Alimentaron a los pobres y sanaron a los enfermos. Así comenzaron a experimentar a Jesús en quienes los rodeaban. Recordaban lo que Jesús les había enseñado y lo aplicaban a sus vidas. Incluso aceptaban el sufrimiento por la fe.

Nosotros también podemos recibir esa promesa de Jesús de que el Espíritu nos enseñe y nos recuerde. Mientras compartimos la fe con los demás, comenzamos a experimentar a Jesús en ellos. El hecho de hablar de la fe ayuda a que crezca. Mientras escuchamos al Señor en la oración, recordamos pasajes de la Biblia que hemos leído o escuchado desde el altar el domingo. Comenzamos a entender cómo se aplican en nuestras vidas. Quizás recordemos cosas que parecían muy malas en el momento pero que resultaron ser parte del plan de Dios: tal vez perder un trabajo y luego encontrar uno mejor, o alejarnos de nuestros amigos por una mudanza y luego hacer nuevos amigos. Que el Espíritu Santo nos enseñe y nos recuerde las señales del amor de Dios.
