PASTOR'S WEEKLY MESSAGE | Mensaje del Párroco

5th Sunday of Lent A, March 26, 2023

In John's gospel, the miracles of Jesus were performed to reveal the glory of God to the people so that they might come to faith. That was why Jesus opened the eyes of the man born blind in last week's gospel. Jesus stressed the same point in today's gospel when he raised Lazarus from the dead. After receiving the news that Lazarus was critically ill, Jesus decided to wait two more days before he went to visit the family. He told the disciples: "This illness is not to end in death but is for the glory of God." This approach to the miracles of Jesus is different from the other synoptic gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke where Jesus performs miracles out of compassion for the people. This is not to say that the approach of John contradicts that of the other gospel writers. In fact, the glory and/or the power of God are manifested in his compassion and love for people.

Jesus wept at the grave of Lazarus his friend. He loved Lazarus so much and he loved the two sisters, Mary, and Martha. Jesus shared in our humanity. He shared in the sorrows and pains of his friends. I wonder how many of us have really taken the time to think about this. When we are in pain and sorrow, do we know that Christ is sharing in our pains? Yes, he does. Knowing he does, we should be consoled and put our trust in him knowing that he will do what is best and give us strength to endure our pains. Jesus raised Lazarus from the dead, a sure sign of God's power over life and death.

Our gospel reading this past three Sundays have shown us different faces of Jesus. In his encounter with the Samaritan woman, Jesus reveals himself as "the living water". For the man born blind in last week's reading, Jesus is "the light of the world". By raising Lazarus from the dead in today's reading, Jesus reveals himself as "the resurrection and the life."

Jesus called forth Lazarus from the tomb and he heard the words of Christ and came out. Yes, hearing the word of God, the dead lives again. There are times we probably feel that we are of no use in the community. To some, we are even as good as dead. However, if we listen for the voice of Christ calling us forth to a new life, we need to respond like Lazarus and come out. When Lazarus came out, he was still tied and in bondage. Jesus commanded the people: Unbind him, let him go free. It was only then that Lazarus fully regained his life. Jesus proved to us today that he came to restore life in abundance to all those who believe in him. As Jesus sets us free, he invites us to also free those whom we may have held captive in our thoughts and actions. When we free those in our bondage, we become free ourselves and many more will come to believe that we are truly serving the living God.

Next week is Holy Week beginning with Palm Sunday. Our parish schedule for the week is included in the bulletin and posted on our website www.st-mm.com. Please note that there will be no confessions or evening Mass on Tuesday, April 4th as the priests will be attending the Chrism Mass at the Co-Cathedral. Cardinal DiNardo will celebrate the Chrism Mass with all the priests of the archdiocese during which he will bless the holy oils that will be used for the celebration of the sacraments. I ask you to pray for all the priests working in our archdiocese, particularly for Fr. Augustine and me as we renew our commitments to God and to you, the people of God during the Chrism Mass. Confession schedules for Holy Week are listed in the bulletin.

5to Domingo de Cuaresma, 26 de marzo, 2023

En el evangelio de Juan, los milagros de Jesús se realizaron para revelar la gloria de Dios a la gente y que pudieran llegar a la fe. Fue por eso que en el evangelio de la semana pasada, Jesús abre los ojos del hombre que nació ciego. Asimismo, Jesús enfatiza el mismo punto en el evangelio de hoy, cuando resucitó a Lázaro de entre los muertos. Después de recibir la noticia de que Lázaro estaba gravemente enfermo, Jesús decidió esperar dos días más antes de ir a visitar a la familia. El les dijo a los discípulos: "Esta enfermedad no va a terminar en muerte, sino que es para la gloria de Dios". Este enfoque de los milagros de Jesús es diferente de los otros evangelios sinópticos de Mateo, Marcos y Lucas, donde Jesús realiza milagros por compasión por la gente. Esto no quiere decir que el enfoque de Juan contradiga el de los otros escritores de los evangelios. De hecho, la gloria y/o el poder de Dios se manifiestan en su compasión y amor por las personas.

Jesús lloró en la tumba de Lázaro su amigo. Amaba tanto a Lázaro y a las dos hermanas, María y Marta. Jesús compartió nuestra humanidad, al compartir las penas y dolores de sus amigos. Me pregunto, cuántos de nosotros realmente nos hemos tomado el tiempo para pensar en esto. Cuando estamos en dolor y tristeza, ¿sabemos que Cristo está compartiendo nuestros dolores? Sí, lo hace. Sabiendo que lo hace, debemos ser consolados y poner nuestra confianza en él sabiendo que hará lo mejor y nos dará fuerza para soportar nuestros dolores. Que Jesús resucitó a Lázaro de entre los muertos, es una verdadera señal del poder de Dios sobre la vida y la muerte.

Nuestra lectura del evangelio de los últimos tres domingos nos ha mostrado diferentes rostros de Jesús. En su encuentro con la mujer samaritana, Jesús se revela como "el agua viva". Para el hombre que nació ciego, Jesús es "la luz del mundo" en la lectura de la semana pasada. Al resucitar a Lázaro de entre los muertos, Jesús se revela como "la resurrección y la vida" en la lectura de hoy.

Jesús llamó a Lázaro, quien al escuchar las palabras de Cristo salió de la tumba. Sí, al escuchar la palabra de Dios, el muerto vive de nuevo. Así hay momentos en que probablemente nos sentimos que no somos de ninguna utilidad en la comunidad. Incluso para algunos, somos tan buenos como los muertos. Sin embargo, si escuchamos la voz de Cristo llamándonos a una nueva vida, necesitamos responder como Lázaro y salir. Cuando Lázaro salió, todavía estaba atado y en esclavitud. Jesús manda al pueblo: Desátenlo, déjanle libre. Fue entonces cuando Lázaro recupera completamente su vida. Hoy, Jesús nos demuestra que vino a restaurar la vida en abundancia de todos aquellos que creen en él. A medida que Jesús nos hace libres, nos invita a liberar también a aquellos quienes podemos haber mantenido cautivos en nuestros pensamientos y acciones. Cuando liberamos a estos de nuestra esclavitud, nos liberamos nosotros mismos, así muchos más llegarán a creer que realmente estamos sirviendo al Dios vivo.

La próxima semana es Semana Santa que inicia con el Domingo de Ramos. Nuestro horario parroquial para la semana está incluido en el boletín y publicado en nuestro sitio web www.st-mm.com. Tenga en cuenta que no habrá confesiones ni misa vespertina el martes 4 de abril, ya que los sacerdotes asistirán a la Misa Crismal en la Concatedral. El cardenal DiNardo celebrará la Misa Crismal con todos los sacerdotes de la arquidiócesis durante la cual bendecirá los santos óleos que se utilizarán para la celebración de los sacramentos. Les pido que recen por todos los sacerdotes que trabajan en nuestra arquidiócesis, particularmente por el P. Agustín y por mí, mientras renovamos nuestros compromisos con Dios, y con ustedes el pueblo de Dios durante la Misa Crismal. Los horarios de para la Semana Santa se encuentran en el boletín.

THIS WEEK IN OUR PARISH | Esta Semana en Nuestra Parroquia

5th Sunday of LENT - Grateful Stewardship

“Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?” JOHN 11:40. Many of us say that we believe in God. We attend Sunday Mass and participate in parish events. But when life gets hard and the pressure is on, when things aren’t going our way, do we really believe? Do we really put our trust in the Lord? When we live a life of gratitude, recognizing all that we have been given, we really live Stewardship by seeing that God is providing for our needs. Living a grateful and generous life allows us to see God’s active presence in our daily lives and we become “partakers of the divine nature.”

WEEKLY CCE CLASSES. CCE classes will continue this week on Sunday, March 26th; Tuesday, March 28th; and Wednesday, March 29th, in the St. Paul Center. Please help-us keep our children and catechists safe during "cold and flu season" — NEVER send a sick child to CCE! Students must be fever and symptom-free for a full 24 hours before returning to class... just like school. Our first "Priority Registration" event for 2023 - 2024 Formation programs will be held on Saturday, April 15, 2023 from 1:00pm - 4:00pm in the FLC!

HIGH SCHOOL HOME-BASED & "PROCLAIM" STUDENTS. All high school students should be finishing up their take-home book(s)...Home-based students have two books; "Proclaim" students have only one book.

YOUTH MINISTRY EVENTS. Our next Youth Ministry event will be held this Wednesday, March 29th from 6:00pm - 7:30pm in the Youth Room; it's a "Welcome Back Party" to Wednesdays nights after Confirmation! The Youth Room is located inside the St. Paul Center / 120 Isaacks Rd. and Ferguson St. Please consider bringing a snack or 12-pack of canned sodas to share. There is no need to register for our weekly Youth Ministry activities; they are open to all middle school (6th - 8th grade) and high school (9th - 12th grade) students.

SAC PREP/RECONCILIATION. If your child has not completed their Reconciliation interview, please contact the Formation Office to schedule that ASAP. Also, we must have a copy of your child's Baptism certificate before we can interview the student! The Eucharist interview is scheduled for Monday, March 27th, at 6:00pm. If you need to schedule a Eucharist interview, please contact the office.

2023 CONFIRMATION CANDIDATES / TEAM. Congratulations to our newly confirmed high school youth, who were confirmed by Auxiliary Bishop Italo Dell'Oro yesterday morning. A special note of thanks to our faithful and faith-filled Confirmation team who have worked for many months to make this celebration possible. If there are confirmed adults, young adults, and youth who would like to be a part of the 2024 Confirmation Team, please contact Mike Smith.

2024 CONFIRMATION CLASS. If you are a current 9th, 10th, or 11th-grade student who is NOT participating in the 2023 Confirmation class and you missed the mandatory "2024 Confirmation Orientation" last Friday, January 20th, please make plans to join us for a "make-up" orientation meeting on Friday, April 21, 2023, at 7:00pm in the FLC. This meeting is primarily for parents, but students are welcome to also attend! We will review sacrament guidelines, calendars, and answer your questions about this powerful sacrament. Please send in a copy of your student's Baptism and Communion certificates ahead of this important meeting.

*CLASES SEMANALES DE CCE

Las clases de CCE continuarán esta semana el domingo 26 de marzo; martes 28 de marzo; y el miércoles 29 de marzo en el Centro St. Paul. Divine Mercy Devotion

On Good Friday 1937, Jesus requested that St. Faustina makes a special Novena before the Feast of Mercy, from Good Friday through the following Saturday. He, Himself, dictated the intentions for each day. He said, "I desire that during these nine days, you bring souls to the fountain of My mercy, that they may draw from their strength and refreshment and whatever grace they have need of in the hardships of life, and especially at the hour of death. On each day, you will bring to My heart a different group of souls, and you will immerse them in this ocean of My mercy..." (Diary,1209). "By this Novena, I will grant every possible grace to souls" (796).

Join us in praying for a special novena

- April 7, 3 pm.- All mankind, especially all sinners.
- April 8, 3 pm.- The souls of priests and religious.
- April 9, 3 pm.- All devout and faithful souls.
- April 10, 6:30 pm.- Those who do not believe in God and those who do not yet know Him.
- April 11, 6:30 pm.- For the souls who have separated themselves from the Church.
- April 12, 6:30 pm.- The meek and humble souls and the souls of little children.
- April 13, 6:30 pm.- The souls who especially venerate and glorify my mercy.
- April 14, 6:30 pm.- Souls who are detained in Purgatory.
- April 15, 3 pm.- Souls who have become lukewarm.

Young Adults: Discovering Love with Clarity

Are you seeking the meaning of love? Please join us for the upcoming Discovering Love with Clarity program open to all young adults. This is a series of formation and encounter for singles, dating, and engaged couples willing to explore the profound meaning of love and discernment of relationships. The program, facilitated by Fr. Kingsley Nwoko, STL, includes three Saturday discussion sessions held at St. Dominic Chancery (2403 Holcombe Blvd.) on March 18, April 15, and May 20 from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Registration also includes cost for a retreat held at Circle Lake Retreat Center (19000 Circle Lake Dr, Pinehurst) on June 16-18. Cost is $300. Limited scholarships available upon request. Contact the Office of Young Adult at 713-741-8778, visit yacm@archgh.org or go to www.archgh.org/discoverlove.
