PASTOR'S WEEKLY MESSAGE | Mensaje del Párroco

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion, April 02, 2023

Holy Week and Triduum:

Today is Palm Sunday, the beginning of the holiest week of the Church's liturgical year. Jesus made a grand entry into Jerusalem with people carrying palm branches and shouting, 'Hosanna to the Son of David'. The best image that could possibly describe this procession is the image of a parade in our modern world. As the parade began, many who heard the singing and shouting joined and the crowd got bigger and bigger. Many of them spread their cloths on the road for Jesus to pass. Others got branches from trees to decorate the road. Jesus rode through the streets as a king. The people acknowledged him as the prophet from Galilee. Few days later, precisely on Good Friday, the story will change. Many who followed him shouting "Hosanna" on Palm Sunday later shouted "crucify him" on Good Friday.

In the gospel narration of the passion of the Lord, we see that the triumphant entry of Jesus into Jerusalem is sharply contrasted to his journey to Calvary. When he was seized by the authorities, everyone deserted him including his disciples. Judas, to gain prestige among the Sanhedrin, sold Jesus for thirty pieces of silver. Peter denied Jesus three times for fear of suffering with Jesus. Pilate, the judge, washed his hands and handed the innocent man to be crucified because he did not want to lose his position among the people. The point is that these people knew what was right to do when they did the wrong thing because they were not ready to suffer.

At some point Jesus felt that God had abandoned him as he cried out: "my God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" Suffering in itself, has no benefit but when one suffers for a just cause, then there is a great benefit. Jesus came into the world to die so that we might live. He, who is God, humbled himself and submitted to our own cruelty so that he might save us. His passion which culminates in his death on Good Friday is to be our only means of redemption. He rose again on Easter Sunday to remind us that death has no final say.

Holy Thursday (Bilingual Mass at 7:30pm): No Mass in the morning. Jesus institutes the Eucharist and the ministerial priesthood at the last supper. He washed the feet of his disciples on this night reminding us that the church is called to service every day. How are we serving each other?

Good Friday: No Mass today. The Lord died. We commemorate the day with the Stations of the Cross in English at 2pm followed by Good Friday liturgy at 3pm. In Spanish, Stations of the Cross at 6pm and the Good Friday liturgy 7pm. One of the highlights of Good Friday liturgy is the Veneration of the Cross.

Easter Vigil (Bilingual Vigil at 8:30pm): On this Holy Night, we pass from death to life, from darkness to light. We celebrate Christ as the Light of the world as he conquered death and rose from the dead. We will baptize 16 children and 7 adults this night and they will also receive the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist. In addition, six adults of other Christian faith will profess their faith in the Catholic Church and receive the sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist also. Please keep these new Catholics in your prayers. We rejoice in the Lord's resurrection. Alleluia, He is risen! Happy Holy Week and Easter!!

Semana Santa y Triduo:

Hoy es Domingo de Ramos, el comienzo de la semana más sagrada del año litúrgico en la Iglesia. Jesús hace una gran entrada en Jerusalén con personas que llevaban ramas de palma y gritaban: "Hosanna al Hijo de David". La mejor imagen que podría describir esta procesión es la imagen de un desfile en nuestro mundo moderno. Cuando comenzó el desfile, muchos de los que escucharon el canto y los gritos se unieron, y la multitud se hizo cada vez más grande. Muchos de ellos extendieron sus telas en el camino para que Jesús pasara. Otros consiguieron ramas de árboles para decorar el camino. Jesús cabalgó por las calles como un rey. La gente lo reconoció como el profeta de Galilea. Pocos días después, precisamente el Viernes Santo, la historia cambia. Muchos de los que lo siguieron gritando "Hosanna" el Domingo de Ramos más tarde gritaron "crucifícalo" el Viernes Santo.

En la narración evangélica de la pasión del Señor, vemos que la entrada triunfal de Jesús en Jerusalén contrasta fuertemente con su viaje al Calvario. Cuando fue capturado por las autoridades, todos lo abandonaron, incluidos sus discípulos. Judas, para ganar prestigio entre el Sanedrín, vendió a Jesús por treinta piezas de plata. Pedro, negó a Jesús tres veces por temor a sufrir con Jesús. Pilato, el juez, se lavó las manos y entregó al hombre inocente para ser crucificado porque no quería perder su posición entre el pueblo. El punto es que estas personas hacían lo incorrecto, aún cuando sabían lo que era correcto de hacer, solo porque no estaban listos para sufrir.

En algún momento Jesús sintió que Dios lo había abandonado mientras clamaba: "Dios mío, Dios mío, ¿por qué me has abandonado?" El sufrimiento en sí mismo, no tiene ningún beneficio, pero cuando uno sufre por una causa justa, entonces hay un gran beneficio. Jesús vino al mundo a morir para que pudiéramos vivir. Él, quien siendo Dios, se humilló y se sometió a nuestra propia crueldad para poder salvarnos. Su pasión, que culmina con su muerte el Viernes Santo, será nuestro único medio de redención. Luego, al resucitar de nuevo el domingo de Pascua, nos recuerda que la muerte no tiene la última palabra.

Jueves Santo (Misa bilingüe a las 7:30pm): Este día NO hay misa por la mañana. Jesús instituye la Eucaristía y el sacerdocio ministerial en la última cena. Él lavó los pies de sus discípulos en esta noche recordándonos que la iglesia está llamada a servir todos los días. ¿Cómo nos servimos unos a otros?

Viernes Santo: NO hay misa. Nuestro Señor muere. Conmemoramos el día con las Estaciones de la Cruz en inglés a las 2 p.m., seguido de la liturgia del Viernes Santo a las 3 p.m. En español, Vía Crucis a las 6pm y la liturgia del Viernes Santo 7pm. Uno de los aspectos más destacados de la liturgia del Viernes Santo es la Veneración de la Cruz.

Vigilia Pascual (Vigilia bilingüe a las 8:30pm):

En esta Noche Santa, pasamos de la muerte a la vida, de la oscuridad a la luz. Celebramos a Cristo como la Luz del mundo cuando conquistó la muerte y resucitó de entre los muertos. Bautizaremos a 16 niños y 7 adultos esa noche, también recibirán los sacramentos de la Confirmación y la Eucaristía. Además, seis adultos de otra fe cristiana profesarán su fe en la Iglesia Católica y recibirán también los sacramentos de la Confirmación y la Eucaristía. Por favor, mantengan a estos nuevos católicos en sus oraciones. Nos regocijamos en la resurrección del Señor. ¡Aleluya, Él ha resucitado! ¡¡Feliz Semana Santa y Semana Santa!!

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord - Stewards Carry Crosses

“As they were marching out, they came upon a man of Cyrene, Simon by name; this man they pressed into service to carry his cross.” MATTHEW 27:32. The Lord calls us to love God and to love our neighbor. Every day we are presented with opportunities to love our neighbor and help him “carry his cross.” These opportunities aren’t usually big events, they are usually ordinary occurrences like helping someone carry their groceries or holding the door open for them. The key is putting the other person’s needs before our own and not expecting anything in return.
