Solemnity of St. Mary Magdalene, Our Patron

The actual Feast Day of St. Mary Magdalene is on July 22nd, but the feast is transferred to Sunday, July 20th for our parish since she is our patron saint. The readings proper to the feast will be used for our Masses rather than that of the 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time. I wish you a Happy Feast Day!

In the gospel proper to the feast day from John 20, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb that early Sunday morning. She wept because she could not find the body of Jesus, but her sorrow turned to joy as she encountered the Risen Lord. She was the first to witness the Lord's resurrection or to see the empty tomb. She was also the first that Jesus spoke with and commissioned to share the good news of his resurrection with his disciples. She fulfilled the command of the Risen Lord: "Go to my brethren and say to them, I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God." Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples 'I have seen the Lord' and she told them that he had said these things to her" (Jn 20:17-18). She became the "Apostle of the Apostles," who proclaimed the central joyous message of Easter to the other apostles.

Following the example of St. Mary Magdalene, we seek Jesus, listen to him, and then share his good news with those we encounter. We should not allow our past to stop us from celebrating the joy of meeting Jesus. We are called to be a joyful people. St. Mary Magdalene showed the resilience and love of women and the positive influence they have in the community. Through her love, she witnessed the resurrection of Jesus and became an apostle for the apostles. May we all share our faith and radiate the joy of the risen Lord to the world.

As we celebrate this feast day, I remind you of our parish mission statement which is: "We are one family in Christ with a welcoming heart called to serve." This statement says a lot about who we are as parishioners of St. Mary Magdalene Church. The welcoming spirit that exudes from parishioners is evident as you enter the church and see a true coming together of people of all nationalities, races, colors, and backgrounds in our parish. Our various ministries are avenues for people to feel at home in the parish. The smiles and greetings of our hospitality ministers as they welcome the faithful to the church every weekend are just something beautiful to see. I am proud of a parish with such spirit and diversity as we all strive to be one family of God.

Our mission statement says we are one family, but we acknowledge that we are not fully there yet. We must continue to work together to bring about this one family in Christ. Jesus Christ emphasized service to his disciples and that is what we are called to do. We are to serve the corporal and spiritual needs of our neighbors thereby evangelizing through our services.

Solemnidad de Nuestra Patrona, Santa María Magdalena

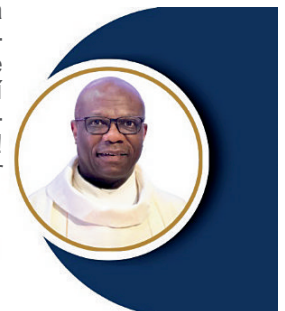

La festividad de Santa María Magdalena es el 22 de julio, pero por ser nuestra patrona, en nuestra parroquia se ha trasladado al domingo 20 de julio. Este día las lecturas propias de la festividad se usarán en nuestras misas en lugar de las de las del 16.º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario. ¡Feliz día de fiesta!

En el Evangelio de Juan 20, María Magdalena fue al sepulcro esa madrugada del domingo. Lloró al no encontrar el cuerpo de Jesús, pero su tristeza se convirtió en alegría al encontrarse con el Señor Resucitado. Fue la primera en presenciar la resurrección del Señor o en ver la tumba vacía. También, fue la primera con quien Jesús habló y a quien encargó compartir la buena nueva de su resurrección con sus discípulos. Cumplió el mandato del Señor Resucitado: «Ve a mis hermanos y diles: Subire a mi Padre y a vuestro Padre, a mi Dios y a vuestro Dios». María Magdalena fue y anunció a los discípulos: «He visto al Señor», y les contó que él le había dicho estas cosas (Jn 20,17-18). Ella se convirtió en la «Apóstol de los Apóstoles», quien proclamó el gozoso mensaje central de la Pascua a los demás apóstoles.

Siguiendo el ejemplo de Santa María Magdalena, buscamos a Jesús, lo escuchamos y compartimos su buena nueva con quienes nos encontramos. No debemos permitir que nuestro pasado nos impida celebrar la alegría de encontrarnos con Jesús. Estamos llamados a ser un pueblo alegre. Santa María Magdalena mostró la resiliencia y el amor de las mujeres, así como la influencia positiva que tienen en la comunidad. A través de su amor, fue testigo de la resurrección de Jesús y se convirtió en apóstol de los apóstoles. Que todos compartamos nuestra fe e irradiemos la alegría del Señor resucitado al mundo.

Al celebrar esta festividad, les recuerdo la declaración de misión de nuestra parroquia: "Somos una sola familia en Cristo con un corazón acogedor, llamados a servir". Esta declaración dice mucho sobre quiénes somos como feligreses de la Iglesia de Santa María Magdalena. El espíritu acogedor que emana de los feligreses se hace evidente al entrar a la iglesia y ver una verdadera unión de personas de todas las nacionalidades, razas, colores y orígenes en nuestra parroquia. Nuestros diversos ministerios son espacios para que la gente se sienta como en casa en la parroquia. Las sonrisas y los saludos de nuestros ministros de hospitalidad al dar la bienvenida a los fieles a la iglesia cada fin de semana es muy agradable y bonito de presenciar. Me enorgullece una parroquia con tanto espíritu y diversidad, mientras todos nos esforzamos por ser una sola familia de Dios.

Nuestra declaración de misión dice que somos una sola familia, pero reconocemos que aún no lo hemos logrado del todo. Debemos seguir trabajando juntos para lograr esta única familia en Cristo. Jesucristo enfatizó el servicio a sus discípulos y eso es a lo que estamos llamados a hacer. Debemos atender las necesidades corporales y espirituales de nuestro prójimo, evangelizando así a través de nuestros servicios. ¡Feliz día de fiesta a nuestra patrona! ¡Santa María Magdalena, ruega por nosotros!

Stewards Evangelize

"...I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God." COLOSSIANS 1:25. Stewards are called to evangelize – to convert individuals and society by the divine power of the Gospel. Our faith is more attractive to others by our actions than by our words alone. We may not be called to evangelize like St. Paul, but we should look for opportunities to share our faith through our actions and words, especially with those closest to us, like our family, friends, and neighbors. Pray for the courage to joyfully express your faith the next time the opportunity arises.
