Welcome Our New Associate Pastor: We warmly welcome Fr. Vincent Ubom, MSP, as our new associate pastor! Fr. Vincent was ordained a priest of the Missionary Society of St. Paul on June 20, 2015. After his ordination, he served in parishes in Nigeria before his recent appointment to the USA Region to continue his missionary work. Please extend a warm welcome to him and pray for him as he exercises his priestly ministry among us.

Vanity of vanities, all is vanity (Wisdom 1:2). Vanity is more than an excessive love of one's appearance. It also means emptiness. From the experience of Qoheleth, who authored the book of Wisdom, much of what we long for in life does not really satisfy. They still leave a void in the human person, one that only God can fill. According to St Augustine of Hippo, "our hearts are restless, Lord, until they rest in you".

In today's gospel, a man in the crowd asked Jesus to intervene in his family dispute over inheritance. Jesus used the occasion to teach a great lesson that one's life is not made secure by what one owns, even when one has more than one needs. This is an important lesson to learn. Using a parable, Jesus described how foolish it is to become possessed by one's possessions. The farmer in the parable had a lot of wealth that he became possessed and obsessed by what he owned. He felt he was secure because of his possessions. He forgot about others around him who needed just a little of what he stored in his barn to survive. Jesus condemned this behavior and called the man a 'fool' for forgetting God in whom his life is most secured. When the final hour came, the man had nothing to hold on to; he was empty. It is not what we have, but who we are that matters!

Jesus did not condemn material possessions or riches in themselves, but he wants us to set our hearts on what really matters. Rather than store up treasure for ourselves, we are to share whatever we have with others, make their lives better, and thereby store up treasures in heaven. The gospel reminds us that nothing we own really belongs to us. God gave us certain gifts, talents, treasures, and our time so that we can share them with others. They are not meant to be stacked away in storage but to be used. The more we use them, the more we gain in return.

The second reading from Colossians reminds us where our true life is and who we really are. Our life is in Christ, who is everything and in everything. Jesus is the answer to all the questions that we may have. And if Jesus did not answer it the way we want, we are to trust that he has better plans for us. Therefore, our love for Christ must surpass other kinds of love. If we are to have a secure life, we must look up to Christ and shun all forms of evil desires.

Have a very blessed week!!

Bienvenido a nuestro nuevo párroco asociado: Demos una cálida bienvenida al P. Vincent Ubom, MSP, como nuestro nuevo párroco asociado. El P. Vincent fue ordenado sacerdote de la Sociedad Misionera de San Pablo el 20 de junio de 2015. Tras su ordenación, sirvió en parroquias de Nigeria antes de su reciente nombramiento en la Región de EE. UU. donde continuara su labor misionera. Por favor demos una cálida bienvenida y oremos por él mientras ejerce su ministerio sacerdotal entre nosotros.

Vanidad de vanidades, todo es vanidad (Sabiduría 1:2). La vanidad es más que un amor excesivo por la apariencia. También significa vacío. Según la experiencia de Qohelet, autor del libro de la Sabiduría, muchos de nuestros anhelos en la vida no nos satisfacen realmente. Siguen dejando un vacío en la persona, un vacío que solo Dios puede llenar. Según San Agustín de Hipona: «Nuestros corazones están inquietos, hasta que descansen en ti Señor».

En el evangelio de hoy, un hombre entre la multitud le pidió a Jesús que interviniera en la disputa familiar por una herencia. Jesús aprovechó la ocasión para enseñar una gran lección: la seguridad de la vida no se basa en lo que se posee, incluso cuando se tiene más de lo necesario. Esta es una lección importante. Con una parábola, Jesús describió la insensatez de dejarse dominar por las posesiones. El granjero de la parábola tenía tanta riqueza que se obsesionó con ella. Se sentía seguro gracias a sus posesiones. Se olvidó de quienes lo rodeaban, quienes necesitaban solo un poco de lo que guardaba en su granero para sobrevivir. Jesús condenó este comportamiento y lo llamó «tonto» por olvidar a Dios, en quien su vida está más segura. Cuando llegó la hora final, el hombre no tenía nada a qué aferrarse; estaba vacío. ¡No importa lo que tenemos, sino quiénes somos!

Jesús no condenó las posesiones materiales ni las riquezas en sí mismas, sino que quiere que pongamos nuestro corazón en lo que realmente importa. En lugar de acumular tesoros para nosotros mismos, debemos compartir lo que tenemos con los demás, mejorar sus vidas y así acumular tesoros en el cielo. El Evangelio nos recuerda que nada de lo que poseemos nos pertenece realmente. Dios nos dio ciertos dones, talentos, tesoros y nuestro tiempo para que los compartamos. No están destinados a ser guardados, sino a ser utilizados. Cuanto más los usemos, más recibiremos a cambio.

La segunda lectura de Colosenses nos recuerda dónde está nuestra verdadera vida y quiénes somos realmente. Nuestra vida está en Cristo, quien es todo y está en todo. Jesús es la respuesta a todas nuestras preguntas. Y si Jesús no respondió como deseamos, debemos confiar en que tiene mejores planes para nosotros. Por lo tanto, nuestro amor por Cristo debe superar cualquier otro tipo de amor. Si queremos una vida segura, debemos admirar a Cristo y rechazar toda forma de malos deseos.

¡Que tengan una semana muy bendecida!

Fr. Felix I. Osasona, MSP

God centered Stewards

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." LUKE 12:15. The Gospel message is contrary to modern culture that continually tries to convince us that our joy comes from the material things we possess. That the more we acquire, the happier we will be. Jesus shows us that our true joy comes from our "invisible" gifts like love, mercy, and forgiveness. True joy comes from "emptying" ourselves, giving of ourselves rather than always taking. We are called not to hoard but to share. True joy comes from living Stewardship in a grateful and generous lifestyle. Become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered."
