

Me and My House

"As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." – Joshua 24:15

Session Six

Tuesday, October 11, 2022

Welcome to our faith, family, and friendship group! We'll help each other to build our unique families within the framework of our Faith. We will forge friendships and have a bit of fun while we fine tune our parenting skills. For our first session, we will:

Watch four videos in Module Two: Habits of Parenting

Discuss these questions:

Do you have "taboos" in your family – behavior which will not be tolerated?

How do you enforce these taboos?

Can you shape the culture of your family to avoid or correct behavioral problems?

How do your children play? Do they play actively, outdoors or indoors, or do they play video games?

Do you want to limit the time your children spend on screens? If so, how can you accomplish this?

Do your children have hobbies or interests outside of school? Do they have too many activities?

Is your family joyful?

How can gratitude lead to joy?

How can you foster a culture of joy and gratitude in your family?
