A PRAYER FOR ADVENT

O Lord Jesus Christ, make me worthy to understand the profound mystery of your holy incarnation, which you have worked for our sake and for our salvation. Truly there is nothing so great and wonderful as this, that you, my God, should become a creature so that we could become like God. You have humbled yourself and made yourself small, that we might be made mighty. Blessed are you, O Lord, who came to earth as one of us.

First Reconciliation

Practice—Monday, December 16th @ 6PM

Sacrament—Tuesday, December 17th @ 6:30PM

The Holy Name Society

The Holy Name Society is continuing with a day of prayer on the first Monday of each month. We are asking all Holy Name Members and all parishioners to take time on each first Monday of the month to attend morning Mass and also spend time in the Chapel to thank God for all our Blessings and to pray for our Church parish, Holy Rosary School and all personal intentions. If you cannot attend Mass or spend time in the Chapel, please take time at home to pray for all these intentions.

God Bless You

CHRISTMAS DÉCOR

Once again we will need poinsettias for part of our church décor. If any one is interested in honoring deceased loved ones as part of Christmas celebration for all the masses, please pick up an envelope on the back tables and once completed, drop off in the collection basket. A donation of $25 or more is requested. We thank you in advance for the continuous generosity we receive from our fellow parishioners. Deadline to donate is December 12, 2019.

SAINT JOHN OF DAMASCUS (c. 675-749) December 4

From almost 1300 years ago, John's message for the church's spirituality and mission is surprisingly contemporary. Pope Benedict said that in our modern culture of images, sacred images often speak more eloquently than words. This "incarnational theology," the concept that visible, tangible elements can give believers access to divine realities beyond, found an eloquent champion in John of Damascus. He challenged the Iconoclasts (image-breakers), whose misinterpretation of the biblical prohibition of idolatrous images (Exodus 20:4-5) led them to campaign for the destruction of all sacred art. Before this controversy, however, John bore witness to Christ in a way that provides a timely example for Christians in today's pluralistic society. Succeeding his grandfather and father, John served as chief financial officer to the Muslim caliph, professing his Christian faith without compromise, while winning the esteem of his Islamic sovereign by his competence and integrity. No wonder John could eloquently defend icons as "windows into heaven"—he had already learned to see Christ in the living icons of people different from himself yet fashioned in the same divine image!
