Dear Padre,

I feel guilty about putting my mother in a nursing home. Have I abandoned her?

Caring for aging, fragile parents is a responsibility that is increasing as people live longer due to advances in medical technology. Accompanying longer lives, however, is often poorer health. Frequently family members conclude that they don't have the wherewithal to care responsibly for their parents. So, they seek a nursing facility where parents may be properly cared for in terms of their physical, psychological, and even spiritual health. Nursing homes with staff that understand the needs of the elderly are a great assistance. They have experience with many elderly residents, while our experience may be limited to our own loved one.

The situation becomes more complicated when parents ask their children to "never put me into a nursing home." As difficult as it is to refuse this request, neither you nor your parent knows how much care will be needed, so a guarantee isn't fair to the family. The best response would be: "We'll look after you as long as we possibly can, and we would only consider a nursing home if your needs become more than we could handle, or if it were the only place where you could be safely cared for."

Sometimes guilt arises when we haven't had the best relationship with a parent, and regret things from our past. The best response then is to learn from the past and move forward. Commit to being more attentive, even though our parents no longer live with us. The worst abandonment would be depriving them of our love and affection.

A WORD FROM Pope Francis

Homes for the elderly...should be the "sanctuaries" of humanity where one who is old and weak is cared for and protected....It is so good to go visit an elderly person! Look at our children: sometimes we see them listless and sad; they go visit an elderly person and become joyful!

The Cost of Discipleship

In 1937, The Cost of Discipleship by a German Lutheran pastor, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, was published. The book reflected on the Sermon on the Mount, and the demands it outlined led to Bonhoeffer's arrest and eventual death at the hands of the Nazis. It can be very dangerous to be faithful to Jesus' way of life. This shouldn't surprise us. Jesus' teaching cost Jesus his life.

Though the Gospel reading does not provide us with a program of action, it repeats Jesus' charge to take up our cross and follow him. This cross is different for each of us; it makes very personal demands. We are called to lose our life for his sake. This was true at the time of Jesus; it is true today.

This was true at the time of the prophet Jeremiah as well. He was called to proclaim God's word to his own people. They would not listen. Instead, "I am an object of laughter; / everyone mocks me" (Jeremiah 20:7). The prophet wants relief from his prophetic responsibility. Who wouldn't? What follows is quite moving. He makes up his mind that he will stop talking about God—but he can't. "It [the word of God] is as if fire is burning in my heart... / I grow weary holding back" (Jeremiah 20:9). That is the cost Jeremiah had to pay. The cross was the cost Jesus paid. And what of us?

—Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

FOR Reflection

- ★ What is the cost of discipleship for you?
- ★ What in your life might be the cross you are being asked to bear?

Jesus said to his disciples,
"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me."

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, our Father in heaven, through the powerful intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hear the humble voices of your children. The sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former calmness; you are still the Master of land and sea. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies and protect us from future storms. Amen.

HURRICANE PREPAREDNESS FOR CEMETERY

Should a hurricane or tropical storm come our way, we ask you to pick up any flowers and containers you have in the cemetery. If you choose not to do so, we cannot guarantee that they will be there after the storm.

YOUTH FAITH FORMATION

OPPORTUNITIES TO GROW IN FAITH AND LIVE OUT OUR MISSION AS DISCIPLES FOR JESUS CHRIST

K-11 REGISTRATION

It's TIME to register for the upcoming year! Our start date will be delayed due to current circumstances; however, we do want families to register their children so we can prepare a plan based on enrollment numbers. There will be NO fee (except for $10 sacramental fee for 2nd and 11th grades) to attend Youth Formation at any age level this year. However, there are costs associated with programs we may need in this time of uncertainty that will help us with creative solutions to help the youth of our parish know Jesus in a meaningful way. Donations are appreciated to help defray these costs and will be accepted online or by mail. Registration will continue through September and can now be accepted on our website at www.olrlarose.org/youth-formation

Paper copies of the form are also available in church, the office, and our website.

ADULT MENTORS NEEDED

Is God calling you to serve to grow in relationship with Him? If so, please consider volunteering your time as an Adult Mentor for our youth. Our mentors don't just teach, but walk with our youth on their faith journey. Support and training are available. Mentors are needed for many grades.

JOIN OUR TEAM to make a difference in the life of our Young Church!
