Dear Padre,

God gave humanity the skills for a child to be born to those suffering from infertility. So why does the Church oppose in vitro fertilization (IVF) after a couple has exhausted other options to conceive?

While the Church views having, raising, and educating children as a primary purpose of marriage, it also teaches that the means to achieve that goal must be morally appropriate. The Church considers in vitro fertilization (Latin for fertilization “in glass” or a laboratory) to be a morally inappropriate means for attaining that goal for two main reasons:

First, in practice, the IVF process almost always results in the destruction of living human embryos that do not get implanted in the woman, which the Church considers morally equivalent to abortion. Second, just as the Church teaches contraception is wrong because it entails the willful separation of the natural ends of the marital act, it also teaches that IVF is wrong because it replaces the dignity of the marital act with a technical procedure. In other words, IVF supersedes the act God willed to be the genesis of new life.

In addition, IVF demeans the dignity of the spouses and their parental role (and the dignity of a third-party sperm or egg donor, if one is involved).

All of this deprives the resulting child of a true filial relationship with his or her parents, turning the child into a technological commodity rather than a gift from God.

Couples must be careful not to become so obsessed with pregnancy that they lose perspective and fail to see other expressions of marital generativity, such as adoption, that expand marriage and provide a home to children who wouldn’t otherwise have one.

We are living in a time of experimentation with life. But it is harmful experimentation. Making children, rather than accepting them as a gift, as I said. Playing with life. Be careful, because this is a sin against the Creator: against God the Creator, who created things this way.

SHUTTERSTOCK

Times Are a-Changin’

Today's Gospel expands a theme mentioned on the fourth Sunday of Easter, namely, change in religious practice. Many good people find some Second Vatican Council changes difficult to accept. For example, they may not like the new Mass form or leniency in Church discipline. They prefer Latin chants and the organ rather than folk music with guitars. This dissatisfaction is not necessarily because they are stubborn or unbending. It could be they were taught that the truth of the Church is eternal and unchanging, and want to see that reflected in the liturgy.

Actually, such understanding of the unchanging Church is only partially correct. The fundamentals of our faith as expressed in the Creed have not changed. It is the ways we understand or practice our faith that have gradually developed. For instance, the Mass is still the Mass, with three essential parts. Yet, the wording of some prayers have changed, and at Mass we stand more and kneel less. Most are cultural changes, but there are some changes in theological understandings too. We now recognize the religious value of other faith traditions; interfaith marriage is allowed with special permission; and we understand the teachings of the Bible in new ways.

Today's reading from Acts shows that, from its beginning, the Church changed. Paul and Barnabas did not require Gentile believers to conform to circumcision—a Jewish practice, not Christian. Dissent arose. But the Holy Spirit helped the leaders in Jerusalem move beyond long-standing past practices and into a new way of being faithful. We believe the Holy Spirit continues to work through believers to ensure that the gospel is always faithful, yet newly meaningful.

PRO-LIFE CALL FOR PRAYER & FASTING

On December 1, 2021, the US Supreme Court heard oral arguments for the Dobbs vs. Jackson case which involves a Mississippi Law that protects preborn children from abortion after 15 weeks gestation except when there are risks to the life of the mother or fatal fetal anomalies. The state of Mississippi argued for their law, as well as for the court to overturn the 1973 Roe vs. Wade decision which essentially removed legal protection for innocent unborn children in our country. If Roe vs. Wade is overturned, the decision to limit or prohibit abortion will go back to each individual state. The Supreme Court is expected to publish its ruling in this case in late June or July of 2022. Please pray, fast, and offer your small penances daily that God's plan be accomplished through this decision. Pray to open the hearts and minds of our Supreme Court Justices that they will protect the unborn.

DIED IN CHRIST

Carole & Carroll LeBlanc

Eternal rest, grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
Amen.

DIOCESE OF HOUMA-THIBODAUX: NEW MINISTRY

Red Bird Ministries, created by Ryan and Kelly Breaux out of the Diocese of Lafayette, is a ministry that helps parents and families having encountered child loss at any stage (miscarriage, infant, young or older child) to grieve together and ground their suffering in the Cross and Sacraments. Child loss is a complex and traumatic experience, but parents can receive help in navigating grief and beginning the healing process. Red Bird does this through various means such as retreats, workshops, small groups, individual ministry and resources. In our Diocese, Red Bird Ministries programs are currently being offered through St. Hilary in Raceland. For all interested in being part of Red Bird, please call St. Hilary at 985-537-6002 to speak with those leading the effort. We wanted to specifically bring to your attention two upcoming events that will be available: A Couples Workshop led by Ryan and Kelly will take place at St. Hilary on Saturday, June 25th from 8AM-5PM (including a Vigil Mass at 4PM). The cost is $20 per person. This event will be particularly for parents of child loss. A Mother's Retreat, September 16th-18th, taking place at Lumen Christi Retreat Center will also be led by Ryan and Kelly, plus their team. More details as far as schedule and cost will be available soon.
