Dear Padre,

In the Scripture passages about Jesus in the desert, it says he was alone. How do we know about things that happened to Jesus when he was alone?

In today's Gospel, we hear one passage about the temptation of Jesus in the desert. Matthew, Mark, and Luke all refer to this incident, but none indicates that anyone was with Jesus.

There were witnesses to many incidents in the life of Jesus. But sometimes the disciples of Jesus depended on his instruction. The first Christians heard about Jesus' instruction and life from the apostles. This preaching of the apostles occurred before Matthew, Mark, Luke, or John wrote anything down.

Over time, the evangelists gathered this preaching together and put it in written form. Gradually these writings became accepted as the gospel, inspired by the Holy Spirit. The apostles were witnesses to what Jesus said and did, so Jesus did tell them things that others did not hear about until later.

Whatever Jesus experiences, he redeems. That means that while temptations are part of our life, they do not have to lead us away from God. Jesus shows us the way to meet them and overcome them. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

May this time of Lent also be a time of the desert for us. Let us take time for silence and prayer—just a little, it will do us good—in these spaces let us stop and look at what is stirring in our hearts....placing ourselves before the Word of God in prayer.

ANGELUS, ST. PETER'S SQUARE, MARCH 6, 2022

Jesus said in reply, “It is written,
‘The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve.’”

MATTHEW 4:10

The Gift of Boredom

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Boredom is not a bad thing. It’s a good thing. In fact, boredom is a gift. Lost in boredom, we begin to explore new interests and develop unrealized talents. We daydream and begin to form new hopes for our future. For these reasons, periods of boredom are especially good for children and why computers and mobile phones become distinct drawbacks for children and adults alike. It is also in the reverie of boredom that we find ourselves recognizing our limitations, faults, and weaknesses as human beings—the beginning steps to growth and wholeness.

Being bored can be like living in a desert, and that’s not a bad thing to do once in a while. Deserts and their absence of anything to distract us become places where we come to know ourselves. It’s what took place in Jesus on his journey into the desert. There, he was confronted by his humanity in the temptations he experienced.

There, he came to realize his calling and the beginnings of where it would take him. There, in the desert, he came to know himself.

The season of Lent, then, becomes an opportunity for us to create a desert for ourselves. Putting limits on our television and computer time can create a desert. Snacking between meals can become a mindless distraction; thus, fasting can become another desert. Setting aside time for quiet and prayerful reflection becomes one more such desert experience. A grace of this Lent would then become a fuller and more honest knowledge of ourselves—a kind of resurrection. ●

Reflect

Do you deal with boredom in a healthy way?

HOLY ROSARY LEGACY CORNER

BRING NEW LIFE TO AN OLD POLICY

When you were young, did your parents provide you with a “juvenile” life insurance policy? When your own kids were still at home and in need of protection, did you take out additional life insurance?

Many people have old, paid-up life insurance policies such as those described above that are no longer needed for their original purpose. It might be satisfying to rededicate these surplus policies to “insuring” our future...with excellent tax results.

Consider the case of a father, age 65, whose two children completed college many years ago and are now married and financially independent. The father took out a $100,000 insurance policy when he was 30 years old that was intended to help cover the cost of the children's college education in the event of his premature death. This policy was never needed for the purpose, and now has a cash surrender value of about $35,000.

If all rights of ownership in this policy were contributed, the father would receive an income tax deduction of approximately $35,000, which would save considerable taxes on next year's tax return. Alternatively, the policy might be split into two $50,000 policies and the father could contribute one and retain the other.

2023 ANNUAL BISHOP'S APPEAL—

THANK YOU MESSAGE

Father Duc Bui and the ministries of the diocese would like to thank everyone in Our Lady of the Rosary Catholic Church Parish and all people throughout the Diocese of Houma-Thibodaux for answering the call of prayers and generosity to the 2023 Annual Bishop's Appeal. The generosity and prayers from our diocese has received reminds us that hope is in us all, but more importantly it is in the most important person—Jesus. Thus far, Our Lady of the Rosary Catholic Church parish has reached 22.91% of its appeal goal, thank you. If you have yet to make your commitment and would like to still do so, there is still time as you can use the QR Code, return your commitment card in the offertory, or simply mail it to the diocese in the provided envelope, or you may also visit www.htdiocese.org/bishopsappeal to make your gift online.
