Families in Service Ministry-Breakfast Bags for Children in Need

Our Kindergarten and First Grade Service Initiative working with our Families in Service Ministry will be having a "Breakfast Bag" drop off on Saturday, October 18th from 8:00AM to 9:00 AM in the Saint Anne's parking lot. Families who wish to participate are asked to involve their children in filling a reusable bag with non-perishable breakfast foods. Drivers will be ready to collect and deliver the bags to a local food pantry which serves people in need. Working together through Families in Service to provide a nutritious breakfast for families who are struggling is a wonderful way to answer God's call for us to love and serve one another.

If you are planning to participate in the Breakfast Bag project, please email Mary Robinson, School Service Coordinator at lynchetes3@aol.com by Tuesday, October 14th.

In addition, you may want to include a bag of candy to "sweeten" their Halloween celebration.

Things to Remember:

- All decorating must be done at home.
- Submissions may begin on Monday 10/27- Wednesday 10/29, late pumpkins may not be accepted.
- Be creative!

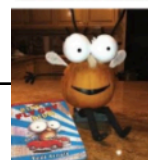

Pumpkin Decorating Contest Grades Nursery - 8th grade

Directions

1. Students need to design and decorate a pumpkin that showcases a character. For ideas & inspiration you can go to the library or online.
 2. The main part of your entry must be a pumpkin, but the rest of the decorations (paint, glue, fabric, yarn, glitter, etc.) are up to your imagination.
 3. You must use a real pumpkin.
 4. All students need to supply their own pumpkin. Pumpkins can be no larger than a soccer ball.
- NO CARVED OR HOLLOWED OUT PUMPKINS WILL BE ACCEPTED!
(Carved pumpkins rot, attract bugs & do not have a pleasant odor.)
5. All submissions should be brought to school on Monday, October 30th.
 6. Students must be able to carry the pumpkin into school without assistance. Younger students may want to choose smaller pumpkins.
 7. A Faculty Committee will judge the contest.
 8. Pumpkins will be sent home on Friday, October 31st.
