

Winter Reading

After completing an activity, color in the box. Do all activities and get a prize!! You must read a different book for each box.

Check your public library website and sign up for a virtual program or use one of their other services.	Have a story read to you online. Try storylineonline.net .	Read a winter themed book.	Read in the car.	Read a book about an animal that lives in a cold climate.
Read to a sibling, pet, or stuffed animal	Read a book about Martin Luther King, Jr.	Read a book with a one word title.	Practice reading your prayers in the front of your religion book.	Make a cozy tent with blankets and read under it.
Read a book with "snow" or "ice" in the title.	Read a fiction book.	Free Choice	Read a non-fiction book.	Read a chapter book.
Read a book that has won an award.	Read a book in a series.	Read a book about Presidents Day or one of the presidents of the US.	Read a book featuring a famous Black American.	Read a cereal (or other food) box.
Read a Valentine's Day book.	Read a book to someone on Zoom, FaceTime, etc.	Read a book with the word "love" in the title.	Read a poem.	In honor of Catholic Schools Week, read a book about school or with "school" in the title.