St. Catherine Labouré Parish Coat of Arms Reveal

In my bulletin article this week, I am announcing some truly exciting news. We have a new St. Catherine Labouré Parish Coat of Arms! As we continue to build a brand for our parish, this coat of arms will become our parish logo. A parish logo is hugely important to our identity and will greatly increase the recognition of our parish across multiple platforms. In addition to the design of the coat of arms (found below), what follows is a description of the rich symbolism that the new St. Catherine Labouré Parish Coat of Arms contains:

The newly designed coat of arms of St. Catherine of Labouré Parish is based in the tradition of heraldry in the Catholic Church. In the Middle Ages, shields, banners, and other implements were painted with distinctive elements to distinguish their bearers in the confusion of battle. Over time, these designs were adopted even by priests, bishops, and organizations within the Church — who bear them, not for use in the violence of physical combat, but for the spiritual struggle which characterizes our pilgrim journey in this life.

The primary element of the design is therefore a shield, reminding us of the words of Saint Paul to the Ephesians: "in all circumstances take up the shield of faith" (6:16).

Upon the shield is emblazoned the symbol of the Miraculous Medal, revealed directly to St. Catherine Labouré in a vision from the Blessed Mother. The letter M, standing for the Holy Name of Mary, is intertwined with a Cross — a symbol of the unbreakable link between Jesus Christ and his Mother, and a reminder that our prayers and devotion to the Mother of God always lead us to her Son.

From the arms of the Cross, the parish coat of arms adds two fleurs-de-lis. The fleur-de-lis, a stylized lily, is an ancient symbol both of the Blessed Mother and of the nation of France. Here, the two lilies recall the patrons of the two churches of our parish, which are dedicated to the French saints Joan of Arc and Louise de Marillac. The fleurs-de-lis emerge directly from the arms of the Cross, like fruit from the branches of a tree. The Cross is the Tree of Life, and we are called to remain joined to Christ, the True Vine: "If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing" (John 15:5).

The colors of the shield are also symbolic. The black background combined with the silver and gold of the symbols calls to mind the signature colors of the City of Pittsburgh and the coat of arms of our own Diocese of Pittsburgh. More spiritually, the gold of the Cross reminds us of the Kingship of Jesus Christ, while the silver of the Marian symbols reminds us that Mary reflects with perfect clarity the grace of God, just as the Moon reflects the light of the Sun.

The St. Catherine Labouré Parish Coat of Arms recalls the intimate relationship between Jesus and his Mother. It bears witness to their essential roles in our spiritual life. At the same time, it also honors the saints, St. Joan of Arc and St. Louise de Marillac, under whose patronage the Parish of Saint Catherine Labouré intercedes before the throne of God.

“COMFORT THE MOURNING”

In the Order of Christian Funerals, we read: When a member of Christ's body dies, the faithful are called to a ministry of consolation to those who have suffered a loss of one they love. They are called to “comfort the mourning.” It is within this call to “comfort the mourning” that Saint Catherine Labouré Parish is launching a new ministry, that of Funeral Liturgy Planner.

In this role, Funeral Liturgy Planners meet and assist families in preparing the Mass of Christian Burial that honors their loved one.

Their duties include:

1. Offering condolences and the prayers on behalf of Saint Catherine Labouré Parish Family.
2. Assisting families fill out the Saint Catherine Labouré Parish Funeral Liturgy Planning Guide and then passing that along to the appropriate staff.
3. Attending the funeral Mass to greet, seat the deceased family members and guide the readers and gift bearers during the funeral Mass.

For more information on becoming a Funeral Liturgy Planner, please contact: Marcella Lantzman (mlantzman@scplpgh.org) or Deacon Rick Cessar (rcessar@scplpgh.org) or by calling 412-833-1010.

Let Us Gather Together to Pray Liturgy of the Hours

PLEASE NOTE NEW SCHEDULE

Morning Prayer with group recitation is held at Saint Louise Church after the 9:00am Mass on Mondays and after the 7:00am Mass Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. Easy to follow booklets are provided.

SAINT CATHERINE LABOURÉ MONTHLY PARISH SUPPORT

In order to provide a more comprehensive view of our offertory collections, we will be publishing the monthly collection totals in place of the weekly collection. The entire monthly offertory total will appear in the first bulletin of the following month. For example, the total October offertory collection will be published in the November 5th bulletin.

We will share the goal, total collections and actual expenses for the month. We hope this will provide you with a better picture of parish funding.

The Usher Ministry Program is still actively trying to recruit new ushers to serve as ambassadors by warmly greeting, assisting and seating those entering the church. We are having trouble with the Sunday Noon and 4:30pm Masses at Saint Louise Church. Often times, only one person is scheduled to serve and has difficulty being a welcoming ambassador while hectically recruiting parishioners to help with collections.

Please consider joining this worthwhile ministry. Any adult parishioner, men or women, and high school students are welcomed to join.

Please contact Tony Andreaggi at andreaggi@comcast.net or 412-965-5178.

Many of us have questions when faced with a chronic or terminal illness, for ourselves or a loved one. What does the church teach about decisions regarding end-of-life care? What about artificial hydration and feedings? Can I refuse certain treatments? What is hospice care? How does it differ from Palliative Care? When is it appropriate to consider Hospice Care? Does insurance pay for hospice care?

Daniel Iracki, MD, Meghan Anderson, LCSW, Father Jon Brzek and Deacon Rick Cessar, will present an insightful discussion to address these sensitive questions with honesty and compassion.

PARISH NURSE MINISTRY

Palliative and Hospice Care

It is important for older adults to plan to make their end-of-life preferences known. There are options for those who are seriously ill. Palliative care is specialized medical care for people living with serious illnesses. Patients may receive care for their symptoms along with treatments meant to cure their illness. At some point it might not be possible to cure a serious illness, or the person may decide not to undergo certain treatments. This kind of situation is where hospice care can be initiated. Hospice care is intended for patients that are seriously ill and their doctor thinks they only have a short time to live. Usually, 6 months or less. Curative treatments are discontinued, and symptomatic treatment is provided by specially trained medical personnel. Along the way, if circumstances arise the patient may come off hospice care to resume treatment. Hospice care can then be re-initiated later.

Spiritual Adoption A Message from Your Baby: Month 9

CONGRATULATIONS, I AM HERE.

As you know, my birth was not the beginning of my life. My life began nine months ago when my parents contributed the genetic materials to form this unique human being. At that miraculous moment I also received my soul from God making me an immortal being. God's plan for me is to live my life on earth and then join him in my heavenly home.

Thank-You on behalf of all babies and their mothers for your loving prayers that helped them bring God's gift of life into this world "so that they may have life, and have it abundantly" John 10:10

Please continue praying the Spiritual Adoption prayer for the thousands of babies who are in danger of abortion.
