Catholic Corner

1. Where does the Bible say that the Mass is a sacrifice?

Of all of the Catholic doctrines that are denigrated by Fundamentalists as unbiblical, the sacrifice of the Mass has perhaps the most scriptural evidence that Fundamentalists and Catholics are unaware of.

During the Last Supper, the Lord said to his disciples, "Do this in memory of me." In Greek, this statement reads, "Touto poieite eis tan eman anamnesin." There are two aspects of this phrase that deserve consideration. For one, the phrase touto poieite can be translated as do this or as offer this. In the Old Testament, God commands the Israelites "you shall offer (poieseis) upon the altar two lambs" (Ex. 29:38). This use of poiein is translated as offer this or sacrifice this over seventy times in the Old Testament. So the same word that is used for the sacrifice under the Old Covenant is used for the sacrifice of the Mass in the New.

The second key aspect of this phrase is Our Lord's use of the word anamnesin. If you were to ask a Protestant to look in a Greek Translation of his Bible, every time this word (anamnesis) appears it is within a sacrificial context (see, for example, Numbers 10:10). It also can be translated as memorial offering or memorial sacrifice. While these nuances are lost in the English translation, Jewish ears would have understood the sacrificial meaning of Christ's words.

Another New Testament passage that testifies to the sacrificial nature of the Mass is 1 Corinthians 10:14–21. Here Paul argues that participation in the Lord's table means refusing to participate in the sacrifices of demons. Paul contrasts two groups: The first are those who participate in one altar (the table of demons), eating the sacrifice and drinking from the cup of demons. The second are those who partake of the table of the Lord (which, according to Malachi 1:7 is synonymous with an altar of sacrifice) and drink from the cup of the Lord. Paul's argument is based upon the parallelism between the demonic sacrifice and the Christian sacrifice. Hebrews 13:10 follows this thought, saying that we have an altar from which those who serve the tent (Jewish priests serving in the temple) have no right to eat. Written by Jason Evert

The Diocese of Fargo will be hosting the Made for Greatness Men's Leadership Summit on July 22-24 at Stiklestad Lodge near Fort Ransom, ND. The Summit will form and equip parish groups of men to step into Christ's mission to lead in their parishes and communities. Through spiritual formation, leadership training, and practical "how-to's" men will be given tools to help themselves and other men become the husbands, fathers, brothers, and men of God that God has called them to be. You can sign up in the back of the church, speak with Fr. Goodwin. If you are interest and visit www.fargodiocese.org/mfg to find out more.

Director of Religious Education for St. Maurice

This position can be broken down into separate positions if you are interested in only one area. Contact Father Goodwin or Len Splichal for more information.

Women's Retreat: Into His Likeness- Be Transformed As A Disciple of Christ

In the world of Jesus, being a disciple meant imitating the life of the master. A disciple followed and lived with the master, studied, shared meals, and prayed with him.

The goal for a disciple was to learn a way of life, teachings, and prayers to bring others to God. Shouldn't that be our goal as well?

You are invited to come away for a weekend retreat at Maryvale and let Jesus teach you. Spend time with Jesus in prayer and gain a glimpse into the heart of God.
