It's a short opera about a little boy and his visit from the three wise men and will feature OUR OWN Kindred students! We are offering free tickets to students and pastors and encouraging churches to bring their youth on December 3! We have made a signup link for churches to help serve the cookies after the event as well if anyone is interested. In light of all the crazy in the world, it may be a fun way to gather together as a faith community at the start of the season.
