

"You are invited! Come along with me!"

May 26, 2019—Sixth Sunday of Easter

26 de mayo de 2019—Sexto Domingo de Pascua

May the peoples praise you, O God; may all the peoples praise you!
 — Psalm 67:6

Oh Dios, que te alaben los pueblos, que todos los pueblos te alaben.
 — Salmo 67 (66):6

Thank you, Thank you, Thank you!
 FIESTA THANK YOU!

Great gratitude to Diana Galvan, Cindy Perea and Luz Morales for organizing and agonizing, coordinating and encouraging our annual St. John Vianney Fiesta, along with a multitude of parish and school volunteers, parents and youth. The Carnival rides and games, international foods and beverages, and class entertainment were as enticing as ever.

Unfortunately, the rain got the upper hand and severely affected attendance on both Saturday and Sunday. Undaunted, though, our leaders and volunteers made heroic efforts to brave the storm, while still providing quality foods and entertainment to the few who attended. Bravo!

Thank you for your presence and all the hours put into this "labor of love"! The clean-up and safety crews also helped create a family friendly and clean atmosphere worthy of our St. John Vianney Community. Gratefully,
 Padre Steven

Gracias, Gracias, Gracias!
 ¡FIESTA GRACIAS!

Gran agradecimiento a Diana Galvan, Cindy Perea and Luz Morales por organizar y agonizar, coordinar y alentar a nuestra Fiesta anual de San Juan Vianney, junto con una multitud de voluntarios de la parroquia y de la escuela, padres y jóvenes. Los juegos mecánicos y juegos del carnaval, las comidas y bebidas internacionales y el entretenimiento de clase fueron tan tentadores como siempre.

Desafortunadamente, la lluvia se impuso y la asistencia se vio severamente afectada en ambos días sábado y Domingo. Sin desanimarse, sin embargo, nuestros líderes y voluntarios hicieron esfuerzos heroicos para desafiar la tormenta, sin dejar de proporcionar alimentos de calidad y entretenimiento a los pocos que asistieron. ¡Bravo!

Gracias por su presencia y todo el tiempo invertido en este ¡"trabajo de amor"! Los equipos de limpieza y seguridad ayudaron a crear un ambiente familiar y limpio digno de nuestra comunidad de San Juan Vianney. Muy agradecido,
 Padre Steven

Family Discussion: Parents are always helping their children prepare for something, whether that consists of getting ready for school, preparing for an exam, or making preparations to go on vacation. In today's Gospel, Jesus prepares his disciples for his Passion, death, and Resurrection. He promises his Holy Spirit, gives them the gift of his peace, and tells them not to be troubled.

As a family, talk about the kinds of events that you have prepared for together; surgeries, funerals, vacations, and first days of school are some examples. Talk about why it is important to prepare for important events in our lives. Then read aloud this Sunday's Gospel: John 14:23-29. Talk about how Jesus prepared his disciples for his Death and Resurrection and how he wanted them to be prepared for what would happen so that they would be able to believe.

Talk about how, as a family, you can prepare for Pentecost (only 2 weeks away), when we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit, our Advocate.

Theme: John 14:23-29 Jesus promises his disciples that the Father will send the Advocate, the Holy Spirit.

Summary: This passage is a continuation of what is often referred to as the farewell discourse of Jesus. As he prepares to return to the Father, he promises to send the disciples an Advocate, the Holy Spirit. It is the Holy Spirit that will teach and guide them in their discernment. Although the disciples band together out of fear, once the Holy Spirit comes upon them, they become bold in their faith and learn that, with the help of the Holy Spirit, they can discern the foundational beginnings of the Church.

Scripture: "I am leaving you with a gift—peace of mind and heart. And the peace I give is a gift the world cannot give. So don't be troubled or afraid. Remember what I told you: 'I am going away, but I will come back to you again.'"

John 14:27-28a

When Jesus told his disciples that he was going to return to his Father, they were afraid. What would happen to them? Would the enemies recognize them as his followers and try to harm them?

Jesus knew that his disciples were afraid and he offered these words to comfort them. "I am leaving you with a gift -- peace of mind and heart. Don't be troubled or afraid. Remember what I have told you: 'I am going away, but I will come back to you again. I will come and get you, so that you will always be with me.'"

These words were a great comfort to his disciples and they are a great comfort to us today. When Jesus returned to his Father heaven, he asked the Father to send the Holy Spirit to comfort his disciples until the day when he returned. That includes you and me! What a wonderful gift Jesus has given us — peace of mind and heart. We no longer have anything to fear. Whenever we find ourselves in the dark or in the storms of life, Jesus is with us.

Father, we thank you for the Holy Spirit who guides us and calms our fears. We also thank you for the promise that one day we will be in Heaven with Jesus. In his name we pray, amen.

Sexto Domingo de Pascua

La Pascua llega a los no-judíos

La primera lectura recuerda un momento coyuntural de la Iglesia naciente en el que los Apóstoles se vieron enfrentados a una pregunta inédita de profundas consecuencias. La cuestión es esta: a la vista de lo que significa la Ley de Moisés, que fue dada por Dios, ¿deben los paganos cumplir esa Ley? Un modo breve y un tanto dramático de plantear esto mismo es: ¿hay que circuncidar a los cristianos venidos del paganismo? La circuncisión, en efecto, es la puerta a la observancia de toda la Ley.

Las dos posturas tenían quién las apoyara. Por un lado, la sabiduría y santidad de esa Ley, que por mucho tiempo fue la señal de elección y el motivo válido de orgullo de los judíos, no se ve por qué no puedas o deban llegar a los no judíos. Por otro lado, si es verdad que somos salvos esencialmente por la fe y es ella sola quien nos abre la puerta a la gracia de Cristo, ¿en qué sentido es necesaria la Ley antigua, como si faltara alguna perfección a la gracia que ha venido precisamente para hacer perfecto lo que la Ley de Moisés no podía alcanzar? Al final, como escuchamos, quedó en vigor esta segunda propuesta, avalada por el testimonio misionero de Pablo, el discurso de Santiago y la autoridad de Pedro.

Esta reunión de Apóstoles y otros discípulos, en la que se pudo discutir y solventar la cuestión de la Ley y los cristianos venidos del mundo pagano, es conocida como el Primer Concilio de la Iglesia, o Concilio de Jerusalén. A lo largo de los siglos la Iglesia ha tenido que apelar muchas veces a ese mismo recurso: reunir a sus obispos, en cuanto sucesores de los apóstoles, para discernir, con la ayuda del Espíritu Santo, cuestiones doctrinales, morales, litúrgicas o pastorales de gran alcance. La última de esas reuniones fue el Concilio Vaticano II.

El Espíritu Santo y el Resucitado

¿Quién entre nosotros no ha anhelado eso que sería estar en tiempos de Cristo, poder verlo “en vivo”? Él mismo lo predijo: “Vendrán días cuando ansiaréis ver uno de los días del Hijo del Hombre, y no lo veréis.” (Lucas 17,22). Y sin embargo, Jesús no era Superman, antes de la cruz, ni es el Hombre Invisible después de la resurrección. El mismo amor, la misma unción que hizo posible su ministerio público, su donación y gloria en la Cruz y su bendita resurrección, ese mismo Espíritu Santo está ahora vivo y actuando en nosotros.

Al Espíritu Santo se atribuye el singular milagro de amor que es la Encarnación del Hijo único de Dios. Nada de extraño entonces que ese mismo Espíritu prolongue de algún modo esa Encarnación no en el sentido de conservar al Cristo glorioso entre nosotros en esta tierra sino haciéndonos ya desde esta tierra más y más semejantes al Cristo del Cielo.
