Easter Sunday of The Resurrection of the Lord

Alleluia, he is risen. Truly, he is risen.

In the first reading, Peter preaches about the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. The second reading encourages believers of Christ to think of what is above, not what is on earth. In the Gospel, Mary Magdalen, Peter and the beloved disciple witness the empty tomb. Peter is confused, but the beloved disciple sees the empty tomb and believes.

If work needs to be done to a headstone or grave you must first contact Charles Posinski.

The significance of the empty tomb was seemingly beyond the comprehension of Peter and Mary Magdalen. It was the beloved apostle, John, who understood the implication. He saw and believed. When we trust whole-heartedly in Christ, we witness things that seemingly defy human comprehension. Easter is evidence of that. The love of the cross triumphs over sin and death. From humiliation, brutality and pain come redemption and salvation. Alleluia indeed!
