Dear Padre

Why does my priest tell me it's not OK for Catholics to be cremated and have their ashes scattered?

An answer from Catholic Tradition needs to start with reminding ourselves that respect for the dignity of the human person, who is a union of body and soul, is a core moral principle. We must keep this in mind as we make decisions throughout life and into death. Cremation is not forbidden by the Church, but the scattering of ashes is. According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, "The Church permits cremation, provided that it does not demonstrate a denial of faith in the resurrection of the body" (CCC 2301). The scattering of ashes represents a denial of our Christian belief in the resurrection of the body in both its communal and individual elements. The cremated remains represent the human person and are a sign of how God blessed us through this person. Dispersing these ashes over a lake or field is inappropriate because final closure to our earthly life should include remaining with the community of faith, even in death, as we await the resurrection of the body. The remains also symbolize the individuality of that person, and burying them in consecrated ground or putting them in a columbarium honors the unique sacredness of the person's life. That's why Catholic cemeteries provide space for the remains of those who are cremated. It also provides a place where loved ones can show respect for the remains—a place and space that doesn't exist when cremated remains are scattered.

The More Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Through simple signs of bread and wine, the profound gift of Jesus is made present to us.

In the first reading, Moses tells the people they must know hunger to appreciate the manna the Lord provided. In the second reading, Saint Paul professes faith in the Eucharist and calls believers to unity around the Eucharistic table. In the Gospel, Jesus creates controversy by proclaiming to be living bread come down from heaven. He says that all who eat this living bread shall live forever.

Dear Parishioners of St. Stanislaus,

Allow me to say a sincere Thank You to everyone who helped make my 50th Anniversary of Priestly Ordination a happy and joyous celebration. It is always good to come "home" which I do often. A special thanks goes to Fr. Jo Jo for his kind welcome; and to the Altar Society, the St. Stanislaus Choir, the Altar Servers and the Knights of Columbus, Tommy Szymczak and Russell Paskett and all who helped make the day one to remember for many years. Ladies: the homemade cakes were delicious and will not soon be forgotten.

Please keep me in your prayers as I will pray for you, And May Our Blessed Mother, Mary, the Mother of Jesus the High Priest inspire other young men to hear and answer "yes" to His call to follow him as priests and consecrated religious.

Blessings to All,
Fr. Adam McClosky
