Dear Padre

NOVEMBER 12, 2017

How will it happen that Jesus will come again and lead us "through the gates"? Do you think that this will happen any time soon?

We have it from the best of authorities that the date of the world's end is hidden. Jesus said: "But of that day and hour no one knows, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father alone (Matthew 24:36).

In spite of Christ's admonition that the day of his Second Coming is known but to God, there have been countless false prophets who have confidently but incorrectly predicted a date for the end of the world. Most of these foolish forecasters based their claims on their misinterpretation of the Book of Revelation.

Throughout history, many have attempted to use the Book of Revelation as a timetable. They misinterpreted symbols and numbers as a forecast of what would happen in their own century. Over and over again, such people have used Revelation to predict the end of the world. The world might end tomorrow, in five billion years, or somewhere in between. Jesus tells us we can't know for sure. We are sure, however, that this world will pass away. And for each one of us the world will end at the moment of death. What matters is that we should always be ready to meet Christ, our Judge. And we shall be ready if we follow Christ, our Shepherd. Jesus leads us safely through this life by his teaching, his example, and his grace.

November 12, 2017
32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today, as we hear about the kingdom of heaven, we are reminded to be steadfast in our Christian faith, hope and love.

The first reading reminds us that wisdom is found by those who desire and seek her. The second reading exhorts us to live buoyed by the hope of eternal life in heaven. In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the ten virgins, which reminds us of the importance of staying awake for we do not know the day or hour Jesus will return.

Announcements

The Altar Society is having their annual bake sale on Saturday, Nov. 18 at the Navasota auction barn. The owners have requested that we have baked goods such as cookies, Rice Krispy treats, brownies, or anything that can be cut up and put into baggies. The ladies of the parish are asked to help bake for this. If you need someone to pick up your goods please call Delores Posinski @ 873-2113.

St Joseph in Stoneham is hosting a Benefit For St. Peters Catholic Church in Rockport, Texas. The Church and Rectory lost in Hurricane Harvey.

Chili supper with beans or rice and desserts. $10.00 donation

November 15th at 5:30. A small auction of all homemade items.

Jesus uses a parable to teach us about the reality of heaven. He warns us not to become drowsy in our faith, like the virgins who in their foolish lack of preparation bring no oil with them. Instead, Jesus teaches that we are to live in such a way that we are ready to meet the Lord.
