Dear Padre

During summer vacation my family turns into media hounds. We're constantly streaming movies or going to the theater. Does the Church give guidelines for what we should watch?

The bishops of North America have a committee devoted to media and communications (usccb.org/about/communications/family-guide.cfm). This committee suggests that it's the task of parents to educate their children on the influence of the media, to take responsibility for monitoring what media they use, and to become role models in the appropriate use of media.

The duty of the Catholic family is to affirm Christian values in its media choices. The first area to look at is how the film or program portrays human life. Is human life shown as a precious gift from God? Is sexuality linked to life? How is the act of dying presented? Are there moral consequences connected with the actors' actions?

The second yardstick is how the family is presented. Does the movie promote lasting commitments within the context of marriage and the family? Is exploitation, oppression, or neglect of any group condoned or even promoted? Is respect shown for various cultures? The final measurement concerns Scripture and Christian belief. Do your media choices foster a sense of the divine, of human destiny beyond this life, or our obligations to forgive and our need for forgiveness?

Are compassion, reconciliation, thanksgiving, and moral responsibility affirmed? All parents must take full responsibility to affirm strong Catholic morals when choosing their family's movies and television programs.

"Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him, says the Lord." John 6:56

God is merciful to the faithful.

In the first reading, God assures Abraham that he would be merciful to the righteous. In his Letter to the Colossians, Paul writes that Christ took our sins to the cross, so by faith we are forgiven all our transgressions. In the Gospel, Jesus teaches the disciples how to pray to the Father.

"Do not neglect to share what you have" DSF

God bless each of you who have so generously responded in support of the 2019 Diocesan Services Fund. If you have heard Christ's call and have not yet responded, please do so today. To give online, please visit www.archgh.org/dsf. Help us attain our parish goal of $21,000.

Don't forget our neighbors in need.

We are always collecting food for the Anderson Food Bank.

Drop it in the baskets in church or bring to the office.

Faithfulness to God is blessed with grace and mercy. Jesus interceded for us, as Abraham did for Sodom, and salvation is ours through his cross. Righteous living, which is adhering to God's commands and caring for one another, is how we embrace our salvation. Let us pray for one another and for those who may not yet know the Lord – that salvation may be theirs as well.
For God is merciful to the faithful.

RCIA-The Rite of Christian Initiation of adults

Have you been worshipping with us, but never officially took the step to become Catholic?

Have you been away from the church ... and have now returned, but want to know more?

Have you been a Catholic all your life, but never celebrated all the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist)?

Have you joined us from a different faith community and would now like to find out more about the Catholic Church?

Are you seeking a deeper personal relationship with Jesus but have never been Baptized?

If any of the above questions apply to you, we would love to help you in your journey! Or, if you know of anyone who could answer YES to any of the above questions, perhaps you should extend an invitation to them! Please contact our Pastor, Fr. Eli Lopez, for more information (936) 873-2291.

St. Stanislaus Kostka Catholic Church sincerely embraces the clear understanding that initiating new members is the responsibility of the entire community, and through the RCIA Team, sponsors, and the worshipping assembly, offers a welcoming environment for anyone who is interested in learning more about our Catholic faith community. Are you eager to learn more about the Catholic faith and/or become a Catholic? Or, do you know someone like this? The RCIA program is here to help and guide you through this beautiful journey.

What is RCIA?

RCIA is the acronym for: The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. RCIA is primarily a journey of faith and conversion to answer the commission of Jesus to "Go Make Disciples". RCIA is a restoration of the ancient practice of initiation in the church. RCIA is an exciting, loving and open journey centered on conversion of the heart which brings one into a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ as both Lord and Savior. It is a time whereby the candidates enter an extended period of formation and conversion through prayer and reflection on the Gospels and service. It is also a communal journey in which the Catholic Faith Community ritually celebrates conversion at various points during the journey. It is not a program as much as a sacramental journey in which candidates are fully initiated into the Catholic faith.
