The author of the Book of Wisdom observes that it can be difficult to comprehend God's ways, pointing out that what is within our grasp we find with difficulty; but when things are in heaven, who can search them out? Saint Paul writes to Philemon from prison, asking him to welcome Onesimus as a brother, not a slave. In the Gospel, Jesus speaks to the crowd, saying:
Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple.

PHILEMON 1:17

FRANK/SUTTERSTOCK

No Longer a Slave

Paul urges Philemon to treat a runaway slave, Onesimus, as a brother in Christ, not a slave. He didn't ask Philemon to free the man. Nor did he encourage him to work for the eradication of slavery. Why not? The letter doesn't tell us. Yet if we look deeply at this issue, we might discover that Paul was asking for something much more profound than a change in law.

The United States outlawed slavery more than 150 years ago. But that change did nothing to erase the political, economic, and social biases of many citizens. Some people still consider African Americans and other people of color as inferior, untrustworthy and dangerous. Laws cannot change thinking or prejudices.

Had Philemon simply freed Onesimus, would the slave's situation have been improved? In the ancient world, slaves were often branded, thus alerting everyone to their servile position in society. Might this have prevented him from living a full life as a free man? Even if the law had changed, would ancient Rome have provided for former slaves any better than contemporary America has?

Paul pressed Philemon to go deeper into his heart, to change his perception of Onesimus' status in his household. Paul is probably not talking about a blood bond, but the bond that joins Christians to each other as brothers and sisters in Christ. If we really treat each other in this way, discriminatory customs will crumble and there will no longer be any kind of slavery.

Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

FOR Reflection

- ★ How do you regard people of different races? As sisters and brothers, or as dangerous?
- ★ How are nonwhites disadvantaged in your community? What might you do about this?

Dear Padre,

It seems like the Church always asks for money. Why should I donate?

The Church is a global organization representing institutions with growing needs—parishes, schools, charities, and mission societies, for example. If it seems like they “always ask for money,” it’s because there is a constant need to maintain these services. Indeed, the Vatican donates substantial funds to many charities.

Financial support has always been part of Christian community life. Jesus instructed his apostles to rely on the generosity and hospitality of those to whom they preached (see Luke 10:7). Early Christians gave contributions to the apostles to be distributed among widows and orphans. In fact, the early Church’s charitable activities were so extensive, it led to the formation of the diaconate, with deacons focusing on charitable work while the apostles preached (see Acts 6:1–6).

Some observe that the Church owns splendid churches and artwork. “Why doesn’t the Church sell these assets to fund their operations?” they ask. Indeed, as worshipers leave inner-city parishes for the suburbs, dioceses have tried to sell decommissioned churches. They have discovered that few people can or want to buy a church. As for art treasures, they are part of the Church’s patrimony from previous generations that continues to inspire Catholics today and into the future.

Ultimately, we give in charity, recognizing that it’s Christ to whom we give when we give to the needy. Almsgiving is part of Christian life because of what it does for the recipient and for what giving does for the giver (see Acts 20:35).

Fr. Gary Lauenstein, CSSR

A WORD FROM Pope Francis

Charity is not a barren service nor a simple offering to be made in order to ease our conscience. What we must never forget is that charity has its origin and its essence in God himself; charity is God our Father’s embrace of every person, particularly of the least and the suffering.

PRAYER TO ST. STANISLAUS KOSTKA

Dear St. Stanislaus, your exemplary example of purity and devotion to the Virgin Mary and Jesus was justly
Rewarded by our Heavenly Father.

Our society has created an almost impossible atmosphere for our

of virginity, purity, and devotion.

Kindly retain help from Jesus and
Our Blessed Mother to change this atmosphere so that many of our young people may also experience your reward of inner peace, happiness and salvation.

St. Stanislaus, pray for our young people that they may be made

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

CHRIST THE GOOD SHEPHERD CONFERENCE

1511 HWY 90 SOUTH ANDERSON, TX 77830

The Society of St. Vincent DePaul would like to thank our fellow parishioners for their support of this vital ministry. Your donations have provided the following services to 38 families during this past year, January to August 1st:

Rent:	$7,853.00
Electricity:	$3,803
Water:	$1,810
Miscellaneous:	$1,335.00

(including car repairs, donated refrigerator, etc.)

TOTAL: $14,803.00

Without your continued generosity our brothers and sisters who live below the poverty level would not have basic necessities. We have encountered friends who have terminal illnesses and we are their last resort to maintain a roof over their head for that month. Many earning minimum wages on part time working hours. Often, they are seeking two and three jobs that still do not meet their living needs. Choices must be made between an electric bill, water or rent. Yet they are all happy and grateful for what you have provided them. Thank you for being the Good Samaritan. Though the faces of our brothers and sisters are not known to each of you, know that their gratitude for your monetary and pantry sacrifice is overwhelming. We would not exist without you. We cannot adequately express the difference your donations have and will make in our endeavors.

We would like to invite you to speak with one of us after Mass or attend one of our meetings listed in the Parish bulletin. Please consider joining us as the needs of our community continue to grow.

Blessings from the members of St. Vincent DePaul

Our Holy Father's Prayer Intentions September

Abolition of the Death Penalty

We pray that the death penalty, which attacks the dignity of the human person, may be legally abolished in every country .

A Prayer For Rain

Almighty God, we are in need of rain. We realize now, looking up into the clear, blue sky above, what a marvel even the least drop of rain really is. To think that so much water can fall out of the sky, which now is empty and clear! We place our trust in You. We are sure that You know our needs, but You want us to ask You anyway, to show You that we know we are dependent on You. Look on our dry hills and fields, dear God, and bless them with the living blessing of soft rain. Then the land will rejoice and the rivers will sing Your praises and the hearts of men will be glad. Amen

Anointing of the Sick

Starting in September, The anointing of the sick will be held after the 3rd Sunday mass each month. Anointing of the sick is for people who are seriously ill, preparing to undergo surgery and the elderly who are suffering from the infirmities of age.

St. Stanislaus, Through your intercession, may God bless our bazaar this year, may it be a safe celebration, for the glory of God, and the welfare of our parish, Amen
