God calls us to humble service.

In the first reading, Sirach encourages his child to conduct all his affairs with humility. In the second reading, the author writes, You have not approached that which could be touched...no, you have approached Mount Zion. In the Gospel, while dining at the home of a Pharisee, Jesus tells a parable about a wedding banquet. He says that the one who humbles himself by taking the lowest place will be exalted.

Welcome to St. Stanislaus Kostka

Our Holy Father's Prayer Intentions August

For mutual coexistence

Let us pray that societies where coexistence seems more difficult might not succumb to the temptation of confrontation for ethnic, political, religious, or ideological reasons.

CCE registration

<https://forms.gle/mhCuCkovJqfBzSc6>

Please register your student for the upcoming CCE year. We will begin on Sept. 3rd at 6:00 in the parish hall

Pilgrimage with Father Paul Lockey

You are invited to join a 10-day pilgrimage to Poland & Prague April 13—22, 2026 led by Fr. Paul Lockey. Detailed brochures available in church and the office.

Adoration will start again Monday September 8th. 8:00am to 8:00pm

Everyone is welcome

OCIA Classes

If you, or someone you know, is interested in learning more about the Catholic faith or becoming Catholic, we invite you to join our upcoming OCIA classes — the Order of Christian Initiation for Adults. These classes are for anyone who wishes to explore the faith and prepare for the Sacraments. Classes will begin on Wednesday, September 10th and Jaime Diehl will be leading the sessions. If you would like to sign up or have questions, please contact the parish office for more information. We look forward to walking this journey of faith with you!

St. Vincent de Paul

Our next meeting will be Saturday, September 6, 10:00 a.m. St. Patrick's Hall Navasota. We are always seeking new members to join us. We are currently in need of microwavable foods (macaroni, packaged Hormel meals) Knorr rice and noodle packets, mayonnaise, and mustard. We are preparing for the upcoming winter months. We would like to provide blankets, jackets, coats, sweaters to the children and adults whom we meet. Blankets especially are appreciated by our St. Vincent families. Our Senior Citizens are having increasing difficulty meeting their monthly expenses. These items would be greatly appreciated. "We cannot better assure our eternal happiness than by living and dying in the service of the poor, in the arms of Providence and with genuine renouncement of ourselves in order to follow Jesus." St. Vincent de Paul"

We are preparing to print our parish photo directory. We realized several families were on vacation during our photo shoot. We have a makeup date set for Tuesday September 16th. To schedule your appointment, please call the parish office.

Humility helps us to see ourselves clearly and not to grasp at what is beyond our strength. Both the reading from Sirach and Luke's Gospel tell us that those who humble themselves will find favor with God. They also point to a connection between humility and service. Those who give alms – who give without expecting repayment – will receive their reward in heaven.

Life Out of Focus

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

I found myself angry the other day, as we all do, I suppose, whenever we put our foot in our mouth, or forget about an important engagement, or scramble whatever it was we had hoped would be picture-perfect. What I had scrambled was a homily. For some reason, the image came out wrong, or the example did not fit, or it just did not come together the way I had hoped. And I was angry with myself to the point that it caught me off guard. It was an unexpected glimpse of what I didn't want to admit: the fact that the way people might perceive me as a preacher had taken on more importance than preaching God's word. Life had gotten out of focus. A perspective had been lost.

It happens to us all in the course of our lifetimes, and more than once. Grades become more important than learning, or being right more important than the relationship, or the address of where we live more important than the people living together. It happens between parent and child when a parent places greater significance on the son's or daughter's profession than on that son's or daughter's happiness. Like in the parable of Jesus, where we sit at table takes on greater meaning than the people who gather or the meal that is shared. That is what pride does. It distorts what is real and shifts the focus of life to ourselves. The antidote? A prayerful awareness of who we are and who God is. ●

Reflect

What is more important to me than it should be?

[Jesus said,] "Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

LUKE 14:11

Dear Padre,

Is it sacrilegious to throw away a sacramental?

"Sacramentals do not confer the grace of the Holy Spirit in the way that the sacraments do, but by the Church's prayer, they prepare us to receive and dispose us to cooperate with it" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1670). Therefore, sacramentals confer grace through the Church's power of prayer and, if blessed, should not be thrown away but burned and/or buried. If the object has not been blessed, it can be discarded; however, it could also be donated to a Catholic ministry (school, prison, hospital, etc.) that would benefit from its distribution. (If a religious object was included in an unsolicited appeal letter from a charitable organization, it is safe to assume that it was not blessed.)

If the object is worn or broken, it should be substantially altered so that it loses its form as a sacramental and then returned to the earthly elements. For example, a worn scapular should be burned and the ashes buried; a damaged statue should be further broken into smaller fragments and buried. A European tradition on the Vigil of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist (June 23) is to burn old sacramentals in bonfires and bury the ashes. Burning and/or burial respects the sacred nature once held by these items and prevents their adaptation for trivial use. Reverence and discretion are proper for whatever method of disposal. ●

Taking the Lowest Place

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus was watching to see where the people sat when they were guests at a dinner. Some people thought they were important so they sat in the more important places. Jesus saw that they were proud, so He taught them about being humble.

When we are proud we think that we are more important than other people, and that we deserve to have better things. We start to look down on everyone else, and pretty soon we start thinking that God isn't so great either!

Being humble means knowing that we really are not all that important, even if we are better at some things than other people or have more money or more important jobs. It means we know that God gave us these things to help others, not so that we could be proud about them.

We can only give glory to God when we are humble.

Luke 14:1,7-14

SAINT GREGORY SUFFERED FROM DIFFERENT SICKNESSES. HE DIED WHEN HE WAS ABOUT 64. THE CHURCH'S SPECIAL MUSIC, GREGORIAN CHANT, WAS NAMED AFTER HIM BECAUSE OF HIS WORK IN SORTING IT ALL OUT. HE IS ALSO KNOWN FOR SENDING SOME OF THE FIRST MISSIONARIES TO ENGLAND.

True or False: How to be Humble

What did Jesus say? Some of these are true and some aren't. Can you figure out which is which?

1. If you know that you are an important guest then you should sit in the place of honour. True or False?
2. If you go to a wedding feast and sit in a place of honour, someone more important might come and you will have to move to a lower place. True or False?
3. If you sit in a lower place, then the one who invited you will tell you to sit in a more important place and you will be honoured. True or False?
4. Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled and everyone who humbles himself will be exalted. True or False?
5. When you have a dinner, you should invite the most important people so that they will invite you back. True or False?
6. If you are having a banquet or dinner, you should invite the poor and crippled people who can't invite you back. True or False?
7. If you invite the poor and crippled people to your dinner, you will never be repaid. True or False?
