Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

November 9, 2025

We are called to be God's temple, giving life to the world.

The first reading describes Ezekiel's vision of life-giving water flowing from the threshold of the temple. The water flows into the sea, where it makes the salt waters fresh. In the second reading, Saint Paul tells the Corinthians that they are God's temple and that the Spirit of God dwells in them. In the Gospel, Jesus drives the money-changers and merchants out of the temple. Only after the Resurrection do his disciples realize that he was speaking of his body when he said, Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up.

It's time to start planning this year's Christmas Eve Meal! Last year, we were blessed to deliver 170 meals to those in need, alone, or homebound. If you would like to help this year, please contact Jenni Abraham at jenniabraham6@gmail.com for more details. We will also be collecting new blankets again to include with each meal. Thank you for helping us make this a meaningful tradition as we serve those in need throughout Grimes County.

This Safe Environment training is mandatory for the following:

ALL Volunteers

ALL participating in any capacity at the parish.

CCE Christmas Play

CCE is doing a Christmas play this year after mass on December 14th, and we are in need of people to help sew costumes and make the set. If you are able to help, you can email ststancece@gmail.com or contact Morgan Bourque at 936-870-7066

Our pantry is in need of many items. There is an increase in request for food. Many of our Friends are losing benefits without resources to purchase groceries. Our children and senior citizens will be the most affected at a time of year we will celebrate the birth of Our Savior. Our list is long since we have to restock goods. The following are items we are most in need of: Knorr noodles and rice packets, instant mashed potatoes, spaghetti sauce, mayonnaise, mustard, salt, black pepper, unsweetened canned fruit, stuffing mixes, cereal, fruit snacks, cheese crackers, any other snacks for our children, detergent, Clorox wipes, bathing soap, toothpaste, antiperspirants, and shampoo. May God bless you all for sharing your resources with those in need.

Our next St. Vincent de Paul meeting is Wednesday, November 12, 6:00 p.m. at the K.C. Hall in Anderson.

Please join us to hear how the organization works and how your talent can help.

In baptism, we became temples where the Spirit of God came to dwell. He remains in us so long as we do not drive him out by mortal sin; his presence influences our lives and transforms our hearts more when we put no obstacles in the way of his action. Just as Jesus drove the money-changers out of the Jerusalem temple, so we should ask him to drive out of our hearts all selfish desires so we can live fully for the glory of God and the service of others.

For I am the LORD your God, Who holds your right hand and says
Don't be afraid I will help you. ISAIAH 41:13

The Body of Christ on Parade

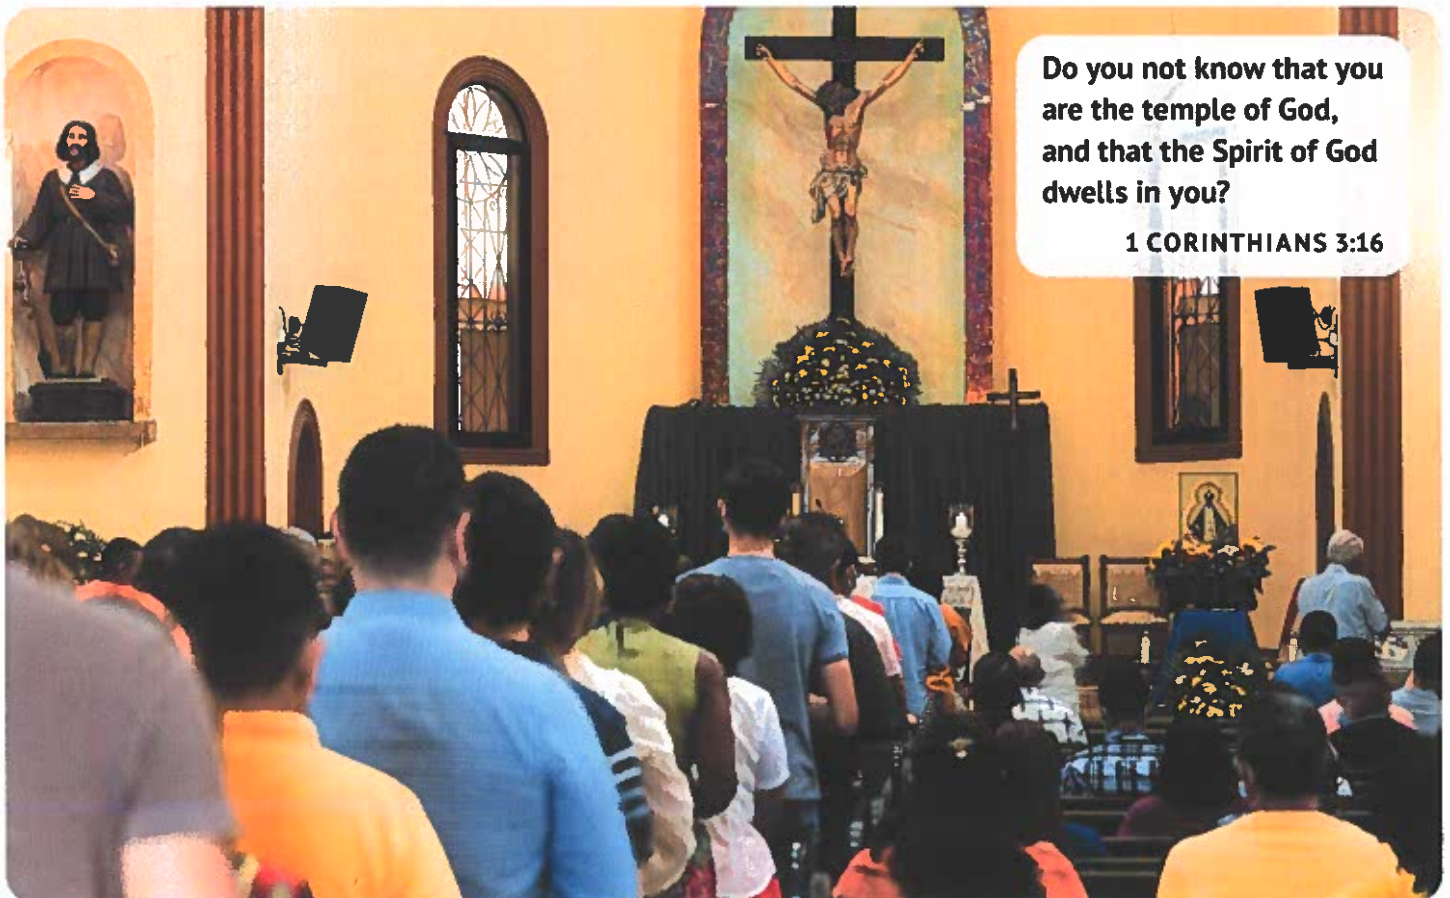

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Singing together during the distribution of holy Communion is one way of expressing the reality that we are one in the Eucharist, the Body of Christ. I once was taught to pray quietly during this time. If I'm honest, however, what I find myself doing after I return to my pew is watching others process past as they return from receiving Communion. They are a parade of holiness on the way. They are the longtime parishioners who have been making their way back to their pews in this way for decades—some now using walkers or canes, others with a bit of a slow hobble. There are teenagers, too. Some, from the expressions on their faces, look like their parents made them come, while others look impressively prayerful. Young parents, too, caring for a new baby in their arms, and another couple holding a two-year-old's hand as he tugs to escape and be free. And middle-aged single people, now halfway through this life's journey. Young couples, as well, those just married or engaged and so obviously in love, but also widows and widowers longing for the love they once knew. All of these are the body of Christ, the very temple of God built upon the foundation that is Christ Jesus, as Paul notes so well. This is why I watch them processing back to their pews. This, too, is prayer. ●

Reflect

How do I pray after I've received holy Communion?

Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?

1 CORINTHIANS 3:16

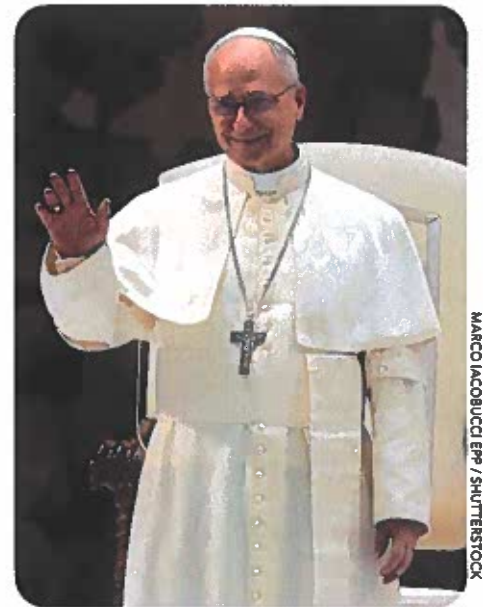

Dear Padre,

Should the pope get involved in American politics?

No, the pope should not get involved in the politics of any country. However, politics often intersects with religious concerns and particularly gospel values. When this occurs, the Holy Father has a responsibility to preach the gospel and defend the values the gospel teaches, even when it might sound political. He pronounces and teaches the values of the gospel, regardless of what nation or politician might feel confronted or challenged by what he teaches.

What often happens is, when politicians find themselves in conflict with the gospel values the pope is teaching, they choose to say, "The pope has no business in our politics," instead of listening. Completely understandable, at least from one perspective, but probably also disingenuous from another perspective. Politicians are fully aware of what is being proclaimed and why it is being proclaimed but choose not to listen. That, too, is completely understandable, if regrettable. One has to think only of the scribes and the Pharisees, and more particularly the high priest, who said, "Consider that it is better for you that one man should die instead of the people, so that the whole nation may not perish" (John 11:50). ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

Because of the Jewish roots of Christianity, all Christians have a special relationship with Judaism.... The theological dialogue between Christians and Jews remains ever important and close to my heart. Even in these difficult times, marked by conflicts and misunderstandings, it is necessary to continue the momentum of this precious dialogue of ours.

ADDRESS, ROME, MAY 19, 2025

Birthday of the Church's Church!

Today is a rather unusual feast day. On most feast days we celebrate Our Lord or Our Lady or one the saints. But today we celebrate the day that a church in Rome was started.

Did you know that every parish has a special feast day when it has its birthday or the feast day of its patron saint? The Saint John Lateran Basilica in Rome was dedicated to God, sort of like its birthday, on November 9. And because it is the Pope's main church- and all Catholics belong to his parish, we celebrate its birthday because it's our church too!

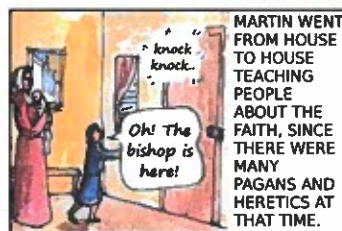

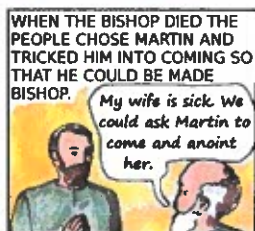

You might be wondering why we have a birthday for a building, though! Well, a church is not just an ordinary building. It is made specially for the worship of God in the Mass. A church is also a symbol of the mystical Body of Christ, which is the people who belong to His Church. Today is a good day to remember and celebrate that we are part of Jesus' Church and His family on earth!

And making a _____ of cords, he drove them all, with the sheep and oxen, out of the temple; and he poured out the _____ of the money-changers and overturned their tables. And he told those who sold the pigeons, "Take these things away; you shall not make my Father's house a house of trade." His disciples _____ that it was written, "Zeal for thy _____ will consume me." The Jews then said to him, "What sign have you to show us for doing this?" Jesus answered them, "_____ this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews then said, "It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will you raise it up in three _____?" But he spoke of the temple of
