St. Vincent de Paul

Our next St. Vincent de Paul meeting will be Wednesday, May 13, 6:00 p.m., K.C. Hall in Anderson. Please join us not only to hear if this ministry is for you but experience the presence of Jesus. As Jesus said, "where two or more are gathered in MY name, there am I." We enter our gathering place with the daily drudgeries of the day. The Holy Spirit becomes quite evident as we share a reflection and their effect in our day and in our lives. Our reflections help us magnify His presence to our Friends who often give us so much more than we ever expected. We are in need of Clorox wipes, toilet paper, shampoo, conditioner, antiperspirant, dish washing liquid and sponges.

The office will be closed

Seven Sisters Apostolate

All ladies of the parish are you looking for a ministry to join? Please consider joining the Seven Sisters Apostolate Ministry. It is a one-year commitment of one hour per week of prayer for a period of one year for our priest but can remain open-ended in time as everyone discerns her call to continue. The normal commitment prayer itself would be made on the Solemnity of Sacred Heart of Jesus, Friday, June 12, 2026. A discernment period to continue or end a current commitment to the Apostolate precedes this during May, the month of the Immaculate Heart. We will have a meeting on Tuesday, May 26, 2026, at 6pm in the parish hall for anyone that is interested in joining this ministry. Additional information may be found on the Seven Sisters Apostolate website: sevensistersapostolate.org

Altar Server Training

If you're interested in becoming an altar server, please sign up on the notepad located at the back of the church. We will contact you with the date and time for training. Children in 3rd grade and up are welcome to sign up for the ministry.

Pilgrimage to FATIMA

Msgr. Adam McClosky will lead a pilgrimage to Fatima September 30th to October 10th, 2026 visiting Fatima and Santiago de Compostela (Spain). Mass will be celebrated each day and teaching on First Saturday devotion requested by Our Lady herself. Space is limited. Further information available in the parish office and on church bulletin board.

FOCUS: I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you.

As Christians we are called to share the Good News. Saint Peter challenges us to be ready to give an account of the hope that we have in Christ, but to do so with gentleness. As the old saying goes, we attract others more easily with honey than with vinegar. But it isn't always easy to evangelize, and we have no guarantee of how we will be received. We need God's love and the power of the Holy Spirit, the promised Advocate, to fulfill this task

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Philip proclaims the Good News of salvation to the Samaritans. As they hear and witness his words and actions, they accept the message with joy. Peter challenges the Christian community to be ready to explain their faith and to live blamelessly, even in the face of persecution. In the Gospel, Jesus encourages his disciples to remain faithful to his words and to keep his commandments, promising them another Advocate who would lead them to all truth.

The Already and the Not Yet

FR. THOMAS M. SANTA, CSsR

The church celebrates again and again during the Easter season a core truth of Christian thought and belief: “the already and the not yet.” Jesus has already saved us, but we have not yet experienced the fullness of the kingdom. In this belief, there is tension, the experience of standing in the middle, where the tension is lived, and hopefully where balance is achieved.

What makes the tension bearable is that we know we have not been left as orphans. We are not on our own. The Spirit of God is sent to us and enables us to hold fast to what we have known and experienced and what is still unknown to us. Scripture and tradition, dogmas and doctrines, sacraments and sacramentals, practices and disciplines, all inspired by the Spirit of God, provide us with the necessary support and direction and help us remain balanced.

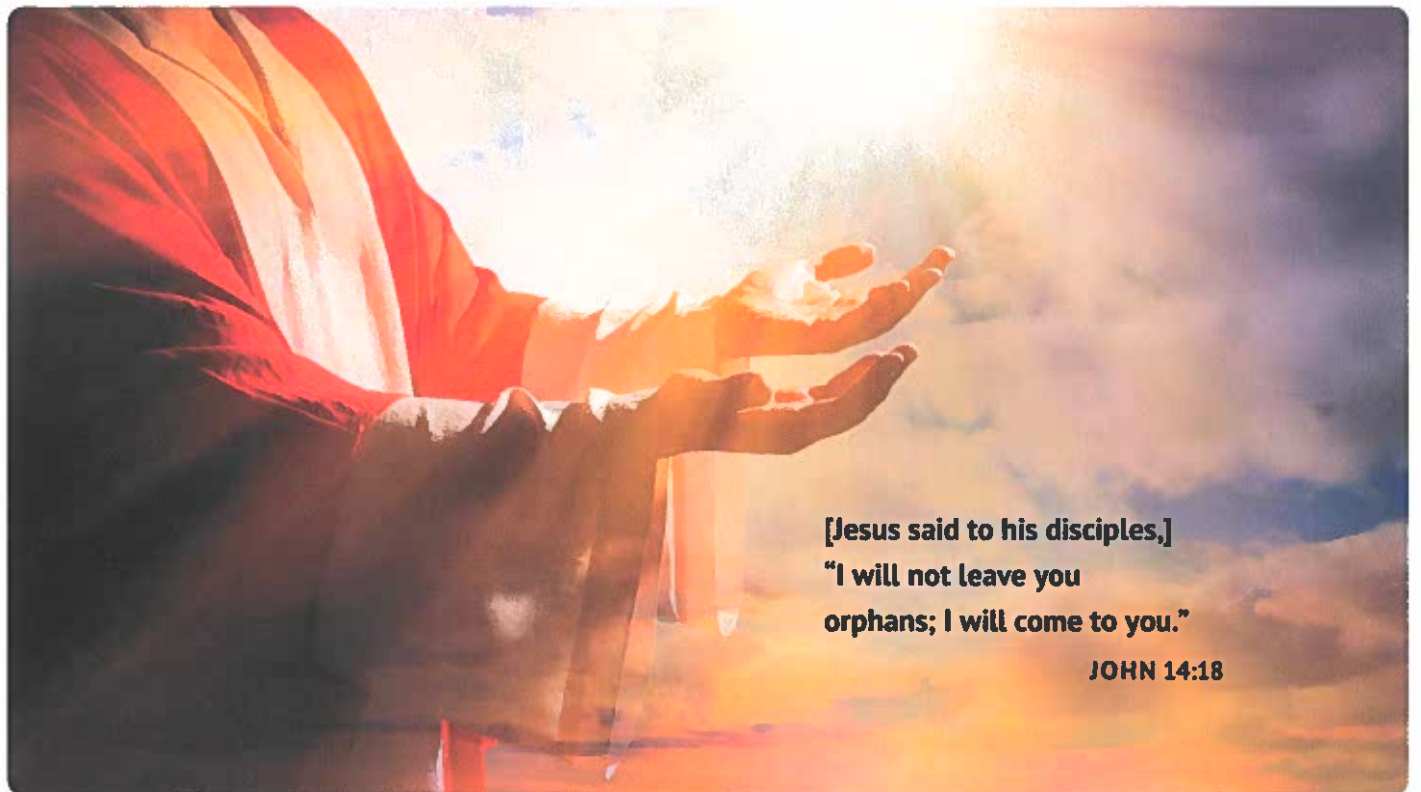

As wonderful as each of these gifts of the Spirit may be, each gift must be received, encountered, enabled, and lived. If the gifts are given but never received—and, even more important, used and shared—we not only refuse a gift freely given by our God but also deprive ourselves of the means to maintain our balance and remain on the path that leads to life and light. ●

Reflect

Is there a gift from God I have not received or lived? How can I begin?

[Jesus said to his disciples,]
“I will not leave you
orphans; I will come to you.”

JOHN 14:18

Jesus Sends the Holy Spirit Through the Sacraments

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus tells the disciples that He is going away, but the Father will send the Holy Spirit to help them.

We can't see Jesus on earth any more, because His body went into Heaven at the Ascension. We can't see the Holy Spirit either, because He doesn't have a body. The Holy Spirit really is in the world, though. He is working in the Church and in people who obey and love God.

The Holy Spirit comes to us mainly through the sacraments. We get grace, which is God's life in us, when we receive the sacraments. Jesus gave us the sacraments to help us on our way to Heaven. Do you know the seven sacraments? Here is a list to help you to remember:

Baptism
Confession
Confirmation
Holy Communion
Marriage
Holy Orders
Sacrament of the Sick

PHILIP went to a Samaritan town and proclaimed the CHRIST to them. The people united in WELCOMING the MESSAGE Philip PREACHED, either because they had heard of the MIRACLES he worked or because they saw them for themselves. THERE was great REJOICING in that town.

When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that SAMARIA had accepted the WORD of GOD, they sent PETER and JOHN to them, and they went DOWN there, and PRAYED for the Samaritans to receive the HOLY SPIRIT, for as yet he had not COME down on any of them: they had only been baptised in the NAME of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid HANDS on them, and they RECEIVED the
