Do you realize that the life you live today and each day has implications for eternity? In other words, we do not live just for the moment, we live in view of the future and for eternity. The parable of this weekend's gospel draws our attention to this fact, as it focuses on the unpredictable return of Jesus and our need to be prepared for his return. Today's culture makes provision for many uncertainties. For instance, it is normal to carry a spare tire, a provision for any event of a flat. We carry umbrellas in the likelihood of rain. We have many insurances – insurance for fire, for burglary, for health, for accident during work, etc. All these are safety nets in case of eventualities. On flights, airline stewards provide pre-flight instructions in preparation for turbulent weather. These provisions are good and commendable. But think of it, of all the preparations that we make for the things and situations mentioned above not a single one is a certainty – yet we feel compelled to prepare ourselves for them.

The return of the Lord Jesus is a definitive certainty. We do not know the day or the hour but we know the fact. That is why we are again reminded this weekend of the need to be watchful and ready to worthily welcome him when he comes. He can come to us in death or at the end of time. So the point of the parable of this weekend is not whether or not Christ is coming again, or when he is coming or even how he is coming. The point is about being prepared for his coming: "Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit," commands the gospel.

There are many uncertainties and distractions on the journey of life. We do not know where and how the journey will end. All we know is that at the end of it, our Lord will be there to meet us and to welcome us into the heavenly kingdom. If we have truly lived our lives in view of eternity with the Lord, then, we will be well prepared to warmly greet our Lord and to appreciate his loving embrace.

My vacation was splendid, peaceful and restful. Thanks to all who prayed for me. I was in the community of the Missionaries of Africa or "White Fathers." They are a community of four, three Canadians and one Filipino. I had a good tour of Toronto including a boat trip on Lake Ontario. I was in the west of Toronto very close to High Park and Lake Ontario. I spent much time in the park, at the zoo and at the lake. One of the high points of my holiday was my visit to the Martyrs Shrine in Midland, ON in the town of Penetanguishene. It is 90 miles North of Toronto. Yes, saints lived there. Eight Jesuits, six priests and two lay people were martyred for the faith. St. Pope John Paul II visited the place when he was in Toronto for World Youth Day in 2002. It is a place worth visiting as it will invigorate your faith and strengthen you in times of adversity. May the Canadian martyrs - St. René Goupil, St. Isaac Jogues, St. Jean de Lalande, St. Antoine Daniel, St. Jean de Brébeuf, St. Noël Chabanel, St. Charles Garnier, and St. Gabriel Lalemand pray for us to stand ready for the Lord when he comes.
