RESPECT LIFE CORNER

"To celebrate the Gospel of life means to celebrate the God of life, the God who gives life..."

In every child which is born and in every person who lives or dies we see the image of God's glory.

We celebrate this glory in every human being,
a sign of the living God,
an icon of Jesus Christ."

The altar , around which the Church is gathered in the celebration of the Eucharist, represents the two aspects of the same mystery: the altar of the sacrifice and the table of the Lord..... St. Ambrose once said, "The altar represents the body [of Christ] and the Body of Christ is on the altar."....CCC1383

THE MIRACLE IN BRETTBRUNN
GERMANY 1125

The building of the village of Brettbrunn and of the present-day Church of the Holy Savior are owing to a Eucharistic miracle that took place in 1125. In the place where the town and the church are now located, there once was only a small farm called Viehbrunn, because next to it was a well that was used to give water to livestock. The owner, a farmer, was a man who was deeply devoted to the most Blessed Sacrament. His name has long been forgotten. He lived an hour and a half away from the parish church of Tholling and was not always able to attend Mass. Because of his zeal, he decided to solve the problem by secretly stealing a Sacred Host and bringing it to his home! The farmer took the stick that he always brought with him and made an opening on the top end into which he placed the Host. Every day, when the livestock were resting, he stuck his stick into the ground and knelt before the most Holy Sacrament in its makeshift altar for many hours. For several months, the man continued in this manner, until one day, without thinking, he suddenly threw the stick with the Sacred Host still in place, at a herd that had strayed too far. The Host fell to the ground and the farmer quickly bent down to pick it up but was unable to move it from its place on the ground. He sent for the parish priest to pick up the Host, but he couldn't pick it up either! Finally, the call went out for the bishop whose attempt to pick up the Host also failed! Inspired by the Holy Spirit, the bishop vowed to Our Lord that he would build a chapel on that very spot. Then the Sacred Host was lifted up from its place on the ground with great ease!
