Everyday Stewardship

Due to the constant unchecked flow of data and information through the Internet, it can be hard to know when a story is real news or rubbish. It never ceases to amaze me when someone I know has bought into some crazy fake news story. Sometimes the story is just so unbelievable: celebrities who gained two hundred pounds in a month, women having babies who were never pregnant, or people actually being seen who are dead! Like Elvis!

The apostle Thomas found the news that Jesus was alive just too far-fetched to believe. But he didn't first hear the news on the Internet or read it standing in the grocery store checkout line. His friends told him. His fellow apostles told him they had actually seen the Lord with their own eyes. Their testimony was not enough. He needed proof.

The resurrection of Jesus gives us not only hope, but also a reason to be his disciples. We have not seen with our own eyes but, like Thomas, we have a community, the Church, that has relayed the truth to us. This same Jesus now calls us to go forth to spread the Gospel. More unbelievable than that, we have, through the gifts we have been given, a chance to change and even save lives. The day may come that you, moved by this news of the risen Lord, will be an agent of his love to the point where someone will tell the tale that you, a follower of Jesus, actually helped to change his or her life. Pretty unbelievable, right?

The Real Presence

THE MIRACLE OF BRAINE, FRANCE 1153

At the time of the Eucharistic miracle of Braine, France, a great number of non-Catholics lived in the city, which is located in the archdiocese of Soissons. Countess Agnes of Braine, who lived in a castle of the city, tried to convert many of the non-Catholics, and concentrated her efforts on a beautiful young Jewish girl who steadfastly refused to believe in the Holy Eucharist. Determined to win the girl to the faith, the countess forcibly removed her to the castle where she became a chambermaid and a lady-in-waiting. In 1153, the archbishop arranged for a solemn High Mass and a procession around the city in observance of the feast of the Holy Spirit. Attending were all the people of Braine, including non-Catholics, who attended out of respect for the archbishop and curiosity about the elaborate activities that were planned. During the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, celebrated by the archbishop, at the time of the Elevation, the people saw, instead of the Host, a small child. Descriptions are not available, nor is it known how long the vision lasted, but it was so magnificent and impressive that the non-Catholics, now filled with the Holy Spirit, demanded Baptism! It is speculated that the young Jewish girl was among those who asked for Baptism. Following the miracle, Countess Agnes founded a monastery where the miraculous Host was kept for centuries. However, in 1733, after having been seen and worshipped by many pilgrims, Catholic dignitaries, and clergy, an historian of Valois discovered that the Host, in the normal fashion, had been reduced to a little dust. The Host had been kept in a tabernacle, together with the chalice that had been used during the Mass of the miracle.

75th Year Queen of Martyrs Church

On April 4, 1948, at 8:00 a.m., Queen of Martyrs Catholic Church celebrated their very first mass. The second mass followed the same day at noon. By the end of the day over 400 people attended mass at this temporary location.

Father Buchheit was extremely pleased by the turnout and announced plans would continue forward with the church and school buildings. The house currently on the church property will be remodeled to become the rectory.

According to Father Buchheit, "All needs for offering mass supplied: Grateful, indeed am I (Father Buchheit) to Father Taske (Our Lady of Rosary) for having furnished me with all things necessary for offering the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass in the temporary quarters of the Franklin Used Car Company. And that means altar, altar cloths, candles, missal, altar cards, crucifix, vestments, kneeling benches, chairs, etc, etc, etc,..."
