Receive greetings! We are beginning our discussion by looking at the vision of the Family.

As the beginning of such a discussion, I am inviting you to attend a workshop on August 5, 2023, at St Benedict beginning at 10 am

I hope you can make it. Further information may follow.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Patience is rooted in Hope (an image of a bush filled with birds would be great)

Life, like the church, is often burdened with evil, smallness, and impurities. The Lord's parables give us a hope-filled perspective on all three.

Evil: in Jesus' parable about the good farmer whose enemy plants weeds at night, Jesus tells us that God is not the cause of evil but permits evil to exist with good out of his patient love. He will finally deal with it, but his love lets things stay messy for a time.

Smallness: It's funny that Jesus says his kingdom looks like ... wait for it ... a bush. What a letdown! Yet this little shrub still somehow has room for all the birds of the sky. The smallness of the Church, and even our own little lives, still provides plenty of room for all whom God sends.

Impurities: divisions and hypocrisies in the Church and our own hearts exasperate us. Recall that Jesus compares his kingdom to a lump of dough with impure leaven eating away at it and therefore making it expand. It's the secret of the Cross. Not how we'd prefer it. But finally, great news.

The field, the bush, the loaf: all three parables invite us to embrace a patience rooted in hope: one day the field will be weeded, the bush filled with birds, and the risen loaf leaven-free.

— Father John Muir

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Do What Needs to Be Done

A friend recently confided in me that although he prayed frequently each day and was involved heavily in his parish, he did not sense much fruit coming from it all and was left feeling unsatisfied. I assured him he was not alone. I told him of a deceased pastor of mine who had spoken frequently about being in this type of situation. Even as a priest, he knew all too well of how we can feel like we are simply going through the motions. It is precisely at those times that continuing to pray and practicing good stewardship is most important, because it would be easier to simply take a break and risk never coming back. He liked to say, "Do the drill," meaning just do what needs to be done.

We are all called to be mature disciples who answer the call of Jesus Christ regardless of the cost. We cannot choose when and where the call will come. We cannot schedule our stewardship in a way that is always most convenient for us. Even when the fruits of our faithful efforts seem hidden from us, we hold to the promise that we are never called to give of ourselves for nothing. God is working through us and in us. No matter how dry the land may seem, seeds are being planted to yield a harvest greater than we can ever realize. Stay strong and do the drill!

RESPECT LIFE CORNER

"Married love differs from any other love in the world. By its nature, the love of husband and wife is so complete, so ordered to a lifetime of communion with God and each other, that it is open to creating a new human being they will love and care for together. ... That power to create a new life with God is at the heart of what spouses share with each other."

United States Conference of Catholic Bishops
"Married Love and the Gift of Life"

Commitment

The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which someone found and hid; then in his joy goes out and sells all he has to buy that field. (Matthew 13:44)

What would you be willing to "sell," or do without, in order to achieve your dreams for yourself or your family?

Use this question for personal prayer, beginning a meeting, or conversations with others to prepare for the July 23, 2023 readings:

Reading I 1 Kings 3:5, 7-12 Wisdom of Solomon

Reading II Romans 8:28-30 God's love for all

Gospel Matthew 13:44-46 The treasure and the pearl

Our Lady of Grace Bible Study Will resume for the Summer/Fall session on August 17. See information below.

Our Lady of Grace Bible Study

Bible Study – an act of acquiring knowledge of God; the scriptures; Christian faith, the reasons why we do what we do as followers of Christ. Please consider joining us as our Guided Discovery helps us learn about “Jesus, Man of Prayer,” “with selected readings from The Gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke and the Psalms. Jesus extends the opportunity to be with Him, as we pray. In prayer, each of us reach out to Him. We will also learn about “Jesus, the Healer,” with selected readings from the Book of Isaiah, and all Four Gospels. We will look at several stories about Jesus, the healer, in hopes of learning more about Jesus, about healing and about how Jesus is still at work in the world. Both, are an excellent lead up to the Celebration of Jesus’ Birth at Christmas.

The next 12-week session will resume on Thursday, August 17, in the MaDonna Room at Corpus Christi, 6:30 pm. Please call Leona Marmolejo, 937-274-4476, by August 6, if you would like to join us, for further information.

When it was evening, the boat was far out to the sea. Then he saw that they were tossed about while rowing, for the wind was against them. But at once he spoke with them, "Take courage, it is I, do not be afraid!" He got into the boat with them and the wind died down. Mk 6:47a,48a,50b,51a

The Real Presence

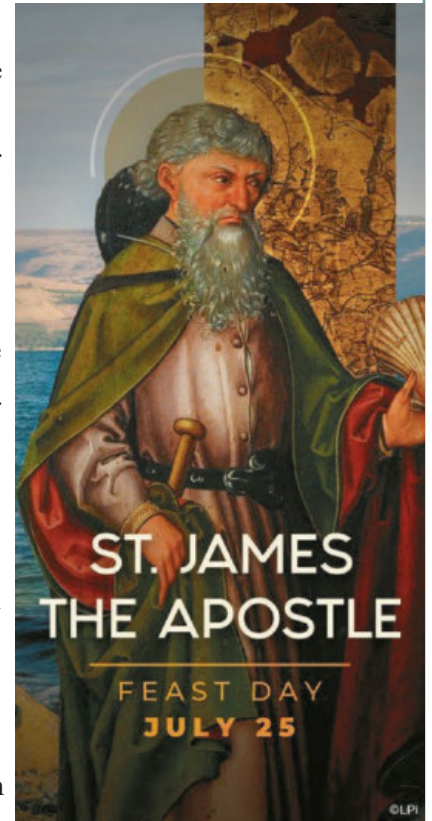

St. Gregory the Great (d. 604), Pope and Doctor of the Church, has left us many writings in which he illustrates his love for the Holy Eucharist and the power of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. In the fourth book of his Dialogues, he relates the following occurrence: Agatho, Bishop of Palermo, journeyed from Sicily to Rome. On his way, a frightful storm arose and almost sank the ship in which he voyaged. All those on board the ship began to pray and to offer up petitions to Almighty God that their lives might be spared. While they were all praying, a certain sailor was occupied in steering a boat which was fastened to the ship, but which, through the violence of the storm, broke away from her holdfast and sank with the unfortunate sailor beneath the waves. Bishop Agatho reckoned him as dead. After many dangers, the ship in which the Bishop sailed arrived at the island of Ostika where he offered the Sacrifice of the Mass for the unfortunate sailor. As soon as the ship was repaired, Bishop Agatho continued on his voyage to Rome. When he landed, he found the sailor, whom he believed to be dead, standing on the shore. Full of joy, he inquired of the sailor how he had escaped the great dangers of so many days. The sailor then related how his little boat seemed continually on the point of capsizing, but always rose unharmed again and again to the top of the waves. Day and night he succeeded in struggling with the waves, but being weakened with hunger and thirst, he would have inevitably gone to the bottom had not help been sent to him. "At length suddenly," he narrated, "when I was prostrate, and, as it were, out of my mind, not knowing whether I was sleeping or waking, I saw a man standing before me, who offered me bread. Scarcely had I received the bread when my strength returned to me, and soon after I was picked up by a ship and brought here. When the Bishop learned that the day on which that event had taken place, he realized that it was the same day on which he had offered Holy Mass for the unfortunate sailor on the island of Ostika and gave thanks to God for this miracle.

St. James the Apostle | July 25

Saint James the Apostle is also called James, son of Zebedee, or James the Greater to distinguish him from the other James in Jesus' group of twelve. Most of what we know about Saint James is recorded in the New Testament. He and his brother John were collected by Jesus along the sea of Galilee. Matthew 4:18-22 tells the story of Jesus calling first Simon Peter and his brother Andrew and then the sons of Zebedee. In Mark 3:17 the brothers receive a nickname from Jesus who calls them "sons of thunder" because of their many extreme reactions, like that in Luke 9:54 when they offer to call down fire on a Samaritan village.

Saint James was part of Jesus' intimate circle, a witness to the Transfiguration, the resurrection of Jarius' daughter, and the agony in the garden of Gethsemane. In A.D. 44 Herod Agrippa had "James, the brother of John, killed by the sword." (Acts 12:2) He is the only apostle whose martyrdom is written of in the New Testament.

According to Spanish tradition, his body was taken to Santiago de Compostela, Spain where his relics were rediscovered in 9th century. This tradition has sometimes been attributed to a passage in the Song of Roland which tells of St. James appearing to Charlemagne in a dream, prophesying that Charlemagne would conquer the Moors in Spain. This was followed by a vision of stars which if followed would lead to the saint's lost tomb. In the Middle Ages Compostela was a hugely popular pilgrimage site. The saint's relics continue to rest in the cathedral there and one can still undertake the pilgrimage.

75th Year Queen of Martyrs Church

Our basement church, which is now known as Broerman Hall, was built in 1953 with hopes of someday building upward. With the amount of building and renovating that had transpired in the past 5 years, the dream of a superstructure or free-standing church would take 36 years to complete.

The first Mass in the basement church was celebrated on Christmas Eve, 1953 at Midnight. The blessing of the Crib proceeded the Midnight Mass. Christmas Day masses were held at 6:00 am, 7:00 am, 8:30 am, 10:00 am and 11:00 am.
