The Biblical stories of Barabbas, Blind Bartimaeus, and the Woman Jesus healed are intertwined in this modern day retelling. Discover, as these three did, the power of an encounter with Jesus. The woman Jesus healed suffered for twelve years with an incurable disease. She literally lost everything that she had and had every reason to become bitter, but she kept her faith and was forever changed. Meanwhile, Bartimaeus, through no fault of his own, was handed a very rough life. He spent years on the streets until one day he had an encounter that changed his life. Barabbas also enters the story as a man who made bad decision after bad decision and lived the life of a common street thug. He was ultimately sentenced to death for his crimes. Although execution may be a fitting end to such a story, someone else took his place and was put to death instead. Discover the evangelizing power of encounter and conversion.
